LA CRUZ-O'BRIEN MATCHED AGAIN

Angel de La Cruz and Tommy O'Brien have been rematched for the main event of the April 27 card, according to Harry Plant, Salem matchmaker, who wishes to give full satisfaction to local fans. Undoubtedly O'Brien had the better of the fight last night which ended so unfortunately but the Filipino showed good stuff and the five rounds were 15 full minutes of concentrated action.

This new arrangement will hold off the Bayes-winner fight until the next fight after the rematch. Harry Hansen, manager of Ad Mackie, issued a challenge last night to Phil Bayes or whoever wins the ultimate fights. Ad Mackie has a strong claim on the Pacific featherweight title and if this match is contracted the bout will be staged at Oxford Park in an open air arena.

Idaho Sterilization Law To Be Put in Operation

BOISE, Idaho, April 13.—(By AP.)—Plans for making operative Idaho's sterilization law will be made here April 25. Dr. R. M. Fouch, state medical adviser and secretary of the board of eugenics, announced today upon notification from W. D. Vincent, superintendent of the Idaho industrial training school, St. Anthony, board president, that the board would be organized on that date.

The 1927 legislature appropriated $4500 for the board of eugenics to place the sterilization law, passed in 1925, in operation. The law applies to feeble minded, insane, epileptics, habitual criminals, moral degenerates, who are regarded as a menace to society.

OLD GLORY PROGRAM TO BE HELD FRIDAY

Governor I. L. Patterson to Dedicate New Flag; GAR Honored Guests

Subject to a few minor changes, the program for the Old Glory program at the armory Friday night is complete. It presents an imposing array of local talent; some of it high grade professional some not yet come to professional status, but all interesting and fine. The numbers are as follows:

Part One
Chorus, "Our Salutation."
"Away to the Fields." Salem Boys' Chorus.
Vocal solo, "Shipmate o' Mine" Victor Wolf.
"America" Audience.
Flag dedication, Governor I. L. Patterson.
Chorus, selected, Salem high school Girls' Glee club.
Duet, selected, Potter Brothers.
Chorus, "My Own Native Isle." Salem Boys Chorus.

Part Two
Musical stunts, by Brown Brothers, Woody Brothers, Stout-Henderson Duo, Chemawa Indian school and others.
Selected, Willamette University Male Quartet.
Reading, "The Melting Pot." Miss McKee.
"Lovely Night," "Thank God for a Garden," Schubert Octette.
Chorus "Merrily Goes Our Bark" By Special Request) Salem Boys' Chorus.

The program is long, and will open promptly on time. It is divided into two sections, with a brief intermission, so that any who might attend other shows or programs earlier in the evening may take in the last half of this much.

All members of the Grand Army of the Republic will be honored guests of the evening.

able to be present on account of other business.

Whether the municipal judge should be appointed by the council, or elected directly by the people was considered carefully, but no definite conclusion drawn. Alderman Dancy who was at the meeting stated his opinion that the people would not approve of any plan not clearly separating the judicial and administrative departments.

Another meeting will be held next Wednesday when the tentative charter drawn up by the special committee will be read and considered.

German Government Has Systematized Day Work

BERLIN (AP)—Every minute of the working day of the German chief executive is accounted for by the secretaries of President von Hindenburg at his "white house."

Edgar Wallace, who turns out mystery stories by the yard, came to the German capital for inspiration but he says the absolute precision there was altogether too much for him.

As an example, he cited his appointment with President von Hindenburg and the next caller was denburg at seven minutes past the scheduled to see the field marshal four minutes and a half later.

DYING PRISONER FREED

Man Who Stole to Live Will Leave San Quentin Today

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., April 13.—(AP.)—The man who stole to live has been released to die.

A. R. Morford, highly respected as a bank cashier in St. Joseph, Mich., is to be released from San Quentin prison tomorrow so that he may return to die of the illness for which he stole to be freed.

Morford came to California hoping to find a cure for tuberculosis. He lived in San Diego for a time. Financial difficulties arose and his health grew steadily worse. In desperation he testified he staged a daylight bank robbery, single handed and was caught. This was in 1924.

In that same year a court sentenced the man to serve from one year to life in prison.

LATE SPORTS

WILMINGTON, Cal., April 13.—(AP.)—Santiago Zorilla, Panama sensation, added to his colorful record here tonight in a decisive victory over Danny Kramer, Philadelphia featherweight. A little more than two years ago Kramer was recognized as California's outstanding featherweight battler. He took only one of the ten rounds.

PORTLAND, April 13.—Ted Thye, Portland wrestler, defeated John Kilonis, Boston, in two out of three falls here tonight. Both are light heavyweights.

OAKLAND, Cal., April 13.—Young Corbett of Fresno won on a foul over Young Harry Willis, negro welterweight of San Diego, in the last round of their scheduled 10-round bout here tonight.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., April 13.—Dode Bercoet, Everett welterweight, won the decision from Frankie Lewis of Klamath Falls, after six rounds of fast fighting in the main event of a boxing card here tonight.
