

The Oregon Statesman

THE STATESMAN PUBLISHING COMPANY
215 South Commercial St., Salem, Oregon

U. J. Hendricks - Manager
W. F. Henderson - Circulation Manager
E. S. McWherry - Managing Editor
Robert H. Kisting - Advertising Manager
City Editor - Frank Jankowski - Manager Job Dept.
Telegraph Editor - E. A. Shoben - Livestock Editor
W. C. Conner - Feeder Editor

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

BUSINESS OFFICES:
S. B. Bell, 223-225 Security Bldg., Portland, Ore.
Thomas F. Clark Co., New York, 128-130 W. 31st St.; Chicago, Marquette Bldg.
Conner & Moody, California representative, Shanon Bldg., San Francisco, Higgins Bldg., Los Angeles.

TELEPHONES:
Business Office - 23 or 583
Society Editor - 106
News Dept. - 23 or 106
Job Department - 583
Circulation Office - 583

Entered at the Post Office in Salem, Oregon, as second-class matter.

April 17, 1927
And the angel answered and said unto the woman. Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here for he is risen, as he said. Come see the place where the Lord lay. St. Matthew 28: 5-8.

God and You A LENTEN MEDITATION By the Rev. Charles Stelzle

God triumphs in the Resurrection. And in the open tomb man triumphs too. For death has lost its sting. And the grave its victory. This is the day which the Lord hath made. We shall be glad and rejoice in it. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. Thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory!

EASTER

There came to this office yesterday, from a valued friend, an Easter card, the words of which shall suffice for the Easter editorial. It is brief. It is in few words. But it tells in the few words the whole story. Could you do it better, in a column, or a page? The following is the printed matter on the card:

"Easter marks the most important milestone in man's upward progress. It signifies the resuscitation of nature and the perpetuation of the spirit of man. It opens to man a new heaven, and it promises to make for him a new earth. The day appeals to the pietist and the naturalist, the scientist and the man who lives in the realm of the spirit. It rests upon the material universe, and it elevates man toward God."

"FOR WAYS THAT ARE DARK AND TRICKS THAT ARE VAIN," A LA BRET HARTE

There are reasons to believe the appeal of Eugene Chen, foreign minister of the Nationalist government in China, to the American people, mentioned in this column yesterday morning, is a gesture; for home consumption partly; words uttered to "save his face" among his own people—

And here is a scrap of history to prove the point:
O. N. Denny, born in Ohio in 1838, crossed the plains in 1852; settled with his parents near Lebanon; educated at Willamette university; admitted to practice law, 1862; elected police judge of Portland 1871 and 1873; in 1875 was appointed collector of internal revenue. Was appointed consul at Tientsin, China, in 1877, and in 1879 consul general to China, resident at Shanghai. Served in the Oregon legislature before going to China. He introduced the Mongolian pheasants in Oregon in 1881 or '82; turned loose on the old home place in Linn county, sent to his brother there. After serving his own country, he was chosen royal advisor of the king of Korea. Returning home, Mr. Denny bought a farm about a mile east of La Fayette, and died there. His widow, the writer believes, still lives in Portland—

So much of biography for an Oregon man who had a remarkable career.

During the late eighties and early nineties, Judge Denny visited Salem frequently. He had many interesting things to tell. He related numerous incidents of the career of Li Hung Chang, the great viceroy of China, who swayed the millions of that country for so long. General Grant, in his trip around the world at the close of his second term as president, said the most remarkable man he met, and the wisest and most learned, was Li Hung Chang.

Mr. Denny told in his closing years of the way old Li Hung Chang used to speak to the yamen (senate) of that then empire. He would literally froth at the mouth as he abused the "foreign devils" who were desecrating the graves of their ancestors by building railroads over them, and seeking to introduce such devilish devices as the telegraph wires into the Celestial Empire—

And, all the time, Mr. Denny knew Li Hung Chang believed the only thing to save China was the inventions of Western civilization; the only thing to prevent the recurring famines sweeping off many millions; the only thing to make the teeming life of that country safe and endurable to hundreds of millions—

But Li Hung Chang would have "lost face;" would have been stripped of his power, excepting for his appeals to the prejudices of his people; and he wanted to serve them. He was able to serve them. Though the denouement of the "Boxer" rebellion plagued his spirit after he was in his grave, if the shades of the departed are so plagued.

But Li Hung Chang served his day and generation, and there was as much progress in China as any man could have allowed, through the mystic maze of Oriental politics—

And, in much the same way, Eugene Chen, Harvard graduate, is striving to serve his people. He knows Western civilization; but he knows his own people. He knows, and men like him in China know, the American missionaries and the Y. M. C. A. forces have only the good of China at heart—

But there is still the unreasoning prejudice against the "foreign devils." China is very old. Its traditions are very long. Its prejudices are very deep. Its vast millions are in the mass very ignorant and more superstitious.

"For ways that are dark and tricks that are vain, the heathen Chinese is peculiar," wrote Bret Harte.
We have political demagogues in our own country. But in China a man must be a political demagogue to save his face; even to save his head from being put on a pole for the delectation of the populace.

