

Women Warned Not to Kiss Poor Little Pekingese Dog

LONDON.—AP.—Pyloritis has spread among Pekingese dogs so extensively that H. R. Oswald, a Hammersmith coroner, has issued a warning against people kissing dogs.

The comment was made at an inquest of a woman who contracted "trench mouth," a form of pyorrhea, after being bitten in the mouth by her Pekingese which she was caressing.

Home Opened for Jobless Stage Folk in Germany

Berlin.—AP.—Home for jobless actors and actresses has been opened in Berlin with the assistance of business men and stage stars. Luncheons will be served for a nominal charge of from 6 to 10 cents in a dining room seating 50 persons.

MEN'S HAIR LONG

BOKHARA, Turkestan—Bobbed hair and truncated tresses may be popular in America and Europe, but the mode has not penetrated Asiatic Russia.

famous cafe in Paris. We also saw the late Valentino's dressing room, a complete bungalow of several rooms. Next we were shown a scene from "Senorita," which Bebe Daniels is now making. We then met Miss Daniels in person. She is very sweet un-sophisticated, much more beautiful in real life than on the screen.

And Pola Negri, too set where Pola Negri is making her latest picture, "The Woman on Trial." Miss Negri is beautiful but snobbish. Later we met Clara Bow and Charles Rogers (her leading man), who is making the wonderful war production called "Wings."

In Los Angeles The next day we had free to do as we pleased. Some went to Los Angeles on a sight seeing trip, while others visited with friends.

Wednesday before going to the Paramount ranch we were introduced to Emil Jennings, the great foreign star of "Variety," and later had our pictures taken with him. He is a charming person, but unable to speak a word of English.

After lunch we enacted a little playlet with Miss Daniels and Mr. Powell, which will be shown here at the Oregon theater. William Powell, the villain of this picture, in reality, is very clever, and has a charming personality.

ages at his theater. The only object of interest on the way back, which we had not seen, due to darkness, was the great bridge which was being built across the bay at Vallejo, Calif. This is considered a great engineering feat, and was very interesting to see.

I'm afraid it was a sad bunch as one by one our friends arrived home and was left behind. It was a wonderful trip and will remain in our hearts for a life time. We can never thank Mr. Bunce, the Paramount Studios and Bell Line Stages enough for the wonderful trip they give us, and I hope it will not be long until we can meet again, as we have planned.

As I had a number of friends in Los Angeles I made good use of this opportunity. I spent most of the day with Mrs. Dennis Lybrook (Lucey Beck), who was a very well known Salem girl.

As it was getting late we started back to the hotel, well satisfied with what we had seen. Our Homeward Journey We were informed when we arrived at the hotel that we were to prepare to start back at once, as we were going to stop over in Frisco for a day. This we did and
