Mrs. Ralf C. Miller of Portland Will Play "Resting Numbers"

Mrs. Arthur J. Raha, whose costume recital next week will be a brilliant and lovely affair, has heard word that her sister, Mrs. Ralf C. Miller of Portland, will play the following two groups of piano numbers:

Waltzes I, II, III..... Brahms
Improvisation..... MacDowell
Gopak..... Moussourgsky

The last number, which is Russian will precede Mrs. Raha's vivid interpretative group in this nationality.

The concert will be given next Monday evening, April 13, in Walker hall, on the Willamette university campus, beginning at 8:15 o'clock.

A number of out of town guests are expected for the event, which will be given under the auspices of the Salem MacDowell club.

Mrs. Prince Byrd and Mrs. Excel Kay Entertain Club Group Yesterday

The last pre-Easter meeting of the Bridge Luncheon club, of which Mrs. Prince Byrd and Mrs. Excel Kay are members, was an interesting event of yesterday afternoon at Mrs. Byrd's home, with Mrs. Kay and Mrs. Byrd as the hostesses.

Mrs. David W. Eyre and Mrs.

William S. Walton were the invited guests of the afternoon.

The delightful 1 o'clock luncheon was served at three tables, each centered with a bouquet of April flowers in pastel shades.

The guest prize of the afternoon went to Mrs. William S. Walton.

Club members in the group were Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn, Mrs. Dan J. Fry Jr., Mrs. Harry Hawkins and the hostesses, Mrs. Kay and Mrs. Byrd.

In two weeks Mrs. Keith Powell and Mrs. Fritz Slade will entertain the club at Mrs. Slade's home.

All members and women relatives of Spanish War veterans are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Miss Edith M. Haverson Becomes Bride of George J. Strand on Sunday

A particularly attractive pre-Easter wedding was solemnized on Sunday, April 10, when Miss Edith M. Haverson became the bride of Mr. George J. Strand.

The ceremony took place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, with Rev. Thomas A. Acheson, pastor of the Jason Lee Methodist church, officiating. The impressive single ring service was used.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Haverson, as maid of honor, and by Miss Bessie Strand as bridesmaid. The groom chose Walter Haverson, brother of the bride, as best man.

The bride wore lovely peach georgette, long-sleeved, and cut on simple lines. The gown was richly ornamented with old rose crepe de chine, embroidered and appliqued. The bride carried a gorgeous bouquet of deep pink carnations and cala lilies.

Miss Mary Haverson, the maid of honor, wore old rose taffeta. The becoming frock was enhanced with a bouquet of red carnations. Miss Strand, the bridesmaid, was charming in peach crepe de chine. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. R. J. Haverson at 920 South Commercial street.

A wedding dinner was served immediately following the ceremony. The richly iced wedding cake, which was cut by the bride, centered the table on which bowls of pink carnations were also used. Mrs. Strand has been employed for a number of years in the elevator service in the Masonic Temple building. Mr. Strand is engineer at one of the state institutions. Mr. and Mrs. Strand will make their home on South Commercial street.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Hammer and children Rosabel and Harry, of Westport, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hunter of Silverton, Mrs. LeJe Weckley and son Lee, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fofard and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Strand and family, Mrs. R. J. Haverson, Mary Haverson, Walter Haverson and Bessie and Hazel Strand.

Salem War Mothers Dedicate Hawthorne Tree to Memory of Mrs. J. J. Fallin

A memorial service so impressive that those who attended it will never forget it was held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the state house grounds, under the auspices of the Salem chapter of the American War Mothers. The purpose of the program was to dedicate a hawthorne tree to the memory of Mrs. Laura A. Fallin, twice a gold-star mother.

Mrs. Fallin died in this city on Nov. 19, 1925, at the age of 51 years. She was the mother of 12 children, eight boys and four girls. Two of the sons, George H. and William E., were killed in action overseas during the world war. The third son, John F. of Valsez, was gassed near Verdun.

The program yesterday was opened by Mrs. Minnie D. Baker, who gave a gold star mother. Mrs. Baker gave the following heartfelt speech:

"We have met this afternoon to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of Mrs. J. J. Fallin, twice gold star mother, who passed to the Great Beyond last year. At a meeting of the War Mothers recently we voted to plant a tree in her memory."

