

KING OF RUMANIA STILL NEAR DEATH

May Be Semi-Invalid if He Survives; Marie May Lose Balkan Power

PARIS, April 2.—(AP)—King Ferdinand of Rumania remains near death at Bucharest, according to indications here, although a bulletin issued this afternoon by his physicians reported improvement in his condition.

The king's family have gathered at Bucharest with the exception of the exiled former crown prince, Carol, who remains at his home at Neully, near Paris. News from Rumania continues to be heavily censored.

A few days ago King Ferdinand was believed to have recovered sufficiently from an attack of the grippe to plan a trip to Italy, when suddenly dangerous complications appeared. The departure Friday of Dr. Sluys, Belgian radiologist, from Brussels, for Bucharest is taken to indicate that the king's long standing illness, which troubled him throughout the winter, also may be involved.

King Ferdinand's favorite daughter, Queen Marie, of Yugoslavia, left for Bucharest Thursday night. Her husband, King Alexander, followed her last night.

The failure of Prince Carol to return to Rumania causes little surprise, since his sudden return might have political complications.

It is believed that even if King Ferdinand survives the attack he will be a semi-invalid, further troubled by worries over the unsettled succession to the throne.

Queen Marie, looked on by her admirers as the strongest figure of the Balkans, may face political oblivion if King Ferdinand dies at present in the opinion of Rumanian circles in Paris, but there are many who believe she would find her way to power again.

Prince Michael, five-year-old son of former Crown Prince Carol, who renounced his throne rights some time ago, is heir apparent under a regency, which excludes Marie, and it is pointed out that Carol himself also is on the king's horizon. It is known that the queen for a long time has desired to be named as regent, but the king's illness prevented any change, even if the monarch so desired, which never was certain.

Often it has been reported that the king looked forward to Carol's return to Rumania, and a change which would permit Carol to take the throne. The regency set up when Carol renounced his royal prerogatives, is composed of Carol's brother, Prince Nicholas, who accompanied Queen Marie on her American tour, Miron Cristea, patriarch of the Greek Orthodox church and president of the court. They would rule until Michael became 18 years of age, and the queen would be merely a dowager ruler. Very few Rumanian circles here, however, can imagine she would be content to remain completely effaced.

According to the gossip, Queen Marie may replace Nicholas as regent if Michael ascends the throne, thus control the regency. A regency is recognized as a weak solution of the problem Carol created when he gave up his rights on December 23, 1925. With such a rule, observers here believe, the Balkan volcano again would sputter. Carol's attractive personality, it is commented, would be a big factor in bringing about unity, and his apparent reformation has won him many friends.

Apparently Carol has received no direct message concerning his father's illness.

GLEASON RECEIVES FINE AND SENTENCE

Susee Pleaded Not Guilty; Held in Jail Awaiting Trial on April 6

W. R. Gleason, one of the two Gervais men arrested Thursday night by State Prohibition Officer L. L. McBride, and charged with sale of liquor, pleaded guilty before Judge Brasier Small, in justice court yesterday, and was sentenced to three months in jail and to payment of a $500 fine.

Gleason is said on more than one occasion to have peddled liquor to children, and when the sentence was given, Judge Small took occasion to say that in his opinion, "a man who will sell liquor to a minor will do anything."

The other man, Maurice Susee, pleaded not guilty and in default of ability to put up $1,000 bail money, he was lodged in the county jail where he will be held until the trial set for 10 a. m., April 6. Arrests of the two men were made possible when state's evidence was turned by a fifth member of the group of boys picked up Wednesday with liquor in their possession. The boys were all fined $10 in justice court Friday, except Gislisler who received a $50 assessment the only member of the group, to be of age.

The Gervais liquor plant is located but half a block from the main street there, officers stated.

Spanish War Vets Sponsor Program

Singing Organizations to Appear; Funds Go to Camp

The Salem Camp of Spanish War Veterans will sponsor a benefit program on Friday, April 15, at the Armory, the proceeds of which will go toward the payment of the recent uniforms selected by the camp.

Heretofore, the organization has devoted its funds almost exclusively to relief work. For the sake of making a better appearance in future parades, the Camp recently purchased the attractive colors of the Spanish War Veterans, which, however are not entirely paid for.

The Salem Boys' Chorus, the High school girls chorus, and the Schubert Octette are among the singing organizations which will appear on the program.

Special musical stunts will be offered, and prizes given.

Further details will be announced later.
