

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE STAGE and SCREEN

Elsinore Theater
Tom Mix in "Outlaws of Red River" will be the picture at the Elsinore theater for one day today. This is a thrilling western picture, which is sure to please all.

Hal Roach presents Rex in "The Devil Horse" at the Elsinore on May 21.

Oregon Theater
It is a common belief that marriages are contracted in heaven, and wrecked in—well, we'll call it the sea of circumstantial evidence.

Such seems to be the case in "Nobody's Widow," a delightful romantic comedy starring Leatrice Joy, which shows at the Oregon theater today, May 19.

Literally, the marriage of the pair involved in this sophisticated Avery Hopwood comedy, was solemnized in England, temporarily wrecked when the wife discovered another woman in the arms of her husband, and rehabilitated in California, with the aid of a blonde widow and propitious circumstances.

Many people from Spring Valley spent Saturday shopping in Salem.

Prison Officials Sorting Loot Taken From Wilkins

Penitentiary officials Tuesday were sorting out several hundred dollars worth of merchandise stolen from local stores by Lloyd Wilkins, convict, while he was employed as trustee, driving the prison truck. The merchandise will be returned to the merchants from whom it was stolen.

Most of the loot was found at the home of a rancher named Richardson, who lived near Amity. He recently was convicted in a Yamhill county court on a charge of receiving stolen property. Wilkins was relieved of his trusty privileges and is now in the prison bull pen.

It was said that Richardson made frequent trips to Salem, where he received the loot from Wilkins. Approximately $200 worth of stolen merchandise was found in a cache in the prison garage, where Wilkins made his headquarters under a previous administration.

Crane—State bank will add another story and other improvements to bank building.

OUTLAWS of RED RIVER

THE ELSINORE

"Nothing but blue skies from now on"

LIKE the fellow in the song, I "never saw the sun shining so bright—never saw things going so right." For I've found Prince Albert and complete pipe-enjoyment. I thought I knew all about pipes and pipe-smoking. I had no idea what a change for the better P.A. would be.

What a treat it was to open the tidy red tin and free that wonderful Prince Albert fragrance! To a pipe-hungry man, no other aroma ever came within a mile of that. I could hardly wait to tumble a load into the bowl of my jimmy-pipe and light up. And then . . . that marvelous taste!

Cool as a summons to court. Sweet as winning your case. Mild as the congratulations of the second-best man. Mild, but with a full, rich tobacco body that satisfies your smoke-hankering to the absolute limit. I'm talking about a grand old pipe-smoke, Men . . . Prince Albert.

No matter how satisfied you appear to be with your present set-up, give Prince Albert a whirl. You'll never know till then what a friend your pipe can be. P.A. never bites the tongue or parches the throat. It never wears out its welcome. Try this long-burning tobacco. You'll check with all I've said.

PRINCE ALBERT

—the national joy smoke!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.
