Officers of White Shrine Are Installed at Impressive Ceremony on Monday

The officers of Willamette Shrine No. 2, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, were installed in an impressive ceremonial Monday evening, April 18. The attractive decoration of the Masonic Temple, and the tiny flower girls, Elisabeth Anne Herrick and Vera Louise Beechler, added effectiveness to the floral decorations exemplified by Elisabeth Shafer, installing officer, and Edythe Jane Wyatt, worthy herald. The program, to which members of the Eastern Star were invited, commenced with an address of welcome by Pearl Speer, retiring worthy high priestess. Preceding the installation of elective officers, a duet was sung by L. Mabel Cupper and Rose W. Babcock, while Sojourner Cupper gave a solo before the installation of the appointive officers. An unusually appropriate reading by Carrie M. Chase was followed by the proclamation of election and installation by the worthy herald.

Officers for the ensuing year are: Winifred R. Herrick, worthy high priestess; Arthur Edwards, watchman of shepherds; Grace N. Babcock, noble prophetess; Amos Vass, worthy scribe; Katherine Bernardi, worthy treasurer; Maud Scott, worthy chaplain; Blia Nelmeier, worthy shepherdess; Hazel Gillette, worthy guide.

Appointive officers are: Merle Hamp, worthy herald; William McCall, first wise man; Charles Ratcliff, second wise man; Julius Alm, third wise man; Glenn C. Niles, king; Pearl E. Pratt, queen; Nettie Smith, first hand maid; Lena M. Beechler, second hand maid; Margaret Montgomery, third hand maid; Gladys Adams, organist; Clara O. Miller, worthy guardian; S. P. Rasmussen, worthy guard.

Other appointive officers include the queen's attendants, Agnes Miller, Myla Chambers, Rowena Berthelsson, Clio Cassatt, Ruth Mae Lawrence, Caroline Nerod, Loreta Miller, Myrtle Pierson; Madonna, Florence L. Pugh; color bearer, George H. Burnett; color escorts, Rowena Berthelsson, Loreta Miller; musicians, L. Mabel Cupper, Rose W. Babcock, Gladys Adams; correspondent, Ruth Mae Lawrence; sickness and distress, Winnie Lewis, Ethel F. Headrick.

Installing officers for the evening were Elisabeth Shafer, assisted by William Nelmeier, Josephine Vass, worthy chaplain; Edythe J. Wyatt, worthy herald; Minnie Meller, worthy scribe, and Marie McCall, organist.

The refreshment committee for the evening included Katie F. Sturgis, Edna Ramp, Merle Ramp, Sylvia Brixey, Agnes Jones, Nellie Taylor, Josephine Vass, Maude Scott, Gladys Adams and Mabel Slettemeier.

Alma Woodruff Celebrates 80th Birthday Anniversary With Party Yesterday

A delightful affair of yesterday afternoon was the party at which Alma Woodruff celebrated her 80th birthday anniversary at the Bungalow maternity home. The rooms were lovely with bowls of Japanese primrose. A delicious birthday cake was cut when the refreshments were served. In the group were Alma Woodruff, the honor guest, Mrs. Marian M. Good, Mrs. S. A. Dittmar, Mrs. E. M. Kerr, Mrs. M. E. Rohbert and the hostesses, Ruth E. Fuson and Helen Widmer.

Knight Memorial Church Sponsors Successful Easter Observances

At no other Salem church was Easter Sunday observed more successfully than at the Knight Memorial church. At the 11 o'clock service 64 new members were received into the church. In the evening a memorable concert was given by a chorus choir of 40 voices. Appreciated visiting soloists were Jeannie Higgins of Monmouth and Everett Craven of Portland who, with Mrs. Craven, spent Easter in Salem. A total of 525 members and guests were in attendance at this service. Since accepting the pastorate of the Knight Memorial church Rev. H. C. Stover, the pastor, who himself is a musician, has given a particular impetus to this type of worship.

The Queen's Birthday Cake

Queen Marie of Roumania while visiting the United States was presented with a delicious Birthday Cake—made in the model Calumet Bake Shop by Master Calumet Bakers.

The presentation was endowed with a touch of dainty charm, the cake being cut with a glittering sword by Mrs. Samuel Insull, eminent Chicago social leader and fascinating star in "The Runaway Road" and "Dice of God" recently staged at the Studebaker Theatre, Chicago.

CALUMET THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

This cake weighed sixty pounds and was prepared with Calumet Baking Powder. It was made in several layers and filled with fruit. Beautiful flowers molded of sugar adorned the cake, and it was topped with a royal crown, made entirely of palatable sweets.

Calumet—makes baking easier—it's double acting.
