

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE STAGE and SCREEN

Elsinore Theater
Douglas Maclean, the young man who went AWOL in "Twenty-three and a Half Hours Leave," authored in "Seven Keys to Baldpate," fathered in "That's My Baby," and hunted cats in "Hold That Lion," shows at the Elsinore theater today, April 7, in a snappy story of the United States marine corps, "Let It Rain."

An "Let It Rain" Riley, Doug shows what happens when a young man makes up his mind to accomplish something. A pretty young woman comes aboard-ship and the marine recognizes her as the girl of his heart. But when he sees an officer claim her undivided attention, he soon realizes that chevrons must be attention-getters. Then and there, he resolves to raise himself from the ranks. How he does it and how she helps him by letting him know of a proposed mail robbery provide material for lots of laughs. In the course of the film Doug becomes embroiled with a gang of bandits—on a runaway mail coach. Does he get out alive? Well, you'll have to see the picture to find out.

Oregon Theater

"A vivid story of love and intrigue," is the way Marshall Neilan speaks of his new Paramount production, "Diplomacy," which will show at the Oregon theater today. Adapted from Victorien Sardou's stage play, "Diplomacy" has all the elements which make good screen drama. It has suspense, love interest, and mystery; all placed in the fascinating city of Deauville.

Blanche Sweet is ideally cast as "Dora," while Neil Hamilton plays opposite.

Capitol Theater

A cast of unusual merit appears on the screen at the Capitol theater April 7, where "Poker Faces" is the feature. Laura La Plante and Edward Everett Horton, both comedy stars in their own names; George Siegmann, one of the most famous types in the industry; Tom A. Ricketts, an old timer of great ability; Tom O'Brien, famous for his work in "The Big Parade" and Dorothy Revier, one of the really beautiful actresses of the screen, make up this unusual cast. Harry Pollard, noted comedy director, produced the picture.

The official motion pictures of the 28th International Eucharistic Congress, held in Chicago in June 1926, will be shown at the Capitol theater on April 7.

AMERICAN LUTHERAN CHURCH CONSIDERED

Property of Presbyterian Church Purchased; First Service Sunday

The Pacific Synod of the United Lutheran Church has begun operations for the development and support of an American Lutheran Church. The property of the Presbyterian Church has been purchased and will be the future home of the organization. The first service will be held this Sunday afternoon, April 10, 1927, at 4 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church. Rev. Luther B. Beck, President of the Southern Conference, will conduct the service.

"There has been a need for a purely American Lutheran Church in Salem for some time," according to Mr. Victor Schneider, local realtor who is authorized to secure signatures on the charter membership list. "While it is right and proper for those who feel so inclined to worship in a foreign language there are many who prefer to have a congregation where all the work is conducted in the American language and in the American spirit," he said.

The United Lutheran Church in America, which assumes responsibility for the work is the largest group of Lutherans in America. The report for this past year shows a membership in this branch of the Lutheran Church of 1,276,176 baptized members and 886,840 confirmed members. The net gain for the entire Lutheran Church in America during this past year was 35,270 members of which number 30,660 are to be credited to the United Lutheran Church. Its church property is valued at over $5,111,000, and it gave for mission work last year the sum of $3,711,884.

A survey made some time ago revealed the fact that there were almost a thousand persons in Salem of Germanic and Scandinavian parentage who would be favorably disposed to the organization of a Lutheran Church in the American language. The congregation expects to have a steady and substantial growth.

Your tongue says: "Thank you!"

GOOD old Prince Albert in the bowl of your pipe... a cooling current of smoke pouring over your tongue... the wonderful taste of a wonderful tobacco... nothing to compare with this anywhere. Men, I tell you. You can smoke a pipe and enjoy it—with P. A. for packing.

I was pipe-shy for years, before I discovered Prince Albert. I wanted to smoke a pipe. Other men seemed to get so much comfort and enjoyment from pipe-smoking. Then one happy day, Prince Albert crossed my trail. It was cool and kind to my tongue and throat. I've stuck!

No matter what your previous experience has been; no matter how satisfied you appear to be with your present set-up, I advise you to try Prince Albert. You know you are in for some glorious smoke-sessions the instant you get a whiff of P. A.'s fragrance.

The first pipe-load confirms the pleasure promised by the aroma. Cool as an open window. Sweet as milk fresh from the dairy. Mild and mellow as a tropic night. Mild, yet with that full, rich tobacco body that satisfies to the limit. I know you are going to like P. A.! Buy a tin today!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin hummers, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.
