

Bayes In Best Condition of His Career for Battle With O'Brien

KNOCKS OUT HEAVY SPARRING PARTNER

(By Will Carver)
Yes, the gang will all be there! And it is beginning to look as if Matchmaker Plant will have to put India rubber walls on the armory to accommodate the crowd tonight. Two entire balcony sections overlooking the spot where Bayes and O'Brien meet have been sold and so many ringside tickets have been purchased that Iolo Smith has to make rapid fire clear sales in order to take care of all comers.

Special precautions are being taken to handle the overflow crowd certain for this night. Fire Chief Harry Hutton is being asked to have his men actually on duty to take care of the enforcement of the "no smoking" rule and Police Chief Frank Mintz' men will be on deck to see that the "free lookers" don't punch in the armory windows as they did on the night of the Hayes-Edwards match.

Phil Bayes was never in better shape than last night when he took his short workout closing his preparations for his session with O'Brien. Phil has been training to the utmost for this fight and his sparring partners hold sad memories of this. It is less than a week ago that Phil was sparring with an experienced 160 pounder. Both men exchanged some hot ones until Phil saw his opening and knocked the big boy out for several minutes. In another sparring bout, Phil worked with the husky Young Firpo, who appears on the preliminary card. Firpo is a two handed slugger who knows his onions and for a moment he held Bayes off, but Phil soon got to him and then it was just too bad, but no knockout.

No one needs to be told about Tommy O'Brien. He always delivers the goods in a showy, flashy style. Tonight he will meet a man who will make him put out everything that he possesses. O'Brien's name, Tom Loufitt, is bringing his boy to Salem in the best of condition and with him will be the largest Portland fight delegation ever entering the armory.

Some of the local fans are afraid that Bill Stepp, Portland News sports editor and tonight's referee, will be partial to Tommy. Phil has always had the rep of being a square shooter and if he makes a special point of seeing that O'Brien breaks clean in the clinches, there need be no worry about Billy's ability to judge the other fine points of the evening's fun.

Now to jump right into the middle of the preliminary lineup, off of the feature fights of the night will be the maiden appearance here of Young Firpo, who fights in the good old fashioned back peddler style of the once famous Battling Ortega. Firpo packs a neatly punch in either hand and claims six years active ring experience. He will meet Jack McIntyre who has 20 fights to his credit. Both men claim to be good enough for higher places on the card and are in the ropes tonight at small money only for the chance of proving their wares to the Salem boxing commission and the public.

Perhaps young Loren Watts will never box to suit his critics, but Watts has made hundreds of friends since that time two years ago when the youngsters begged for a chance to get into the game. He can take more punishment and fights squarer than many of the old heads, and tonight he goes up against Johnny Walker from whom he secured a close decision several fights ago. Walker is a larger lad than Watts and claims that he can best the Salem lad in this scrap. We will see what we see.

Those who know claim that Harry Plant has had good luck and shown good judgement in his entire prelin card. The Firpo-McIntyre set to will be followed by the meeting of Red Hayes of Stayton and Pete Willert of Salem. These huskies fought a hard earned draw in their last appearance here and will do their darndest to break the dead lock this time.

If the big time Bayes and O'Brien were not heading the list this evening, the top position for the card might well be taken by Al Sharp and Jack Davis. Sharp, a local man, was practically put out on his feet by Davis on the second card back. Three rounds of bitter battling had shown what Davis could do to a hard, fast man when Sharp rallied in the fourth and knocked the Oregon City boy for a long, long count. Davis has been making no excuses since that time but Clackamas county folk say that he walks about talking to himself concerning his treatment of Al "when I got to him at Salem."

This is a last friendly warning to fight fans to get over to the armory or Smith's today and get seats for themselves while good ones may still be purchased.

FIGHTS PHIL BAYES ARMORY TONIGHT

Tommy O'Brien, Portland scrapper who will meet Salem's leading exponent of the manly art, in Bayes' first fight after his return from a successful invasion of Australia. O'Brien has fought in fast company and the only threat to his popularity has been his recent tendency to hang in the clinches permitting his opponent to carry him through the middle rounds. Whether this is an indication of weakness in O'Brien will be tested when he runs into the short mule kicks carried by Bayes.

