

Senators Strengthened For Sunday Game Here With Woodmen Team

MEYERS, CARROLL, JACOBBERGER SIGN

When the Salem Senators line up against the Woodmen of the World baseball team in the Portland City league at Oxford Park Sunday, several faces will be seen in the lineup which have not been there before.

This, Manager "Frisco" Edwards explains, is not due to any poor showing made by anybody last Sunday; bygone are bygones. But the third base position has been open for several weeks, which accounts for the announcement that Vince Jacobberger will hold down the hot corner.

Then again, Billy Sullivan will be unable to come for Sunday's game, and that is the reason why "Speed" Carroll will be on first base, but Carroll may hold down a regular place on the team hereafter, nevertheless.

The third new member is not strictly speaking a new player at all, as he was signed up before the season started. It is Meyers, pitcher, who showed the best "stuff" of any of the new flingers who tried out. In a practice game two weeks before the season opened, Meyers sprained his foot, and had not until this week recovered sufficiently to play. He is in shape now, and may start Sunday's game.

The Woodmen of the World are pretty well down the list in the City league, but they have been playing good ball and losing by close scores to the league leaders since the team was strengthened. They lost to Nicolai 4 to 0, but defeated Woodstock 5 to 4; and they held Camas to a 4 to 2 score. If they beat Salem Sunday, the two teams will be tied in the league race.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—(AP)—Frank Sigafos, late of Reading, Pa., Philadelphia and other points east, led a Portlan batting attack that left the San Francisco Missions gasping under a 12 to 6 score today. The little second baseman hit safely 6 out of 6, including two doubles. Other members of the Portland squad lifted the total to 21 base hits. The Missions had a 6 to 5 lead going into the ninth but a rally in that frame gave Portland 7 runs from eight safe blows.

RAIN MAY SLOW UP KENTUCKY DERBY

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 13.—(AP)—Promise of fair weather and a fast track for the tens of thousands of spectators and the 18 racers in the 53rd Kentucky derby tomorrow, was marred late today by a heavy rain.

Weather bureau experts had scanned their maps and said there would be some showers today in this part of Kentucky but that it would be "generally fair" tomorrow. Those who remembered the deluge of two years—just as the weather bureau had forecast that year—said that the outlook was all that was needed to make tomorrow perfect. Then came the afternoon "showers," preceded by a darkened sky and accompanied by rather high winds and rain.

Prior to the rain the track had been declared fast.

Should the rain make the track muddy tomorrow, chances for one of the western horses to win the derby would be considerably improved. Royal Julian is a superior mudder, while Hydromel, Rolled Stocking and Fred Jr., have a liking for heavy going.

Kiev, of the eastern horses, seems to crave a muddy track, as on his two outs this spring here he has not shown any real class on a fast track. Bostonian of the Whitney stable, and Scapa Flow are the other "eastern mudders."

The derby, at a mile and one-quarter, will be worth $52,525 net to the winner, if all 18 start. The second horse will win $6,000, the third $3,000 and the fourth $1,000. The winner also will take down a $5,000 gold cup.
