

O'Brien-La Cruz Fight Declared No Contest When Arena Posts Fall

FILIPINO OUTGILD FOLLOWING MISHAP

The best fight card, without doubt, that has been staged in Salem this season, was brought to an unfortunate ending last night when, in the fifth round of the main event between Tompp O'Brien and Angel de la Cruz, the supports of the west side of the arena gave way, letting the Filipino fall to the floor.

Tommy started his two fluted battering attack early in the third and had the brown-skinned fighter in a bad way by continual rushing. The fourth and fifth rounds were repetitions of the third with Tommy leading repeatedly to the midfights.

Eddie Krugan of Salem and Emil Perkins of Portland fought six pretty rounds in the semi-windup at 140 pounds with action at every turn. Perkins had two inches advantage in reach which he used effectively but Krugan's aggressiveness earned him a draw.

Loren Watts of Salem scored two knockdowns against Danny Morrison of Independence. The bell saved Morrison in the third, and he barely wobbled through the final. Watts won an easy decision.

Garland Wattenberger, Independence, got a technical knockout over Carl Priester, his fellow townsman, in the second round of the first preliminary.

Phil Bayes received a terrific volley of applause when he entered the ring for the first time since his Australian trip. Bayes was to have met the winner of the fight last night, but will have to wait until O'Brien and La Cruz re-settle their argument in a reconstructed ring which Matchmaker Harry Plant will have for the next card.
