ELEPHANT AHOY!

Miss Billy Mack of the Al G. Barnes circus and her four ton elephant playmate "Pearl."

Al G. Barnes circus will exhibit Wednesday, May 18 in Salem. Coming with this excellent circus are many new features to be presented for the first time this year, principal among which will be the elaborate spectacle of "Aladdin and the Parade of Gold."

180 performing horses headed by "San Marcus," the $16,000 equine star, the zebra round-up, with the biggest herd in captivity in America, and many other original novelties.

No street parade will be given in this or any other city by the Al G. Barnes circus, due to the increased size of the show and the time necessary for the presentation of the spectacle of "Aladdin."

TWO WOMEN FOUND HELP

Their Sickness Banished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mrs. Nina Matteson, Box 206, Oxford, N. Y., writes—"If it had not been for your medicine, I could not have done my work as it should have been done. My mother told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I had read in different papers what it had done for different women.

She wanted me to try it, so my husband got me one bottle at first; then I took two others. Now I am feeling quite strong again."

Mrs. Ernest Tanguay of Adams, Mass., says she was ill for four years and could not sleep nights or go out on the street. She read about the Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking eight bottles she was able to do all her work and go anywhere and is quite herself again.

This dependable Vegetable Compound is a household word in thousands of homes. The fourth generation is now learning the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If this medicine has helped other women, why shouldn't it help you? At your druggist's.

ESTEEMED SALEM WOMAN PASSES ON

Mrs. W. H. Steusloff Had Been Active in Good Works Here for Many Years

At the family home, 1185 Court street, Salem, Mrs. W. H. Steusloff died at 9:30 yesterday morning, May 9th, 1927, from heart trouble. She was aged 64, born in Suderstepel, Schleswig, Germany, April 19, 1862. Her maiden name was Johanna Hasche. She came to America with her parents when she was seven years old. She was married to W. H. Steusloff in Chicago in 1888. They moved shortly to Omaha, where they resided 10 years, coming to Salem in 1898.

She is survived by her husband and three children, Miss Dorothy and May (Mrs. G. F. Chambers) and Claude, all of Salem. There was another son who died in infancy. Also there are two sisters, Dora Hasche of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Mrs. Emma Desines of Forest Park, Ill., and one brother, John Hasche, at Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Steusloff had been a member of the Presbyterian church for many years, and she was active in all lines of good work here. She was also a member of the Salem Woman's club and other civic organizations.

W. H. Steusloff is one of the principal stockholders and managers of the Valley Packing company. Only a little while ago, Mr. and Mrs. Steusloff took a trip abroad. The news of the death of Mrs. Steusloff will be a surprise to many friends for she was to all appearances strong and vigorous up to a very few days ago; her fatal illness lasted for only a week.

The funeral will be at the Rigdon mortuary tomorrow (Wednesday) at 1:30.

Deschutes Project Must Wait, Says Commissioner

PORTLAND, May 9.—(AP)—Dr. Elwood Mead, United States commissioner of reclamation, declared here today that he does not favor including the Deschutes project in the Oregon reclamation development at the present time. Mead explained that there are now too many projects contemplated and that with the limited appropriation available, no one would receive sufficient benefit if all were acted upon favorably.

Dr. Mead said he favored completion of projects already under way before new difficulties are undertaken. Delegations from Stanfield and Westland likewise received little encouragement. Lack of funds was given as the reason for withholding sanction.
