

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Send Budget Blanks—The annual budget blanks, to be filled out by school boards of the county, have been mailed from the office of County Superintendent Mary L. Fulkerson.

Free Cooking School Today—Grand theater 2 to 4 p. m. Mrs. Beth Bailey McLean of O. A. C. extension department in charge. a8

Charges Cruel Treatment—W. E. Jones has filed suit for divorce from her husband, W. M. Jones on a charge of cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married in 1922 at The Deatles. The plaintiff asks that her maiden name of Schaefer be restored along with suitable alimony.

A Rako Paint Job—On your car is guaranteed not to chip, crack or peel nor lose its lustre for a period of one year—prices no higher than a cheap finish job. Hull's, 267 S. Com'l. a5

Corvallis People Here—Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Chellis, proprietors of the College Press, Corvallis, were Salem visitors Monday.

Flat Buildings for Sale—Excellent return on investment. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High street. a6

Salem Couple Licensed—Lyle L. Howard and Allie E. McKenzie of Salem were granted a marriage license by the county clerk, Monday.

Cut Darwin Tulips—Salem Bulb Co. Phone 116F4. a5

Struck Parked Car—P. H. Decker, Portland, reports that the car owned by O. E. Hazelwood of Woodburn was parked on the side of the road a short distance north of Woodburn, and when he drove up at the rate of 25 miles an hour, Hazelwood suddenly pulled out into the highway. Decker reports that he tried to stop but the wet pavement caused a broadside collision. Both drivers ask damages.

Furniture Upholstery—And repairing. Giese-Powers Furniture Co. f31f

Cars Collide on Left Turn—Cars driven by P. O. Calvin of Hubbard and G. M. Campbell of Salem collided at the driveway of the Calvin place, one-fourth mile north of Hubbard, when Calvin turned off the main highway. He claims that Campbell attempted to pass regardless of the turn sign.

You Rent Modern Homes—We can rent you a modern home, better than the place you occupy. See our 4 to 6 room homes being built in Laurel Park. The protected district of ALL modern homes. Fitted with shades, light fixtures, furnace and coils, electric water heater and wired for range; hardwood floors, fire-place, garage, walk system, lawn in cement drive, etc. Prices, $3500 to $6250. Laurel Park is 18 blocks north of state house. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High street. a6

Storekeeper Starts Suit—H. B. Snyder, owner of the 'People's' store at Estacada opened suit in circuit court Monday against George Lohman and wife for $112.25, a bill alleged to be due for groceries and merchandise purchased by the couple.

For Women and Children—Nothing equals osteopathy. Dr. Marshall, Oregon Bldg. a5

Operation Performed—Mrs. Fred Lang, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. Taylor, pastor of the First Methodist church, submitted to a major operation at the Deaconess hospital on Monday morning.

Free Cooking School Today—Grand theater 2 to 4 p. m. Mrs. Beth Bailey McLean of O. A. C. extension department in charge. a8

Moser Coming to Salem—Carl Moser, state adjutant of the American Legion, will be in Salem on Wednesday, April 6. He will confer with Legionnaires in this community relative to the proposed convention trip to Paris.

Hotel Marion—Dollar dinner, served 5:45 to 8 every evening. n261f

Dakota Club to Meet—The Dakota club of Oregon will hold its next regular meeting in the church parlors of the First Methodist church on corner State and Church streets, on Wednesday evening at 6:30, April 6. All members and ex-Dakota friends are requested to be present and bring lunch. Coffee with trimmings will be served free at the club.