So let us not condemn too much Eugene Chen and his kind in China. They are playing difficult parts. They are literally playing with fire.

E. H. HARRIMAN

A message, dated today, from Boise, Idaho, carries the following words:

"As Boise's bells today ring out the message of Easter, four of them, great, mellow-voiced bells in the Boise Station tower, ring also in remembrance of a man.

"At ten o'clock the morning air will vibrate for the first time to the melodious peal of the Harriman Bells, erected in the honor of E. H. Harriman, perhaps the greatest builder of railroads of all time. The bells are mounted in the new Union Pacific station at Boise. Weighing more than two tons, toned and fashioned by the experts of the Meenely Bells company of New York, these bells are the anonymous gift of a lifelong friend of the famous genius of railroads. As the bells ring for the first time a bronze memorial tablet in the station will be unveiled. It reads:

"The bells in this tower were given by a friend in honor of Edward Henry Harriman, 'Of all the great builders, the famous doers of things in this busy world, none more ably and manfully did his appointed work.'

"H. V. Platt, general manager of the Oregon Short Line unit of the Union Pacific system, representing President Carl R. Gray of the Union Pacific, will unveil the memorial tablet."

The largest single real estate transfer in the history of Salem was consummated yesterday, in the sale of the Southern Pacific block to the Valley Motor company. The price was about $150,000. It is worth the money. The purchasers will make good use of it, to the benefit of all Salem. But that will not long remain the largest single real estate transaction for Salem.

NINE REASONS FOR GOING TO CHURCH GIVEN BY PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT

1. In this actual world, a churchless community, a community where men have abandoned and scoffed at or ignored their religious needs, is a community on the rapid down grade.
2. Church work and church attendance mean the cultivation of the habit of feeling some responsibility for others.
3. There are enough holidays for most of us. Sundays differ from other holidays in the fact that there are fifty-two of them every year—therefore on Sundays go to church.
4. Yes, I know all the excuses. I know that one can worship the Creator in a grove of trees, or by a running brook, or in a man's own house just as well as in a church. But I also know as a matter of cold fact the average man does not thus worship.
5. He may not hear a good sermon at church. He will hear a sermon by a good man who, with his good wife, is engaged all the week in making hard lives a little easier.
6. He will listen to and take part in reading some beautiful passages from the Bible. And if he is not familiar with the Bible, he has suffered a loss.
7. He will take part in singing some good hymns.
8. He will meet and nod or speak to some good, quiet neighbors. He will come away feeling a little more charitable toward all the world, even toward those excessively foolish young men who regard church-going as a soft performance.
9. I advocate a man's joining in church work for the sake of showing his faith by his work.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

AT CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY

If I knew you and you knew me,
How little trouble there would be,
We pass each other on the street,
But just come out and let us meet
At church next Sunday.

Each one intends to do what's fair,
And treat his neighbor on the square,
But he may not quite understand
Why you don't take him by the hand
At church next Sunday.

This world is sure a busy place,
And we must hustle in the race.
For social hours some are not free
The six week days, but all should be
At church next Sunday.

We have an interest in our town,
The dear old place must not go down—
We want to push good things along,
And we can help some if we're strong
At church next Sunday.

Don't knock and kick and slam and slap
At everybody on the map,
But push and pull and boost and boom,
And use up all the standing room
At church next Sunday.

—Selected.

U. S. WARSHIPS TRADE BULLETS WITH CHINESE

(Continued from page 1.)
in Canton, in which, according to official advice hundreds of Chinese communists were arrested and about 100 "reds" were killed or wounded. This was described as the biggest "house cleaning" of radicals since the Cantonese revolution was started.
Exceptional precautions have been taken by the authorities in Canton to insure the foreign quarter against disorders.
Says Reds Must Go
General Pai Tsung-Chi, Cantonese commander of the eastern area, in a formal statement to the press, declared today that the extremists at Hankow must yield, or the moderates would launch a heavy drive to force them out. This question, he said emphatically, must be decided before continuing the military advance northward.
General Pai explained that when the Kuomintang admitted the communists into its ranks it had no idea that they would seek domination of the party. Such domination having been obtained by the communists it now was threatening the existence of the revolutionary movement and would have to be suppressed in order to assure the success of the Dr. Sun Yat Sen original revolutionary movement.
An American woman, Miss Mary I. Craig of Philadelphia, attached to the China island mission at Anshunfu, is in the hands of Chinese bandits. She was captured near Yunnanfu, while on her way to Shanghai, and no word has come from her.

A wireless dispatch from Wuhu says that Cantonese troops arriving there have occupied the American hospital and other foreign property, despite protests.

