American Legion Auxiliary Sponsors Successful Post-Easter Affair on Tuesday

Thirty tables of bridge were in play on Tuesday at the successful affair which the American Legion auxiliary sponsored at the Woman's club house on North Cottage street. The club room was a complete bower of spring blossoms, fruit blossoms, flowering currant and daffodils.

Dr. H. J. Clements gave the beautiful pink and gold flowers which filled a long basket on the tea table. Tall green candles were used in crystal holders.

The first prize of the afternoon was won by Mrs. Roy Simmons, the second by Mrs. Robert Smith of Independence, and the third by Mrs. Willard H. Wirtz.

A group of Rainier girls served the refreshments. Those assisting in this manner were Miss Dorothy Whitaker, Miss Bertha Babcock, Miss Helen Darby, Miss Maxine Glover, Miss Marjorie Giesy, Miss Alida Olsen, Miss Marjorie Webb, Miss Esther Wood, Miss Grace Thompson, Miss Maxine Ulrich and Miss Mary Kafoury.

The guest group included Mrs. M. L. Shepard, Mrs. E. L. Christopher, Mrs. Dorothy Reeves, Mrs. Clifton B. Mudd, Mrs. L. C. Demarest, Mrs. John L. Waters, Mrs. J. G. Hunter, Mrs. A. C. The personnel of the quartet includes Ronald Kraven, first tenor; Willis Hathaway, baritone; and Walter Kaufman bass. Each of the four is an accomplished soloist, and the blended voices are a delight.

Miss Margaret Lewis is accompanist for both the quartet and the club. The quartet will sing "De Massa of de Sheeptol." "Oh, Miss Hannah," "Absent," and other numbers of equal merit.

The numbers of the glee club are further supplemented by vocal solos, negro spiritual duets, readings and college songs and stunts. In addition Joe Nee, Willamette's "singing Scotchman," will present a group of Scotch numbers in costume.

The Willamette University Glee club has recently completed an exceptionally successful two-week trip into eastern and southern Oregon and Idaho. The club has attracted much favorable comment for the fineness of its work.

Professor E. W. Hobson is the conductor of the club.
