Two Hundred Guests Assist in Celebration of Golden Wedding Anniversary

An anniversary celebration which was enjoyable to every member present took place on Sunday afternoon from 1:30 to 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Ohmart, south of town on the Pacific highway. Two hundred friends and relatives from Oregon and Washington were present.

A distinctive detail is the fact that the golden anniversary was observed in the same house where the wedding was solemnized 50 years ago.

The guests on Sunday were received by the honor guests and their children—one daughter and three sons—all of whom were present. Those who greeted at the door were Mrs. J. A. Bishop and Mrs. S. B. Gillette.

In the line were Mr. and Mrs. Adam Ohmart, Miss Lois Ohmart and the Messrs. Roy Reynolds and Chauncey Ohmart.

The honor guests have four grandchildren, of whom Miss Velleda Ohmart is the only granddaughter. She is a namesake of the bride of 50 years ago, who was Velleda Smith before her marriage. Miss Ohmart and a grandson, Lee, are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ohmart. The three grandsons, Rex, Waldo and Jiles, are sons of Chauncey Ohmart.

Interesting visitors from both Portland and Seattle came to Salem to honor Mr. and Mrs. Ohmart who were early pioneers to Oregon.

Mrs. Ohmart is the sister of Miss Clara F. Smith and of Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin Smith.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with all manner of golden flowers. A basket of golden flowers centered the table from which refreshments of gold and white ice cream and golden cake were served. Mrs. Roy Ohmart and Mrs. Chauncey Ohmart assisted in the rooms.

Pleasing musical numbers were given by Miss Josephine Bross and Manning Bross, vocalists, who were accompanied by Miss Jean Hobson. Miss Velleda Ohmart entertained with piano solos.

The honor guests were made the recipients of many beautiful gifts. In the evening at the Ohmart home covers were placed for 20 at a family dinner, celebrating the anniversary.
