LEGION'S GIGANTIC BENEFIT SCHEDULED

Every Cent Taken in Will Be Turned Over to Red Cross for Work

Salem is going to see the zippiest, snappiest, funniest minstrel performance ever staged here when the American Legion's gigantic flood relief benefit is given at the Capitol theater on the night of Friday, May 20. No fooling! Members of the troupe declare that although their recent performances have been acclaimed as excellent, they intend to add some touches to the show which will put it in a class all by itself.

As every cent taken in will be turned over to the Red Cross to swell the fund for relief of the half million stricken ones, the homeless and destitute victims of America's greatest tragedy, the Legionnaires feel that no effort should be spared to make this a show long to be remembered.

Tickets are being sold by the Red Cross and the Salvation Army and they are being grabbed so fast that the presses are already running hot. There will be no reserved seats. It will be a case of "First come—first served," with performances at 7 and 9 o'clock. This is Salem's chance to make a record showing for the flood victims and to show the way to other cities of Oregon and the Pacific northwest. Everybody's lining up for the cause of humanity—or at least everybody who amounts to anything. Un-Americans and Bolshevists are not invited.

Nazarene Pastor Accepts Call at Newberg Church

Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Hopkins, pastors of the Nazarene church, will close their ministry in the local church next Sunday. They have accepted the call to the Newberg church and will begin their work there at the close of the district assembly, which convenes on May 18 at Vancouver, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins have served the local church for three years. They leave with the best of feeling for all and predict a great future for the local church. Mr. Hopkins will preach his farewell sermon Sunday morning and Mrs. Hopkins will preach at the evening service.

Colts that have been properly handled and trained do not develop bad habits, such as balkiness or kicking. The most common cause of balkiness is punishment to make horses do something they cannot do or do not understand how to do.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

Miss Alma Taylor and her prize horse "Sir Robert" caught by the camera in the riding act, which is one of the features of the A. G. Barnes Circus coming to Salem, Wednesday May 18. The bareback horse with a circus are the aristocrats of the equine side of the dressing room inasmuch as they are never called upon to do any other work, and their day's employment does not exceed twelve minutes in twenty-four hours. Horses selected for this act with the circus must possess certain qualifications, which include a disposition not to become excited and to obey the slightest command of their rider.

BENEFIT PLAY PLAN

"Applesauce" to Be Given for Flood Relief June 10

With the Mississippi flood developing into a national emergency, and the Red Cross requiring more money to aid the destitute and suffering, The Equity Players, an organization for the production of standard plays under the direction of Perry Prescott Reigelman, have donated their services to the Red Cross and will stage an American domestic comedy at the Capitol theater on the evening of June 10.

"Applesauce" will be the first production of The Equity Players, and the entire proceeds of the play will go toward the flood fund. Frank Bligh has made special arrangements for its production at the Capitol.

C. E. Albin, president of the Willamette chapter and Dr. Morris, director of the present drive, accepted the offer of The Equity Players without any hesitation, and arrangements are to be made to give the play in several other towns beside Salem so that the relief fund may be made as large as possible.

"Applesauce" was written by Barry Connors and was produced at the Ambassador theater in New York in September, 1925, and was held there for a long and successful run.

Everybody will be anxious to meet Bill McAllister, the young chap who is full of "applesauce." This delightful humorous character will be taken by Jack Minto, who played the juvenile lead in the DeMolay production of "A Full House."

Hazel Robinson, the girl Bill wants to marry, will be played by Fay Jo Wolz, who was the leading woman in "A Full House."

Mildred Pugh is cast for the part of Ma Robinson, a kindly old woman, and Julia Query will play Mrs. Jenny Baldwin, a sour, middle-aged married woman whose husband gets initiated into the Elks hat a dozen times a year.

Pa Robinson, the grouchy, irritable father of Hazel, will be taken by Floyd Query. Matt McAllister, Bill's uncle, a self-made man, will be played by Francis Lutz. Rollo Jenkins, the arrogant, self-important young man, will be played by Kola McClellan, who has appeared here in "Miss Satan," and the operetta "Paul Revere."

Rehearsals are under way and the members of the cast, while ordinarily busy people, are going after their parts with an eagerness that promises a smooth production.