Modern Lots Cheaper—See the remaining lots at original prices of $500 to $700. Laurel park; all fine homes. Close to all bus lines, schools. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High street. a6

How Do You Feel on Arising?—Very likely your kidneys control your answer. It is glorious to awake with a lively, healthy, energetic body. It is miserable to drag an aching, tired, weary body from a sleepless, restless bed. Foley's, a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys, constantly used over 25 years, are a reliable, valuable medicine that promote healthful, normal action of kidneys and bladder.

der. Cost little, contain no harmful ingredients. Satisfaction guaranteed. Ask for Foley Pills diuretic. Sold at the Capital Drug Store. a5

Recall 1 Cent Sale—Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Perry's drug store. a6

Rako Auto Finish Lasts—Reasonable prices. Hull's, 267 S. Commercial. a5

Benness to Play—Those who heard the musical Benner family, when they gave a program at the local Salvation Army several weeks ago, will be glad of the opportunity of hearing the Benner's again next Saturday night at the same place. Joe Benner, father and leader of the group will have full charge of the program.

Cut Darwin Tulips—Salem Bulb Co. Phone 116F4. a5

Carnes to Roseburg—Sergeant Carnes left yesterday for Roseburg, where he will spend about two weeks in recruiting work. Information as to Marine service may be obtained at the general delivery window of the Salem postoffice.

Large Apartment With Garage—$35, new and modern. Lease to suit. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High street. a6

Ex-Governor Visits—Ex-Governor Walter M. Pierce was a Salem visitor yesterday. He takes delight in meeting his many friends in this city, and they in turn are always glad to see him here.

Hull's for Tops, Fender and—Body work, auto glass and painting. 267 S. Commercial. a5

Organizes Scouts—Harold Ware, scout executive, announced yesterday the organization of a new boy scout troop at the state deaf and dumb school. The troop will be known as No. 6 and has a membership of 18 boys.

Hug Off to Spokane—George W. Hug, superintendent of Salem schools, left yesterday afternoon for Spokane to attend the annual convention of the Inland Empire Teachers' association in session there this week. Mr. Hug is president of the secondary and higher education division of the association. Other people who will attend from Salem are U. S. Dotson of the Park school; C. A. Howard, state superintendent; W. M. Smith, assistant state superintendent, and Miss Anne Simpson, director of health education for Marion county.

Moon's Shop Moves—Moon's Jewelry and Gift shop has been moved from the old quarters on Court street to a new location in the Oregon building on State street. The official opening will take place at 11 o'clock this morning.

Cleaning Up Salem—W. W. Savage, son of W. N. Savage of this city, who has been in Portland for a long time, is back here in his home city—came back to help clean up the town. He has for the past few years been with the company making the Hoover carpet sweeper. Now he has taken charge of that department for the Hamilton furniture store. Mr. Savage believes the Hoover is the best carpet sweeper ever made, and he is prepared to try to convert all the people of Salem to this belief.

To Purchase Chairs—The city recorder was authorized at city council meeting last night to purchase about 30 chairs to be placed in the council chamber during the accommodation of taxpayers during the council sessions. Motion for the purchase was made by Councilman Patton, who stated that the seating accommodation had never been adequate.

Benefit Program Soon—A benefit program, the proceeds of which will go toward paying for the recently purchased uniforms, will be sponsored by the Spanish War Veterans of the city Friday, April 15. Included on the program will be the Salem boys' chorus, high school girls' chorus, and Schubert octette. Prizes will be offered.

Visitors From Medford—Don Newbury and wife of Medford were visitors over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dezell. Mr. Newbury is a prominent southern Oregon attorney. Mrs. Newbury is a daughter of the Dezells.

Leaves for Spokane—Dr. Estella Ford Warner left last night for Spokane where she will attend the convention of the Inland Empire State Teachers' association. Dr. Warner is pediatrician for the local child health demonstration.

Casey's Guaranteed RHEUMATISM REMEDY Money refunded if it does not cure your case. NELSON & HUNT DRUGGISTS Cor. Court and Liberty Tel. 7

Men's and Ladies' Suits Cleaned and Pressed $1.00 Ladies' Silk Dresses $1.25 Ladies' Wool Dresses $1.00 Men's and Ladies' Coats Cleaned and Pressed $1.00 Suits Pressed Men's and Ladies' 50c We guarantee our work give us a trial. THE VARLEY CLEANERS 198 N. Com'l St. Over Busicks Telephone 1981

WE DO HEMSTITCHING for 6 and 8 cents per yard Buttons and pleating done, see our display of colored linen lowering that we are closing out at cost. THE PETITE SHOP 193 North Commercial St. Over Busicks Telephone 1981

SOCIETY (Continued from page 3.) Have a copy of afterward. At this time Professor Fairbanks made the remark that he never knew a great artist who was mean,—that an artistic personality excludes unlovely qualities. Professor Fairbanks is a brother of Prof. Avard Fairbanks, the sculptor, who is an instructor at the University of Oregon.

