

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE STAGE and SCREEN

Elsinore Theater
 Betty Francisco is one of the most versatile actresses appearing upon the screen. The former Follies beauty who plays an important role in Marie Prevost's current star production "Man Bait," which shows at the Elsinore May 9-9, has taken a fling at practically every type of characterization since entering the pictures.

She is playing the part of a salesgirl in a large department store in "Man Bait." As the pal of Miss Prevost, of the glove counter, she has one of the most droll parts of her screen career. With Kenneth Thomson, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Aida Gleason, Louis Natheaux, Eddie Gribbon, Miss Francisco and Fritz Ridgeway in the supporting roles Miss Prevost is well fortified with stellar talent. Donald Crisp directed the film story which was adapted by Douglas Z. Doty from the stage play of the same name.

 The Capitol theater is offering an interesting bill of vaudeville acts and pictures for two days, May 8-9.

George Flint in offering to the vaudeville public Scott Brothers company presents one of the vaudeville's fastest stepping routines. The ensemble numbers are artistically staged and costumed.

Monroe, Lorraine & Monroe present a high class novelty singing and dancing act, including comedy, classical and popular songs. Miss Monroe, the prima donna, has a remarkable coloratura soprano voice, and the music lovers will enjoy her speciality. Miss Lorraine sings and dances her way to joy for all. Mr. Monroe, the tenor, proves worthy of the efforts. An interesting act for Danny Simmons strolls out upon the stage the first glance tells that he is but a "Raw Recruit." Danny makes his appearance in the regiments of a Scotch soldier in kilts and white he may look like a rookie he is a veteran entertainer. His program consists of a medley of jigs and reels, a repertoire of special songs and bits of monologue.

Bob White, a neat appearing young man with a fine gifted personality will succeed in his efforts to please any audience by his masterful out of the ordinary whistling and correct mimicry of various birds. A novelty of his is to imitate the various shells of the late war also air planes, etc., as Mr. White heard them when he served with the A. E. F. in France.

On the screen the Capitol will present "The Final Extra," a fast thrilling newspaper story.

Oregon Theater
 The stirring melodrama of the underworld, "The Show," shows at the Oregon May 8-9 at the Oregon theater, is one of the most thrilling attractions that has come to the screen in some time. It was directed by Tod Browning who was responsible for "The Unholy Three" and "The Blackbird," those other memorable Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer adventures of the crook in his own world of crime and intrigue, and has all their brilliant touches plus the lure of a foreign background. For "The Show" takes place in Vienna.

John Gilbert is the star. He gives a wonderful performance as a dashing, daredevil fellow, a barker at a side-show, who hauls the people into the Tent of Illusions by the sheer force of his personality. Guilty of robbery, and hunted by the police, he unwittingly becomes the object of jealous hatred by the underworld's most ferocious character. How he twice escapes horrible death through the intervention of a girl he first spurns and later learns to love, and how he finally experiences regeneration, makes a tensely vivid tale that runs the gamut of emotions. Renee Adoree plays the feminine lead, the role of a girl having passionate adoration for Her Man, in a truly talented fashion.

MUSICAL PROGRAM GIVEN ON FRIDAY

Eugene Field Auditorium Well Filled; Audience Delighted With Music

SILVERTON, Ore., May 7.—(Special.)—In observance of National Music week, an exceptional fine program was given at the Eugene Field auditorium Friday evening when Mrs. Ralph White of Salem and Mrs. Gertrude Cameron of Silverton presented their pupils in a joint recital. The stage was beautifully decorated with apple blossoms. The auditorium was well filled for the occasion.

The balloon dance, by Margaret Keene and Harriet Kleinsorge brought down the house, and the two little girls had to return to the stage a number of times. A group of five little girls all under six years were greatly enjoyed in a number of dances. These were Miriam Cooley, Joyce Simmons, Lucile Hall, Mary Ann Whitlock and Betty Ann Amundson.

Of the more advanced students, Velda Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis, showed particular talent and grace. Betty Kleinsorge in "The Quaker Maid," drew forth much favorable comment.

