A PRINCESS BORN IN AMERICA

The daughter of the Prince and Princess Erik of Denmark is shown here in the arms of her mother, after her christening at Arcadia, Calif. where her parents came to live shortly after their marriage three year's ago. Baby's full name and title read: The Comtesse Alexandra Dagmar Frances Marie Margrethe of Rosenborg. Her godmothers are the Queen of Denmark, Mrs. John Frederick Booth of Ottawa, Canada, the Princess Margretha of Denmark and the Princess Margrethe (yes, one ends with "a" and the other with "e") of Bourbon. Her godfathers are Prince George of Greece and Prince Axel of Denmark. Princess Erik, the mother, formerly was Miss Lois Booth, daughter of John Frederick Booth, wealthy lumberman of Ottawa, Canada.--(Central Press Photo.)