Son Is Born to Ensign and Mrs. Ralph E. Wilson—Mrs. W. E. Wilson and Mrs. Charles Powell, who was Mrs. Wilson's week-end guest, received a wonderfully happy surprise early yesterday morning in the form of a telegram from Ensign Ralph E. Wilson, U. S. N., announcing the arrival of Ralph E. Jr., at 3 o'clock on the morning of April 4.

The new baby weighed seven pounds at birth.

Institutions Department Will Sponsor Open Meeting—The institutions department of the Salem Women's club, of which Mrs. S. M. Endicott is chairman, will sponsor an open meeting on Thursday afternoon, April 7, at the Women's club house.

At this time, L. M. Gilbert, superintendent of the boys' training school, will be the principal speaker. He will take as his subject, "The Change From a Reform School to a Training School."

Miss Astrid Hoffseth, superintendent of the Salem hospital, will also speak. A third talk will be given by Mrs. Lura Cass French, an instructor at the state tuberculosis hospital.

Special musical numbers will be given by Miss Iva Claire Love.

Public Welfare Institute Will Take Place in Portland on April 15—Mrs. Glendora M. Blakeley, chairman of the department of public welfare of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, will have charge of the program at the public welfare institute to be held in Portland April 15. The morning session will convene at 10 o'clock in the story hour room of the public library. After luncheon those attending will be taken to the Doernbecker hospital where a program will be given and tea served.

This is the third of a series of institutes sponsored by the state federation and a large attendance is expected. Club women in Portland and throughout the state, whether members of federated clubs or not, are invited to attend.

Program in charge, Mrs. R. B. Perigo, Hood River; Mrs. J. H. Chambers, Cottage Grove; Mrs. R. Hallberg, Rainier; Doernbecker hospital committee, Mrs. Saldie Orr Dunbar, chairman; Mrs. Susan Campbell, Mrs. J. O. Holt, Eugene; Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, Roseburg; Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Salem; Mrs. Marjorie Haller, Garden Home; Mrs. R. S. Dart, Bend; Mrs. William Bond, Pendleton; Mrs. Otto Schetter, Marshfield; Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, Hood River; Mrs. L. R. Miner, Metzger; Mrs. E. B. Jackson, Baker; Mrs. L. C. Palmer of Newberg; Mrs. A. Rose, Moro; Miss Eda Jacobs, Mrs. Frank McCrillis, Mrs. Roy H. Keagy, Mrs. Leander Martin and Miss Grace Phelps of Portland. Public health division, Mrs. Paul R. Whiteside, chairman; anti-narcotic, Mrs. J. G. Frankel, chairman. Each division will be represented on the program now being arranged by Mrs. Blakeley. Mrs. Dunbar and members of her committee will assist during the tea hour.—Oregonian.

Miss Buren Visits on University Campus—Miss Rosalie Buren was a guest at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house on the University of Oregon campus at Eugene over the weekend.

W. C. T. U. Will Meet—Mrs. Retta Pemberton will be in charge of the program at the regular meeting today of the WCTU, in the hall on the corner of Ferry and South Commercial streets.

Writers' Will Meet—Dr. Mary C. Rowland will entertain members of the Writers' club this evening at her home, 407 Court street.

Mrs. Kuntz Will Entertain Chapter G—Chapter G of the PEO Sisterhood will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. J. Kuntz.

Miss Rosalie Jones Is Guest at University—Miss Rosalie Jones spent the week-end in Eugene as the guest of Miss Mae Anderson on the University of Oregon campus.

