U. D. Club Is Entertained Last Week With Maytime Party at Elks Club

One of the exceedingly enjoyable meetings in the U. D. club series this year was the Maytime party last week at the Elks club. The hostesses were Mrs. A. E. Hucklestein, Mrs. M. J. Petzel, Mrs. Harry Brians and Miss Rosalia Bach.

A Maypole scene was arranged at the center of the table. Mrs. Harry Weis won the highest honor of the afternoon, while the second prize went to Mrs. E. A. Pruitt.

Covers at the luncheon were placed for Mrs. E. H. Burrell, Mrs. T. D. McClain, Mrs. T. M. Barr, Mrs. Stephen Breitenstein, Mrs. E. Eckerlin Sr., Mrs. C. J. Healy, Mrs. James Henson, Mrs. John Nathan, Mrs. Frank Jaskoski, Mrs. C. D. Thomas, Mrs. Harry Weis, Mrs. E. A. Pruitt and the hostesses, Mrs. Hucklestein, Mrs. Petzel, Mrs. Brians and Miss Bach.

Mrs. A. A. Lee Honors Son's Wife With Delightful Afternoon Tea on Thursday

Mrs. Lloyd Lee was the honor guest at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee on Thursday when Mrs. Lee entertained the following friends: Mrs. S. W. Marsters, Mrs. Paul Acton, Mrs. Foster Odom, Mrs. Leonard Nelson, Mrs. Laban Steeves, Mrs. H. E. Shade, Mrs. E. O. Welling, Mrs. George O. Lewis, Mrs. H. D. McMillan, Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck, Mrs. Wallace Griffith, Mrs. Paul Morse, Mrs. Marion Curry, Mrs. Ralph H. Kletzins, Mrs. Oscar Powell, Mrs. Willis Vincent, Mrs. Harry Scott, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. P. A. Legge, the honor guest, Mrs. Lloyd A. Lee, and the hostess, Mrs. A. A. Lee.

Sewing and games were the diversions of the afternoon. Miss Helen MacPherson, a niece of the hostess, pleased with two solos, "Until" and "Spring Has Come."

The delicious refreshments were served at small tables, with a centerpiece of Cecil Brunner roses and baby's breath on each.

Mrs. Lee was assisted in the serving by Miss Doris Hoogerhyde and Miss Helen MacPherson.

Second Recital in Series of Four Is Given on Friday at Roberts' Studio

Pupils of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts have been presented in two, out of a series of four recitals planned, attractive musicales already this month.

The first recital was given during Music week by the very youngest pupils, and consisted of class work, songs, games, kindergarten plays and piano solos. Those taking part were Richard Paul Barton, Peggy Thompson, Beth Sivewert, Alan Siewert, Alta Vivian Gell and Edna May Swesinger.

On Friday night a second delightful program was given and took the form of a class demonstration of the Dunning system for beginners, which consisted of sight reading, ear training, pictures illustrating dupe, triple and quadruple time, intervals, and recognition of them when played on the piano. The following program was given:

- Piano solos—

Miss Dorothy Taylor, the president, presided, while Helen Breit-haupt acted as secretary pro tem. Miss Neva Stolzheise conducted the devotional.

A dialogue, "The Red Apron," was given by Gladys Taylor and Fern Colwell.

Miss Doris Hoogerhyde was in charge of the lessons on "Moslem Women."

Mrs. A. A. Lee was assisted by Miss Isabel Huston, Miss Lorraine Robbins and Mrs. Edna Van Nice as hostesses. At the refreshment hour Harriet Beckley also assisted.

SALE OF CITY WATER WORKS ASSURED NOW

It laid an additional five or six miles of pipe. In addition it has installed some new pumping equipment and other facilities for improvement of the service.

A movement was started last November for the purchase of the water works for the city. A figure of $792,000 was set as the valuation in a report drawn up by a consulting engineer at that time, and the city probably could have purchased at that figure. City officials lacked interest to carry the proceedings through, however,
