

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE STAGE and SCREEN

Elsinore Theater
Marie Prevost has added stimulus to the beauty spot fad. In "Man Bait" her current Metropolitan star production, the scintillating comedienne wears a heart-shaped piece of court plaster on her cheek which she classifies as her "man bait." It succeeds the diaphanous gown and the rolled hose as an allurement for emeshing the unwary male.

Since Miss Prevost has thus popularized the tiny dab of plaster there has been a rush in the ranks of the pretty "extras" to follow the star's lead. Where a speck of dust may have rested unsung a few days before, the symbol of "man bait" now shrieks for attention.

Supporting Miss Prevost in "Man Bait," which comes to the Elsinore theater May 8-9, are Kenneth Thompson, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Eddie Cribbon, Adda Gleason, Louis Natheaux, Betty Francisco, Sally Rand and Fritz Ridgeway.

In addition to the picture there will be a Fanchon and Marco vaudeville bill on Sunday and Monday that is sure to please.

Oregon Theater

Mirrored panels, strange grotes, and mysterious trapdoors are seen in a veritable enchanted palace in "The Show," Tod Browning's latest production for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer in which Renee Adoree and John Gilbert play together.

It comes to the Oregon theater May 7-8-9. Living hands with no bodies attached reach out of the void; live heads are suspended over thin atmosphere, and strange ghosts pass to and fro in this remarkable chamber of mysteries which forms the background of the story.

All the tricks of stage magiclans of yore have been resurrected for the illusion palace. "Living half ladies," human spiders," a "Decapitation" in which Gilbert apparently loses his head in an illusion patterned after that of the great Stodare, master magician of London, are being reproduced for the old background of the new Budapest romance, adapted from Charles Tenney Jackson's "The Show."

Capitol

High class novelties, comedy capers, popular musical numbers and an all round good program is pleasingly mingled on the new vaudeville bill at Bligh's Capitol today, afternoon and evening.

Harry and Curly appear in a sensational aerial novelty, a whirlwind cycle of death-defying aerial feats. Miss Curly, a dainty miss, is a personification of gracefulness and daring.

Bob Millikin as "The Prince of Whales," presents a new and original monologue this season. His timely topics and typical tunes are interspersed with several song offerings.

Carr and Morin offer "Bits of Musical Hits." This mixed team present a routine that touches the high spots of entertainment in song presentation. They both possess melodious voices.

Hibbard and Budd, "two Corkers in Cork," present a nonsensical comedy characterization that is built for laughing purposes only. The act is replete with music and enlivening personalities and plenty of ability, which animates an audience into real good humor. This is a clever representation of artistic merit.

On the screen the Capitol will offer "The Marriage Clause," starring Billie Dove and Francis X. Bushman. Viola Holman and her orchestra will play a special musical number for National Music week.

EIGHTEEN MEN CUT QUANTITY OF WOOD

WILLARD WOMEN'S CLUB ENTERTAINED

High School Agricultural Class Spent Week-End Visting at OAC

EVERGREEN-CENTERVIEV, May 6.—(Special)—Mrs. Frank Egan has been quite ill the past week with influenza. Mr. Egan has just recovered from a two weeks' siege of the same malady.

Orlando and Waldo Rue accompanied the agricultural class of the Silverton high school to Corvallis for the week-end.

Janet Comstock, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Comstock, has been ill with chickenpox. Roger has been staying in town with his grandmother, Mrs. S. J. Comstock, while the home was under quarantine.

Ferdinand Rue and Miss Loraine Fletcher assisted with the music at the McLaughlin school Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Fellows, who are spending their vacation with Mrs. Fellows' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Albaugh, went to Oregon City this week to visit his people.

Evergreen and Centerville made a brave showing in the health parade in Salem Saturday, and also had entries in the spelling contest.

Miss Myrtle Moore, who for the past eight years has been employed as secretary in her cousin's office in Los Angeles, arrived on Thursday evening for an indefinite stay with her sister and mother, Mrs. A. A. Geer and Mrs. Moore. Miss Moore is just recovering from a serious illness, and thinks California is too far from her people, so will seek a position in Oregon as soon as she is well enough.

