

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE STAGE and SCREEN

Elsinore Theater
Romantic adventure is the keynote of "The Blonde Saint," which brings Lewis Stone and Doris Kenyon to the Elsinore theater today.

"The Blonde Saint" is distinctly different from the general motion picture feature of the year in that there is none of the flapper and cabaret and jazz element.

A love affair on a Sicilian island forms the story, which was adapted by Marion Fairfax from Stephen F. Whitman's novel, "The Isle of Life."

Five clever vaudeville acts will be special attractions at the Elsinore theater today. They follow: Roy Atterbury and Kunny Gillum have united their respective talents and formed a delightful comedy vaudeville offering.

A genuine treat is in store for vaudeville patrons when Helen Morgan and her Melody Boys play at the Elsinore theater. This act is a refreshing melange of music, song and dance, aptly billed in every respect.

JUNIORS OF W. U. TO PRESENT PLAY

"Intimate Strangers" Scheduled for This Evening at Capitol Theater

The junior class of Willamette university will present Booth Tarkington's three-act comedy "The Intimate Strangers" at the Capitol theater tonight.

The activities of the annual May week-end are being sponsored on the Willamette campus today and tomorrow. It has been customary for the junior class to give a play on the final evening, but on account of the symphony concert at the Elsinore Saturday night the date of the play was changed to Friday night.

Last night the cast gave the play to an appreciative audience at the Indian school at Chemawa. Humorous situations and clever lines make the comedy unusually delightful and amusing.

"Love your brother as yourself" is the theme of "The Sea Tiger," Milton Sills' new starring picture, which shows at the Oregon theater May 6 and 7.

In the story, Sills is a lonely, rather stolid fisherman in a village of the Canary Islands. His brother, played by Larry Kent, is a young Lothario but Sills loves him and protects him because he realizes the younger man's failings.

Then a woman's love enters and for a time they are estranged but at last love of his brother wins, and the star finds a way to bring happiness to them both.

Beautiful Mary Astor has the leading feminine role, with Alice White, Larry Kent, Arthur Stone, Kate Price and others in splendid roles.

Sills has probably the outstanding part of his career in this colorful tale of the sea and the lives of men who go out to capture the denizens of the deep. Carey Wilson adapted the Mary Heaton Vorse story which appeared in Liberty Magazine as "The Run-away Enchantress."

America maintains its world leadership in industrial affairs by constantly improving methods of manufacture and substituting machine-power for man-power.

WILLAMETTE WINS SECOND GAME 7-6

Cleaver base running on the part of the Willamette Bearcats earned them a second victory over College of Puget Sound Thursday when the Loggers were defeated 7 to 6 despite the fact that they outthrew the local collegians.

Willamette held the lead up to that inning, but the Loggers had scored two runs in the third on Gano's single and Wilson's homer, two more in the sixth on a single by Ginn, a double by Guest and a sacrifice fly by Kepp, and tied the score in the seventh when Wilson made safe on an error and Ginn and Guest singled and doubled again, respectively.

The Loggers scored in the first inning on a walk, an error, a sacrifice and a single; but Willamette quickly took the lead with two runs in that inning and another in the second.

In the first, Roundtree walked, Dietz was safe on a dropped fly, they advanced on Hank's infield out and scored on Kaufman's single. In the second, Ashby was hit by a pitched ball, went to second when Robertson walked, and scored on Dietz's single.

Another run was scored in the third when Welch doubled, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on a squeeze play aided by Girod. Two were added in the fourth on Ellis' two bagger, a walk for Hank, and singles by Kaufman and Welch.

Guest for the visitors performed creditably on the mound considering that he had also pitched the day before. Ellis of the Bearcats

Members of the cast are: Mr. Ames, Frank Alfred; Isabel Stuart, Genevieve Junk; Florence Helen Saude; Johnny White, Paul Trublood; Aunt Ellen, Louise Nunn; Mattie, Ella Pfeiffer; Henry, Laurence Schreiber.

Miss Marjory Walker of the Ellison-White chautauqua bureau is coaching the play, and Dr. R. M. Gaite of Salem is the assistant coach.

Critics who viewed the production at Chemawa state that it is certain to be one of the biggest dramatic successes ever given by a university class.

According to Ian McIver, manager of the play, there are a few good seats left, which may be procured at the box office at the Capitol theater.