Guests at Neskowin—Dr. and Mrs. Prince Byrd and their children spent the week-end at Neskowin.

Motor Trip to Southern Oregon—Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lytle are spending the week at Medford and Klamath Falls. They motored south.

Leslie Queen Esther Society Plans Meeting—The Queen Esther society of the Leslie Methodist church will meet at 5:30 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Lena Med-

GOOD WILL OAKLAND
SAYS:
We have a 1926 Ford Roadster, good rubber, finish like new, with speedometer, automatic wiper, motor, rear view mirror, spot light and a car you can't tell from new for $350.

VICK BROS.
The House That Service Built

Social Calendar
Today
Cooking school, Grand theater, 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.
Writers' club, Dr. Mary C. Rowland, hostess.
Salem War Mothers, YMCA lecture room, 2:30 o'clock.
Lincoln-McKinley Parent-Teachers' association, McKinley school, 7:30 o'clock.
First Methodist church Esther society, Mrs. A. A. Underhill, 879 South Twelfth street, hostess.
WCTU, Hall on Ferry street, 2 o'clock.

Wednesday
Cooking school, Grand theater, 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.
Jason Lee W. F. M. S. Mrs. W. Chadwick, 1390 North Winter street, hostess, 2:30 o'clock.
Auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars, Mrs. Ben G. Woolfe, 701 North Church street, hostess.
First Methodist W.F.M.S. Mrs. F. L. Utter, hostess.
Leslie Methodist Queen Esther society, Lent Medler, hostess, 5:30 o'clock.
Barbara Fritchie Sewing club, Mrs. Harry Ralph, 434 Union st., hostess.
First Christian church Missionary society, Church parlors, 2:30 o'clock.
Piano pupils of Mrs. W. F. McCall in recital, Brush College school, 7:30 o'clock.

Thursday
Plety Hill club, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, 325 North Capitol street, hostess.
Cooking school, Grand theater, 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.
Ladies of the GAR, armory at 2 o'clock.
Rapherian club, Mrs. Lee Unruh, 885 D. Street.
Women's club, Open meeting, Institutions department of Salem, Club house.
Chapter G of the PEO Sisterhood, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, hostess.

Friday
Salem MacDowell club chorus, Lecture on art, Prof. Leo Fairbanks, YMCA lobby. Auspices of Salem Arts League.
Sunday
Easter concert, First Methodist church, 7:30 o'clock. Vested choir.
Miss Margaret Morehouse will have charge of the lesson, while Miss Henrietta Bishop is chairman of the supper committee.

FOR 35 YEARS J & D PAINTS VARNISHES AND EXAMELS Have given home owners greater Durability, Longer Wear—Richer Luster. Ask for J & D Descriptive Color Cards. J. R. KENNEDY PAINT CO. 254 Chemecketa St. Tel. 921

Impressive Services Mark 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey Were Married on April 4, 1877; Many Friends Join in Congratulating Couple; Marriage Vows Renewed

Fifty years ago yesterday, April 4, in the state of Iowa, Miss Villa Pike, 19 years of age, became the bride of Frank Davey, a 26 year old superintendent of county schools,—in whose territory at the time she was a school teacher.

Last night, to celebrate the first 50 years of successful wedded life, Mr. and Mrs. Davey came to Salem to receive the greetings of their many friends in this vicinity, at an informal jubilee at St. Joseph's Auditorium.

At 9 o'clock yesterday morning the marriage vows were renewed with a solemn high mass at St. Joseph's Catholic church, with which Mr. and Mrs. Davey were affiliated for many years. The impressive mass was celebrated in the gold vestments, Rev. J. R. Buck sang the ritual and gave the impressive preaching. Father Keenan assisted in the role of deacon and Father Joseph Scherbring of Silverton in the role of sub-deacon.

The regular choir sang a mass and gave beautiful special numbers including the wedding march from Lohengrin. Miss Mary Lebold presided at the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Barr, friends of long standing, attended the honor couple as matron of honor and best man.