Junior Week-end Frolic Proves Enjoyable Affair

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Ore., May 7.—(Special.)—Juniors at the Oregon Normal school began their annual Junior week-end frolic immediately following the Matzenauer concert on Thursday evening, and according to custom all owed the citizens of Monmouth little sleep during the night. The long unused chapel bell in the old administration building was brought into use, and its mellow tones were in sharp contrast to the blaring horns and saxophones of the all-night serenaders. The first event of the day was a tug of war between Junior and senior men with the seniors winning and the juniors taking the ducking. An all student and faculty breakfast served on the athletic field followed with music by "Christie's" band. Tennis, quilts, volleyball and other athletic events continued through Friday, with the annual junior vaudeville given in the auditorium closing the program.

Saturday's program included class professions, competitive drills and May pole dances, crowning of Alta Byers as May Queen, baseball games and relay races. The Junior prom will close the day's festivities.

Two Fine Concerts Coming In Summer

SILVERTON, Ore., May 7.—(Special.)—The appearance of the St. Olaf contest choir and of the Luther college concert band will be two rare treats to be offered the Silverton public this summer. Already the announcement of their promised concerts has awakened considerable excitement in the music circles at Silverton and surrounding communities.

The choir which is rated with the famous Vatican choir of Rome and the Ukrainian choir, will give its concert on June 30. Mrs. Gertrude Boe-Overley is soloist for the choir.

The band will give its concert on July 10th. Professor C. H. Sperratt, who has attracted much attention in the musical world, is director.

Price Returns From Gold Fields; Prospects Good

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, May 7.—(Special.)—C. A. Price of Monmouth recently returned from the Weepah, Nev., gold fields and claims the prospects for pay ore there are exceptionally good, but that development now awaits capitalists, who are rapidly preparing to operate. According to Mr. Price there are some 1500 people and about two dozen shacks now in Weepah—most of the inhabitants living in tents and out of doors. He claims good drinking water is almost as hard to get as gasoline.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD SILVERTON, Ore., May 7.—(Special.)—Perhaps the largest funeral ever held at Silverton was that of Glenn Bowen Saturday afternoon. Mr. Bowen was accidentally killed Wednesday morning when struck by a car in front of his home. The funeral was a military funeral held at the chapel with interment in Bethany cemetery.

CHURCH TO HOLD MEET SILVERTON, Ore., May 7.—(Special.)—A special business meeting will be held at Trinity church Monday evening at which time candidates for pastor will be considered. Three pastors have already refused to accept the call. The two pastors who will be considered are the Rev. Shevlin of Kenyon, Minn., and the Rev. S. J. N. Ylvesaker of Fergus Falls, Minn.

"San Marcus," the star of the horse shows and the winner of many ribbons, is shown here with his new owner, Al. G. Barnes. Performing horses are one of the principal features of the Al. G. Barnes Circus, which exhibits Wednesday, May 18, in Salem, and one of the numbers in the program contains 150 equines, in addition to the zebra round-up which comprises the largest herd of these beautiful animals in captivity in the world. The acts presented by the tigers, lions, leopards, and all the other wild animals are said by the management to surpass all previous displays.

WILL URGE RECLAMATION Mrs. Bentson Receives Word of Sons Death

SILVERTON, Ore., May 7.—(Special.)—Mrs. Olivia Bentson has received word of the death of her son, Otto Bentson, at Miller, South Dakota, where he went a number of years ago. Mrs. Bentson was 35 years of age. Death followed an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Bentson attended the Silverton schools when a child.

Umatilla Rapids Bill to Be Introduced, Solons Agree

PORTLAND, May 7.—(AP)—When congress meets in December, Charles L. McNary, United States will render assistance in reintroducing the Umatilla Rapids project bill. This was agreed to-day at a conference between trustees of the Umatilla Rapids league and Senators McNary and Steiwer and Representatives Sinnott and Crumpacker.

Prior to this conference, Dr. Elwood Mead, United States commissioner of reclamation, addressed a special meeting of the land settlement committee in which he stated that the United States senator from Oregon, will the colonization of reclamation projects in Oregon. Mead reiterated to the committee that he expressed to a delegation from the Owyhee project yesterday.

The entire reclamation program in Oregon is in better condition than before, Mead stated, although Dr. Hubert Work, secretary of the department of interior, is not kindly disposed toward the Baker project, but has agreed to hear the recommendations of an unbiased commission of three to be appointed by Mead. The Deschutes project, which has been in abeyance for several years, will come up for conference with the reclamation commissioner Monday.

