SO BUY AND WEAR A CARNATION

The American War Mothers believe there is no more fit ting or beautiful way to celebrate Mothers' Day than to provide carnations to be worn in honor of the motherhood of America, the carnation being the flower used by their organization and formally adopted at its national convention held tifled check equal in amount to ten at Sacramento, Cal., several years ago-

And they also think there is no organization that can more fittingly do this work than their organization, composed, as it is, of the mothers who sent their sons to support this country and its flag.

The American War Mothers are devoting their energies and funds to assisting the service men and ex-service men in EVERY WAY where assistance may be useful, and in assiting to create better Americanim, peace time patriotism, and more honor and respect for the flag-

And in order to assist in raising funds for this purpose it has been the custom of the War Mothers to sell artificial for the making of an improvement carnations on the day before Mothers' Day-

The custom has been endorsed by President Coolidge, army officers, governors, mayors and public officers generally.

President Coolidge says: "I think the idea an excellent one, particularly in view of its purpose to assist the needy ex-service men. You have my hopes for the fullest measure of success in the enterprise."

General Pershing says: "I shall certainly wear a carnation on Mothers' Day. Aside from any consideration of your which are hereby referred to and purpose in selling these flowers, it would be unthinkable that I should refuse a flower tendered by the American War after the 16th day of May, 1927,

So buy and wear a carnation today.

Your 10 cents, added to millions of others, will give a vast amount of help to disabled World war veterans. Every cent per cent of the amount of the bid. lem. Oregon, the date of the first goes for that purpose. There are no salaries paid, nor any overhead. It goes 100 per cent to the disabled veterans.