Throughout the celebration of the high mass the altar was brilliantly lighted with both candles and electric lights. The sanctuary and altar were beautifully decorated with many baskets of golden flowers.

Following the impressive service members of the wedding party and the priests were guests at an attractive breakfast party at The Spa, at which Mr. and Mrs. Barr were the hosts.

Following the morning services, Mr. and Mrs. Davey returned to the home of their daughter, Mrs. Edward Domokalla, in Silverton, for a dinner party and afternoon reception. This affair was attended by Mrs. J. C. Bowen of Baker, a second daughter, and a son, Robert E. Davey, editor of the Newport Journal, all of whom were present with their families.

Last night at 8 o'clock hosts of friends, both Catholic and non-Catholic, assembled in St. Joseph's auditorium to extend their congratulations to the 76-year-old honor guest and his 69-year-old bride of half a century.

The spacious auditorium was lavishly decorated with many baskets and ferneries of daffodils, jonquils and golden tulips. The platform was embanked.

A large committee of prominent parish members made the affair a success. Among those contributing their services were Mrs. T. M. Barr, Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. James Heenan, Mrs. Frank Jaskoski, Mrs. T. K. Ford, Mrs. Albert O'Brien, Mrs. A. A. Mickel, Mrs. S. Jentzow, Mrs. N. La Roque, Mrs. M. J. Petzel, Mrs. J. G. Nadon, from the parish, and from the Catholic Daughters of America, a third group from the Knights of Columbus also assisted.

The 19-piece orchestra of the Sacred Heart academy played the "Wedding March," "Medley of Old-Time Songs," "Ellis Levy's "Bolero" and Bartlett's "Caprice."

The honor guests were presented with a purse of gold, and in addition each was made the recipient of a beautiful pear and gold rosary.

Punch was served during the evening.

It is interesting to know that Mr. and Mrs. Davey have spent 41 of their wedded years in Oregon, having come here in 1886. Previous to this time Mr. Davey was the owner of the Estherville Vindicator, an Iowa newspaper.

Since coming to Oregon Mr. and Mrs. Davey have been conspicuous in the journalistic and political affairs of the state. Mr. Davey is a former city editor of the Oregon Statesman and of the Capital Journal, an owner for nine years of the Harney County News; a

Martha Mayle Injured in Wreck Passes Away

Martha Mayle, who was injured last Saturday when an automobile in which she was riding turned over at Chemawa corner, pinnings her beneath, died last night at the Salem hospital.

Miss Mayle came to Salem from Kansas two weeks ago to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Beason on Third street.

Free Public Dance—Announcing the opening of their new plant at 1085-1095 North Commercial street, the Scheelers Auto Wrecking company will hold a free public dance on their 32x 60-foot floor tonight, commencing at 9 o'clock. With their new building Scheelers plan to carry an even more extensive stock of parts, accessories, gasoline, and oil. Music for the dance will be furnished by Miss Norman Meirs and her four piece orchestra.

Gives Interesting Talk—W. S. Raker, organizer of the state Audubon society, spoke to students at McKinley junior high school yesterday. In the afternoon Raker spoke at Parrish junior high.

Obituary
Pohjola
Thomas Pohjola died at a local hospital April 4 at the age of 71 years. The remains are being forwarded by the Rigdon mortuary to Astoria for funeral and burial services.

Mayle
Martha Mayle died at a local hospital April 4, age 60 years. She is survived by her husband, N. W. Mayles. The body is at the Webb funeral parlors. Funeral announcements later.

Ohlsen
Jeffie Ohlsen, 55, died at a local hospital April 4. The remains were forwarded this morning by Terwilliger funeral home to Yoncalla, Or., where funeral and interment services will be held.

Ritter
George F. Ritter died at a local hospital April 3, at the age of 87 years. Survived by three sons and three daughters of Portland. Funeral services were held today at 2 p. m. from the Salem mortuary parlors, with Rev. A. L. Heine in charge. Interment was in the Lee Mission cemetery.