Woman Who Voted in 1868 Dies at Colorado Home

PAONINI, Colo., May 7.—(AP)—The woman who friends claim blazed the trail for suffrage by casting the first woman's vote ever counted in the United States, will be buried here tomorrow. Orissa Keziah Dorrance, who died at her home here Thursday at the age of 83, laid claim to casting a vote in the election of 1868.

In the same election Susan B. Anthony, pioneer suffrage leader, also voted in Chicago, but her ballot was thrown out and she was fined $200.

Relatives say the story of Mrs. Dorrance casting the first woman's vote is borne out by the records of the Iowa Historical society.

Faulty Construction Said Cause of Building Wreck

NEW YORK, May 7.—(AP)—Faulty building materials caused the collapse of the Yellow Taxicab office building yesterday, Peter G. Spence, chief of the bureau of fire prevention, declared tonight. Seven persons were killed under the wreckage and more than a score injured.

A thorough examination of the ruins warranted the report that there was no preliminary explosion and the disaster was due to structural collapse, said Mr. Spence. Frederick C. Kuehne, chief inspector of the city building department, however, said he had found the construction of the building had been "proper."

EUGENE, May 7.—(AP)—Dr. Joseph Schafer, direct or of the Wisconsin state historical society and formerly head of the University of Oregon, department of history, will deliver the principal address at the University of Oregon commencement exercises, June 13, according to announcement by President Arnold Bennett Hall today.

Dr. Schafer was a member of the Oregon faculty until 1920 when he left to take over his present position. He is the author of several books, among them a biography of the late President Prince L. Campbell, with whom he was closely associated during his work in Oregon. He also was one of the speakers at the university semi-centennial celebration last fall.

Testimony Completed in Grain Rate Hearing

PORTLAND, May 7.—(AP)—Testimony was completed today in the grain rate hearing held here this week before the Oregon state public service commission in which the railway companies operating in Oregon were cited to show cause why they have not applied the reduced freight rates on grain and farm products on intrastate shipments.

The commission, it was said, probably will reserve its ruling until after the members have an opportunity to review a transcript of the testimony as offered by both shippers and carriers.

"HANDS OFF" DEMANDED Meeting in New York Protests Imperialism in China

NEW YORK, May 7.—(AP)—Demands for a "hands off" policy by foreigners in China were voiced today at an open air meeting in Union Square under police protection. A crowd of 2500 heard speakers of the "hands off China" committee denounce allegedly imperialistic actions of the United States and Great Britain in the Far East.

The committee in charge of the meeting is an organization said to represent 85 social, industrial, labor and liberal association:

 "A negro preacher walked into the office of a newspaper in Rockmount, N. C., and said: 'Misto Edito,' he is forty-three of my congregation which subscribe to 'yo' paper. Do that entitle me to have a church notice in 'yo' Saddy issue?" "Sit down and write," said the editor. "I thank you." And this is the notice the minister wrote: "Mount Memorial Baptist Church, the Rev. John Walker, pastor—preaching morning and evening. In the promulgation of the gospel, three books is necessary: The Bible, the hymn book and the pocketbook. Come tomorrow and bring all three."

Expensive Amusement
 There was a loud explosion and the car sagged a little sideways. "A blow-out," growled the motorist to his wife and children; and the family climbed out and watched father begin to change the wheel.

"I don't see why you have to make all that fuss and bother, George," remarked his wife.

"Neither do I see why you should use such language. You never could see good in anything." "I can't see any in this!" "Well, it tickled baby so. He actually laughed when it went bang."

Naughty Boy!
 The treatment of prisoners in one South Australian jail is remarkably humane. A regular visitor inquired recently regarding an old offender.

"What's wrong with Bill?" seems to have a grouch."

"No wonder," said one of his mates. "He threatened the warden with a shovel today and now they won't let him to choir practice."

"Death, Where Is Thy Sting?"
 An aged Scotsman was on his deathbed. His parish clergyman urged upon him the necessity of preparing for the future life, and spoke of the near approach of the time when he would have to appear before the "King of Terrors." "Weel, weel," replied the old Scot, "an' what for should I be afraid to meet the King of Terrors? Hae I no lived with the queen of them for the last 39 years."
