

TRACK MEN LEAVE FOR TACOMA MEET

Track Coach Lestie Sparks and eight Willamette university track men will leave tomorrow morning for Tacoma where the Bearcats will vie with five other colleges in the annual northwest conference track meet.

The men who will make the trip are Hathaway, northwest conference champion two-miler; McCormick, McGraw, Zeller, Boothby, Ruch, Tweedie and Fleisher.

Last year, with the redoubtable Merwin Stoltzheim, certain point-getter in the weights and the jumps, in good form, the Bearcats were able to take fourth place, relegating Pacific and Linfield to the cellar, but this year, with the possible exception of Hathaway and Fleisher, there are no outstanding men.

Hathaway made a mark of 10:27 in the two mile race last year but men at Puget Sound and at Whitman has bettered this mark in meets this year, and probably will press close for top points in this event. With a year of additional training and experience, however, Hathaway is expected to cut a few seconds from last year's time.

Fleisher, in the 880, ran a brilliant race at Forest Grove, and he with Zeller are expected to corral a few points in this event at Tacoma. These two men are dependable, consistent runners and will also be members of the relay team.

McCormick surprised track followers at Forest Grove last Saturday when he took the mile run against Pacific. While the time was comparatively slow, this inexperienced man ran a thrilling, muscle-straining race, and will probably better his mark next Saturday.

McGraw will be entered in the shot and discus; Boothby, the 440, Tweedie, the 440, and Ruch will toss the javelin and the discus. If Ruch can throw the stick 179 feet, as he did in a preliminary try at the track meet against Linfield, he will break the conference record of 176 feet, 2 inches, established by a College of Idaho man last year.

No men at all will be entered in the hurdles, the high jump, or the broad jump, for the reason that there are none to enter. The conference rule permits participation of only eight men, and these men may enter no more than two events. Three places will be awarded with the count five, three and one.

The Willamette relay team will be Boothby, first runner; Tweedie, Zeller and Fleisher.

CLOSELY MATCHED HEAVIES TO MEET

NEW YORK, May 18.—(AP)—Two of the most closely matched heavyweight contenders the ring has seen in years—Jimmy Maloney and Jack Sharkey—will stake their championship aspirations in a 15-round match tomorrow night at the Yankee stadium.

If advance expectations are fulfilled, close to 50,000 fans will see the two Boston giants fight it out in the first big outdoor heavyweight battle of the summer. It is the first of Tex Rickard's "semi-finals" and the winner has the prospect of fighting Jack Dempsey in August to determine Gene Tunney's opponent in the next championship affair.

Maloney, admittedly the harder puncher of the two, has been a slight favorite since the two were matched, but a switch toward the clever and sharp-shooting Sharkey was expected tonight to make it an "even money" battle by the time they crawl through the ropes around 10 o'clock tomorrow night.

Before Sharkey mounted high in the heavyweight scale through victories over Harry Wills and Mike McGuire and Maloney battered Harry Persson, Franz Diebler, and Jack Delaney into submission, the New Englanders clashed three times in Boston. Out of those scrambles, in which honors were evenly divided, came the conviction to each man that he was the master of the other.

Jimmy won the first fight after ten colorless rounds in December 1924. The next year they met twice and Sharkey won both skirmishes.

The record of the first—"foul, nine rounds"—tells nothing of the bitter battle that ended in one of the most sensational finishes ever seen in a Boston ring. Four times in the eighth round Sharkey was floored by Maloney's terrific right hand smashes until he was a wobbling, punch-drunk figure.

In the ninth, a low left hook dropped Sharkey again and he was awarded the fight on a foul. Sharkey out-fought and out-boxed Maloney to win the "rubber" battle a few months later. Jack's sweeping left hook piled a constant tattoo on Maloney's head and body in the closing frames to win him the decision, although Jim always maintained that he was ill the night of the fight.

LATE SPORTS

PORTLAND, May 18.—(AP)—Stanley Rogers, Brooklyn, N. Y., grappler, won from Ira Dern of Portland on a foul here tonight when Dern refused to break when ordered to do so by the referee, as the men were wrestling against the ropes. Rogers released his hold and Dern picked him up and dropped him on his head. Rogers had taken the first fall in 11 minutes and Dern the second in 19 minutes. They are light heavyweights.

W. U. GRAD TAKE COACHING JOBS

A number of ex-Willamette athletic stars have accepted coaching positions in the northwest. Among them are Verne "Beany" Bain, Clarence "Jeter" Gillette and Bill Vinson, who was student body president in his senior year here, has resigned at Springfield and will coach at Woodburn next year. Vinson will take over "Squint" Dimick's job at Raymond, Wash., while Gillette has accepted a position as coach at Marshfield. Dimick goes to Eugene high school as head coach.

All these men were prominent in athletics and student body affairs in their college days. Vinson, who graduated in '23, was a crack hurdler and also played football. Bain, '23, besides being student body president, was a gridiron man, and Gillette, '22, shone in basketball, baseball and track.

The opinion was handed down in a suit brought by Peder Pederson to test the constitutionality of the legislative act. Mr. Pederson appeared in the suit as an employee and contributor to the industrial accident fund. A similar suit was filed by a number of employers whose workers are protected by the state compensation act.