Grimes
Pearl Branscom Grimes died at the U. S. Veterans hospital, Walla Walla, Wash. Born in Nebraska November 1, 1887. His mother and one brother passed away when he was eight years of age. His father and himself came to Washington in 1900. He was a member of the W.O.W. Salem No. 118, and the American Legion. He served in France in the World war and received his discharge from the army in Mal 1919 and was married to Nila M. Parkhill but service in its truest and finest sense performed with understanding and reverence.

NOT BUSINESS

WEBB'S FUNERAL PARLORS
Telephone 120

TERWILLIGERS
Perfect Funeral Service For Less
Licensed Lady Mortician
770 Chemecketa Street
Telephone 724

ROLLER SKATING
Tuesday, Friday, Saturday
From 7:30 to 10:30 P. M.
DREAMLAND RINK
Ladies Admitted Free
Gentlemen 10c
SKATING 25c

Cherry City Nursery
R. W. MATHIS, Prop.
Opposite Postoffice on State St.

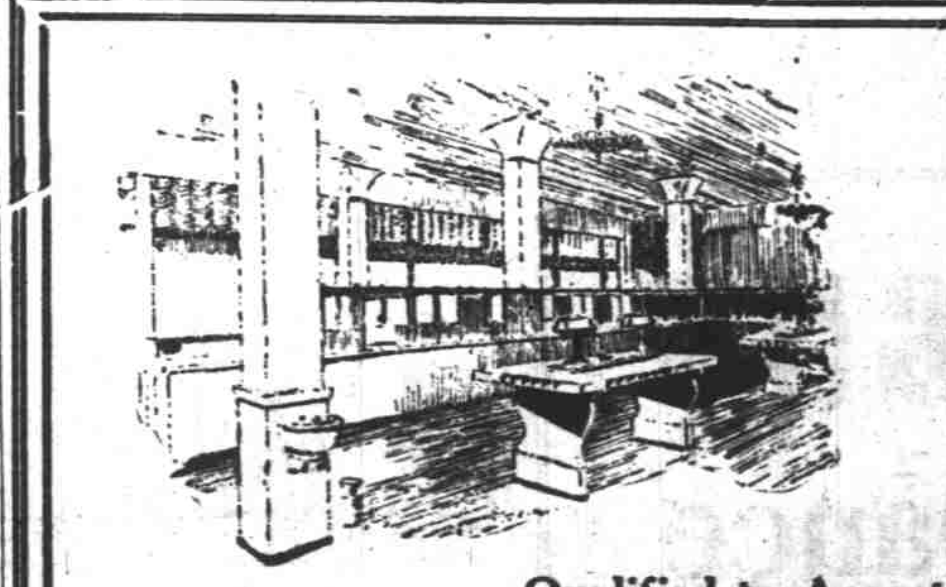

BABY'S COLDS
are soon "nipped in the bud" without "dosing" by use of VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Japs Used Yearly

PEACH TREES
Choice peach trees—while they last at.....25c

If you need trees now is the time to buy. Come in and see us. Prune trees to trade for anything of value.

JOHN J. ROTTLE
415 State Street

TRANSFER AND STORAGE
Long and Short Distance Hauling
Public and Private Storage
Fireproof Building
GRAIN, FEED AND SEED
Free Delivery to any part of the city
QUOTATIONS ON APPLICATION
Farmers Warehouse
PAUL TRAGERO, Prop.
Day Telephone 23 Night Telephone 1267-W

Qualified to Accept Trust Appointments
Before any organization can offer its services in a Trust capacity it must satisfy the Federal Reserve Board and the State Superintendent of Banks that it is qualified, in every respect, for this important office.
Having qualified, the Trust Department of the United States National has been granted authority to act in a complete Trust capacity.
It will accept appointment as executor, administrator, guardian and trustee. Or you may instruct it to invest your surplus funds for you, or handle any other matters of Trust.

The United States National Bank
Salem, Oregon.