"Mrs. Fallin will be remembered as the gold star mother who went to Kansas City four years ago as a guest of the national convention. Oregon was requested to send as a guest the mother in her state who had suffered the greatest loss, and Mrs. Fallin was selected as that mother. No funds were available for this trip at that time, so two private citizens gave the money in order that she might go."

"Because of this honor, we thought it entirely fitting that the memorial tree be planted on the grounds of the state capitol. Our committee called on Mr. Sam A. Kozier, custodian of the grounds, who allotted the place for the planting, which we consider a very gracious act."

"We selected the hawthorne partly because of its bright, beautiful blossoms, and partly because of its endurance. Both features we feel to be symbolic of the mother-love."

"Every war mother remembers the trying times back in '17, and what it cost her to see one son march away to defend world civilization. Think, then, how much greater must have been the anguish of this mother heart to give three."

"Two gave the last full measure of their devotion, and dare we say her devotion and her patriotism were less than that of her stalwart boys."

"In a little while, when the tree is larger, we will place a plate on it telling the world,—our world,—why and for whom it was planted. Well we know the tree will live years after those of us who have planted it have gone on, but our children and our children's children will see in it a beautiful and loving tribute to the mother who gave so freely, and whose sacrifice was so great."

The singing of "America" followed Mrs. Baker's talk, after which Mrs. W. C. Kantner read the appropriate Scripture lesson and gave the prayer.

Mrs. Mark S. Skiff read the obituary notice and the following poem, written for the occasion, by Rev. E. H. Shanks:

The birds were sweetly singing,
The flowers were in full bloom;
All nature to life was springing,
A new voice was heard in my room
The angels of God attending,
The gift of new life to the world;
While heaven to earth seemed bending,
A man-child in my arms they furled.

The whole world woke in gladness
And my heart leaped forth in joy;
The future beamed bright with gladness,
In the smile of my darling boy,
He grew to a sturdy manhood—
Prime.

While I dreamed of the days to be in which the hopes of boyhood would ripen in wealth to me.

The song of birds is silent now. The flowers have drooped and died. With wild alarm, with hate and harm—
War bore him from my side.
True to the flag! True to the call!

To the country's need he went;
On the altar of war he gave his all,
And my heart with grief is rent.

Plant a tree in honor here,
To the life the warrior gave;
Let it bear witness year by year
To the cause he died to save.
With lifted boughs and green array.

Let it tell the simple story
Of a brave youth who marched away
To die on the fields of glory.

Plant a tree, an emblem of peace,
To the children that are yet to be,
Pray the sorrows of strife may cease
And all the world's sons be free.
When no mother's hope shall fail,
For fear of the war god's call;
Let brotherhood of all mankind prevail
In liberty and love to all.

—Ernest H. Shanks.

The tree was placed in position and each gold star mother present added a shovelful of dirt. When the planting was completed the entire group sang "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," which closed the program.

Mr. Fallin and five of his children were present for the ceremony.

Mr. Fallin expressed his appreciation to the War Mothers for the beautiful service they held in memory of his wife.

The six gold star mothers who were present, and assisted, were Mrs. W. C. Kantner, Mrs. Carrie L. O'Neill, Mrs. Jessie Crossan, Mrs. Croshaw, Mrs. Mary Walling and Mrs. Minnie D. Baker.

Judge Wm. M. Coats Says

FISHER'S Developing Mash IS a Developing Mash

Fisher's Developing Mash IS a developing mash and not a forcing mash. That's very important. Chicks should be developed but they should not be forced. Fisher's Developing Mash is a nourishing, easily digested food which shortens the non-productive period of the chicks by giving them just the right elements needed to make substantial bone and muscle with the result that they reach the laying period many weeks before improperly fed pullets are ready to lay.

Start feeding Fisher's Developing Mash when the chicks are three weeks old, gradually substituting it for Fisher's Chick Starter Mash, taking ten days to make the change. I recommend feeding ten per cent of the Mash the first day and then ten per cent additional each day until they are getting 100 per cent Developing Mash. Feed Fisher's Developing Mash until the pullets are six months old.

Fisher's Growing Feed is a perfect feed to be fed with Fisher's Developing Mash. Begin feeding it after chicks are four or five weeks old (depending upon their development), substituting it gradually for Fisher's Chick Feed. Take ten days to make the change.

The Fisher Flouring Mills Company, Home Office, Seattle, will gladly send you on request a complete book on the subject of Chick Raising by Judge W. M. Coats. Ask also for Fisher's Feeding Schedule by Judge Coats.