Fred Knight has started a new barn on his farm and Julius Gehring is building a large new chicken house.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Coffey of the Silverton were visitors at the Edson Comstock home one evening this week.

One of the outstanding meetings of the club year for the Willard Woman's club was held at the J. C. Currie home Thursday. Miss Carlson of Salem gave two whistling solos, "Mother Machree," and "Memories." Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, spoke on "The Uses of the Public Library." She pointed out the fact that the library is of far greater use than merely to furnish fiction. Everyone present felt that in the future they would take more advantage of this wonderful institution. About 24 ladies were present from clubs in Aumsville, Silverton, Salem and the Willard club. Mrs. Currie served lovely refreshments late in the afternoon.

Fruit Men Organize Packing Association

Luckiamute Cooperative Plans Operations at Falls City

FALLS CITY, May 6.—The Luckiamute Cooperative Packing association is a new cooperative association formed by some of the large fruit growers of this section, with the help of business men and others interested in the development of the fruit canning industry here.

At the organization meeting held recently, W. V. Sample was elected president, with a board of seven directors, who will manage the business of the association. F. W. Gillette, who was manager of the Falls City Canning company last year, has been selected as superintendent and manager of the active business of the association, which will include the packing and shipment of fresh fruits, canning of fruits, and possibly drying of certain varieties.

A lease has been entered into whereby the Luckiamute Cooperative Packing association will use the plant of the Falls City Canning company for the 1927 season.

While the growers have not fully formulated their plans, it is certain that they will take care of all the fruit of their own members, with the pool still open for other producers who have not yet signed up. It is planned to handle the fruits in season, either fresh, canned or dried, as may be most profitable for the growers.

Work will begin soon, with the packing of gooseberries, and will probably continue until late in the fall.

Survey for Spur Track for Lime Development

FALLS CITY, May 6.—(Special)—A party of engineers in the employ of the Southern Pacific is making a survey for a spur to be run from the plant of the Oregon Portland Cement company to the land owned by A. A. Muck, which will soon be opened up for the development of lime rock.

No definite news is available as to just how this development will be made, but it is presumed the state will handle the deposit under a lease, taking out rock and shipping to Salem for crushing, at least for a while.

St. Helens—Paper mill improvements add 10 tons a day to capacity.

Standardization in Service

THE manufacturing of equipment for the Bell System was one of the earliest, and is now among the outstanding examples of the standardization and quantity production which are distinctive characteristics of American industry.

Quantity production for the nationwide Bell System makes it possible to put into every item of telephone equipment better material and better workmanship, at a lower cost to the telephone user, than could otherwise be done. But the dominant advantage of uniform manufacturing, under standard specifications, lies in the improvement of the service.

Every transmitter in the System is designed to work in harmony with every receiver all over the land and to co-ordinate with all the complicated equipment and lines behind. All can function at full efficiency for they are designed and manufactured for that purpose. Standardization, not only of equipment but of operating methods, is the only basis upon which it would be possible adequately to meet America's need of a nation-wide, universal telephone service.

Gifts That Are Fitting Tributes to Mother on

Mother's Day

Charming little presentations of your love and respect that are just a little "fussy" and the things she wouldn't buy for herself are listed here to help you decide on your gift for Mother.

Night Gowns

Ideal gifts for her would be one of these fine Gowns of Crepe, Baste and Voile, both lace trimmed and tailored in a good range of both large and small sizes.

Gloves

Gloves tailored and Gloves a bit "fussy," both with and without cuffs, are here in a lovely display in all beautiful spring shades for Mother's day gifts.

Jewelry

Years do not change the desire in a woman's heart for gay bits of Jewelry. Mother's heart will be made happier on this day by a brilliant pin, a string of pearls or a dress ornament.

Hankies

Handkerchiefs are one of those little accessory items that Mother doesn't buy for herself. Why not a box of six or a dozen? Pure linen, with contrasting color borders Crepe de Chine and Voiles.

Hosiery

Most Mothers prefer service weight hose and for that reason we are offering a wide selection of reliable makes for Mother's day. Pure silk, reinforced heel and toe and full fashioned.
