Public Is Invited to View Miss Mabel Creighton's Attractive Garden

One of the most attractive gardens in the entire vicinity of Salem—that of Miss Mabel Creighton on the River Road—will be open to the public from 2 to 8 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and evening.

The columbines are particularly lovely at Jonesmere this week, and all flower lovers will welcome this opportunity to see them.

Jonesmere is located ten miles north of Salem on the River Road.

Mrs. Affie B. Hanna Honors Miss Coppock With Surprise Bridal Shower

A delightful pre-nuptial affair, honoring Miss Mabel Coppock, whose marriage to Dale Fuller of Woodland, Wash., will be an event of the first week in June, was given one night last week when Mrs. Affie B. Hanna was hostess at her home at the Fisher apartments. The affair was in the nature of a surprise miscellaneous shower.

Tris and tails were lovely in the rooms where games and conversation were the diversions. The gifts were presented in a large box tied with a huge white satin bow.

At 11 o'clock the hostess served a delicious luncheon.

In the guest group were Miss Mabel Coppock, the honor guest, Mrs. H. E. Barrett, Miss Wilcox, Mrs. W. H. Mills, Mrs. Blackburn, Miss Violet Hess, Miss Madge Bernice Coppock, Miss Veda Coppock, Miss Delores Mills, Miss Helen Barrett, Miss Thelma Blackburn, Miss Lavina Blackburn and the hostess, Mrs. Affie B. Hanna.

Independence School Wins At County Meet

Pupils from ten schools participate in meet at Normal. OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Ore., May 16.—(Special.)—Independence grade school won the highest number of points at the Polk county track and field meet held at Monmouth Saturday. Speedy young athletes from 10 schools of the county took part in the tournament, which was sponsored by the Oregon normal school. The honors went to independence whose total score was 48. The Falls City boys and girls, however, ran independence a close second with a total score of 43 points. Dallas scored 35, Rickreall 21, Monmouth 11 and Buena Vista 1. Other schools taking part in the meet were Elkins, Oak Grove, Zena and Broad Maid.

Movie Star Reports 'Boishness Is Just a Fad'

The sale of lamb chops and pineapple has dropped appreciably. Screen stars and players are slowly but surely returning to the womanly type of figure, is the rumor prevalent here. The boyish form will soon be passe and diets will be a thing of the past. Carmel Myers, one of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer players, who appears in Robert Z. Leonard's production, "The Deal-Bride," is one who has sworn off the hectic reducing processes. Her gowns are now made to reveal the womanly curves in her figure. She is going even further than that toward femininity by letting her hair grow.