DE MOLAYS DEFEAT HANSEN-LILJEQUIST
(By Charles Bishop)
The DeMolay baseball team defeated the players representing the Hansen-Liljequist Lumber company, 9 to 2 in a four inning game which opened the Industrial league season Tuesday evening.

The lumbermen were leading 2 to 0 in the third inning, but in their half of that stanza the DeMolay team scored seven runs to cinch the game.

Both teams had several errors chalked up against them, but this was excusable considering that few of the men had played together before. The lineups were:

This is a last friendly warning to fight fans to get over to the armory or Smith's today and get seats for themselves while good ones may still be purchased.

were storms in mid-Atlantic and fogs off New Foundland, and most of the Sunday morning papers printed it. Today few seemed to remember it.

Apology Published
The evening newspapers, which put Paris in a frenzy yesterday published a joint apology today, declaring that they would not have published what they did, but for the fact that their dispatches were confirmed successively by "official manifestations" of the ministers of commerce, war and interior, M. Painleve, war minister, himself cabled congratulations to the fliers Monday and the government made ready to have parliament pay suitable tribute to Nungesser and Goll when it convened today.

Mattox Still Missing After Breaking Jail
Escapes From Polk County Jail By Cutting Wall With Axe
DALLAS, Ore., May 10.—(Special.)—William Mattox, serving out two fines imposed upon him for liquor law violations, who escaped from the Polk county jail here Monday night, has not yet been apprehended, according to Sheriff Thomas B. Hooker. He will probably be picked up in a couple of days, the Sheriff stated, as all his old haunts are being watched, and many of his old friends and connections are under surveillance.

Mattox, who was a trusty at the jail, cut his way through the south brick wall with an axe which he secured in the fire room. The man left a letter saying that he was getting out to secure money to pay his fines. The break was discovered by the jailer when he made the round about 8:30 Monday evening.

Several breaks from the Polk county jail have been made in the past year, mostly by trusties who had access to implements with which to hew their way out.

Mattox was arrested in the Arlie district, March 8, charged with possession of liquor, and sentenced to pay a fine of $500. He was also serving out a $275 fine imposed for a similar offense about a year ago.

BIG BEAVER BATS DEFEAT MISSIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—(AP)—The Beavers paraded to the plate with big bats today and clubbed out 16 hits from the offerings of three Mission pitchers to win easily 10-2. Strand, centerfielder and McCurdy, each hit homers, the former with two on bases and the latter scoring one runner ahead.

SACRAMENTO, May 10.—(AP)—Los Angeles staged a ninth inning rally to take the series opener from the Sacramento Senators here today 7 to 4. Poor pitching by Weathersby and Shea marred the early innings.

OAKLAND, May 10.—(AP)—Harry Krause, veteran left hander, kept seven hits well scattered today and Oakland defeated San Francisco 3 to 0. Timely wallops by Reese brought in two runs and the other was scored on Camille's error.

LOS ANGELES, May 10.—(AP)—The Hollywood Stars rode on the unbeaten arm of "Arizona" Bill Murphy, a youngster, to a 7 to 3 series opener victory over Seattle here today. It was Murphy's third straight victory.

DETROIT, May 10.—(AP)—Tyus Raymond Cobb, who for 22 years wore the uniform of the Detroit Tigers, came back to the scene of his early baseball triumphs today to receive a roaring welcome. The fact that Tyus came as an "emphy"—playing against his former team as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, made no difference. Today was "Cobb day," and Cobb for the day at least belonged to Detroit's fandom.

THE lifting just a few hours before game time by President Ben Johnson at Chicago of a suspension under which Cobb and his team mate, Al Simmons, were placed last week after a disagreement with Umpire Ormsby at Philadelphia, enabled the Georgia Peach to appear in the day's game. The action came as a welcome step to thousands of Detroiters who had bought seats for the game several days ago in the hope of seeing Cobb in his first Navin field appearance aligned with a team other than the Tigers.
