Two Show Places in Capital City

Some Fancy Hydrangeas and Petunias for Easter; Peonies and Iris

The Flower Shop Greenhouse, 1565 South Liberty street, Jay Morris, florist, has for the Easter trade some beautiful large hydrangeas with four to five large balls of bloom six to nine inches across...

Also, Mr. Morris has his Peony Gardens out a quarter of a mile beyond the Salem Heights community club hall, where the peonies will begin to make a beautiful show the middle to the latter part of the month, and the iris before that.

Mr. Morris is making a great success in growing extraordinarily fine peonies, to say nothing of his iris specialties.

LaGrande—W. C. Beckhoff will start $225,000 new six-story fire-resist-ant hotel.

That Baby You've Longed For Mrs. Burton Advises Women on Motherhood and Companionship

"For several years I was denied the blessing of motherhood," writes Mrs. Margaret Burton of Kansas City. "I was terribly nervous and subject to periods of terrible suffering and melancholia. Now I am the proud mother of a beautiful little daughter and a true companion and inspiration to my husband. I believe hundreds of other women would like to know the secret of my happiness, and I will gladly reveal it to any married woman who will write me."

Mrs. Burton offers her advice entirely without charge. She has nothing to sell. Letters should be addressed to Mrs. Margaret Burton, 8029 Massachusetts, Kansas City, Mo. Correspondence will be strictly confidential.—Adv.

Wild Life of Oregon to Be Shown in Picture The wild life of Oregon will be given in motion pictures at the First Baptist church this evening. Frank Stellmacher, state game warden of Albany, will show the wild animals and birds of Oregon as found in their native haunts. The pictures are remarkable and full of interest to all lovers of nature, and our wonderful Oregon country. There will be no charge, no collection. It is free to everybody, young and old.

The occasion being the regular meeting of the Baptist Brotherhood, W. C. Pickett, president. The Brotherhood will meet at 6:30 for supper. The showing of the pictures will be at 7:30 in the main auditorium of the church.

The Hamilton Beach electric cleaners and Monarch electric razors both recommended by Good Housekeeping. Sold in Salem by C. S. Hamilton Furniture Co. (4)

Hungry? Don't wait, order some Better Yet Bread from your grocer. It is fresh, wholesome and clean. Made by the Better Yet Baking Co. (4)

Giant and DuPont explosives (case—blasting caps). Lumber and all building materials. Gabriel Powder & Supply Co., 610 N. Capitol, Tel. 2248. (4)

Crosses Pass on Foot Eugene, April 11.—(AP)—Ray Conway, well known mountain climber and H. D. Farmer, engineer of the federal bureau of public roads, reached Eugene today from Bend having crossed the summit of the Cascades by way of McKenzie Pass on snowshoes.

It took them a good part of two days to cross. They stated that the snow had an average depth of eight feet at the summit and some of the drifts were 25 feet deep. They predicted that the pass will be late in opening this year owing to the unusual amount of snow.

Catch the faintest breath of radio

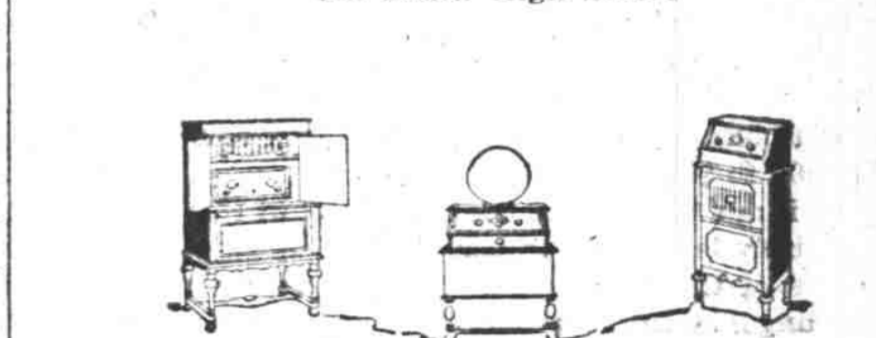

A flutter—a tremor—and suddenly the full-voiced melody of some long-sought station becomes yours. Your Gilfillan receiver has captured it with marvelous clarity.

Come in and study these wonderful receivers. The three models shown below, ready to operate, set up aerial included, are (left to right) $407, $181, and $232. Without the accessories they are $350, $90, and $175.

Very convenient terms.