A. H. Moore, 233 N. High St., apartments and store where you can get high quality furniture and furnishings for every room in your house. (*)

Hartman Bros. Jewelry Store. Watches, clocks, rings, pins, diamonds, charms, cut glass, silverware. Standard goods. State at Liberty St. (*)

Bite For Breakfast

Easter day—
With a choice of weather—
Something promised to suit every taste.
Easter is to different people different things—from a new hat to an attitude of awesome reverence.
Col. E. Hofer, publisher of the Lariat, Salem, paper of the poets and authors, is to go with Mrs. Hofer to Spokane, where he is to be banqueted by the writing people, then to Montana, where the same kind of an entertainment is to be tendered him. Mr. Hofer is Salem's many sided man. More so than any other one of our people.
A food specialist says the principal nourishment in coffee is the cream, sugar and doughnut put into it.
It is the suggestive, immoral plays and films that get the most free advertising.
Keep the esteem of old friends, and the development of new friendships will take care of themselves.
Recent statistics show there are more automobiles than kitchen sinks in the United States.
Asked if the evidence against his brother was very strong in a bootleg case, the other replied: "Strong! It set the judge's desk on fire and dripped over and scorched the rug."
We never cuss the gentle rain. It's free of cost and tax. It brings the early gardens up. The flowers and grain and flax; But best of all it lures from out Their deep and darkened holes. The agile angle worm to dance Around our fishing poles.
A magazine romance authoress asks, "Do men ever die of love?" Well, sometimes a deep-rooted affection for home brew causes one to turn up his toes.
YOUTH PURSUES ALLEGED FORGER; AIDS CAPTURE (Continued from page 1.)
come from Valsitz where he has been working. He was placed in the reform school about two years ago for the same crime.
Officer Louie Olson, who made the arrest, took Briggs to the city jail, where he was booked on a forgery charge. The man gave his age as 17, but officers believe he is 18. If that is true, he will probably be sent to the state penitentiary when convicted.
Rodney Meyers is the son of Rodney X. Meyers, proprietor of Center street Valetaria, who lives at Fisher apartments.
L. A. Scheeler Auto Wrecking Co., oldest in the Willamette valley. New and used parts and equipment. Low prices and quality service here. 1085 N. Com'l (*)
Mr. Used Car Buyer: Have you seen the real buys at the Capitol Motors Incorporated? See Biddy Bishop, 350 N. High St. Tele. phones 2125 and 2126. (*)

WE DO HEMSTITCHING

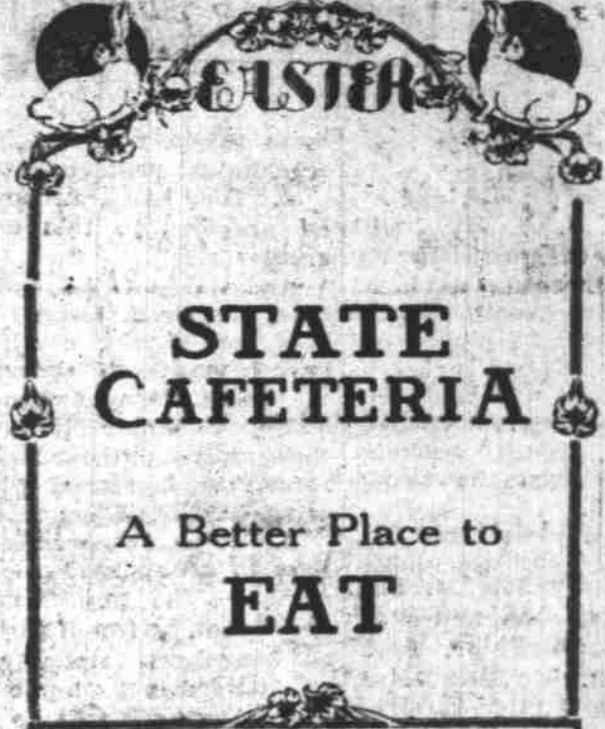

for 6 and 8 cents per yard
Dressmaking $6 to $10
Good Specials on Colored Towelings
THE PETITE SHOP
Over Busick's Telephone 1981.

Many Salem people are making the

Campbell Court Hotel

Their Home
When in Portland
A pleasant place to live, in beautiful surroundings.
An unusually good dining room service and food.
Accessibility to business center and garages.
Eleventh and Main Sts.
E. JEAN CAMPBELL
Owner and Manager

Salem in October, 1925, and was for 16 months connected with Burnett Bros., on State street. He has installed thoroughly modern fixtures and a complete line of staple jewelry, together with a watch repair department, giving the North Salem district its first business firm of this kind.

STATE CAFETERIA
A Better Place to EAT

ELECTRO-KOLD

The Simplest Electric Refrigerator
In a Few Hours we can put an Electro-Kold in your present ice box

TRANSFORM your present ice box into an automatic electric refrigerator. In a few hours, our factory-trained men can install the Electro-Kold "frost tank," and place the quietly operating compressor in your basement. That done, Electro-Kold works automatically, dependably, economically.

Whatever the size of your present refrigerator, there is an Electro-Kold to fit it. Reasonably priced; convenient terms. See Electro-Kold in actual operation in our sales room, making ice cubes, freezing desserts, and keeping your foods better.

C.S. Hamilton FURNITURE CO.
340 Court Street

The "Place" to Live

The only "place" to live happily is inside your income.
Not until you have lived for a time outside your income do you fully realize this truth.
Make it a practice to save ten per cent of your income. You will then "live within your income"—and live happily.
Start today.
Salem Bank of Commerce
SALEM, OREGON