

LADY ASTOR TELLS M. P. TO 'SHUT UP'

Jack Jones Retorts by Advising Woman Member to Go Back to America

LONDON, May 18.—(AP)—Lady Astor, during discussion of the government's trade union bill, today had a verbal bout with Jack Jones, the fiery labor member of the house of commons, during which she told him to "shut up" while he told her to go back to America.

Discussions on amendments to the trade union bill which is being bitterly fought by the labor party, was proceeding quietly when the incident occurred. J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the national union of railway men, alluding to the penal provisions of the bill as they affected persons furthering strikes remarked that under the bill Lady Astor would have found herself in jail when she went to Ton-Y-Pandy during the last coal strike in connection with the distress there.

"They said they were starving in Wales," Lady Astor interjected. "I went there to see if it was true and found that it wasn't."

"Having found it wasn't true, you broadcast an appeal for money," Thomas replied.

"I found no starvation, but that there would be distress," was Lady Astor's response.

Thereupon Jones, who last July called Lady Astor a "liar" during debate only to apologize afterward by saying that she was guilty of a "terminological inexactitude" exclaimed: "Your dogs are better fed than the miner's children."

"Shut up!" was the rejoinder of Lady Astor.

"You go back to America—call yourself a lady," answered Jones.

WHISKEY LIMIT OPPOSED

Medical Men Argue That Law Cannot Change Scientific Fact

WASHINGTON, May 18.—(AP)—Acting on the expressed principle that no law can establish a scientific fact, the house of delegates of the American Medical association voted to prepare for submission to congress a bill to remove present restrictions on the amount of whisky a physician may prescribe for his patients.

The proposition was discussed in executive session and the vote was taken up after two hours of debate, which produced a provision that the proposed measure be framed in cooperation with prohibition enforcement authorities.

Prunes Victory

Wash a pound of medium sized prunes, place in casserole or covered jar, pour over a quart of cold water, add a cupful of sugar, small piece of stick cinnamon and one clove. Cover and place in a very slow oven to simmer four hours, adding a little more water as necessary. Remove from oven, add a teaspoonful vanilla. Chill, strain and serve the juice in small glasses, the prunes with the oatmeal.

Parsley Omelet

Beat three eggs without separating to a light froth, add three tablespoonfuls cold water, one-half teaspoonful salt, dash each pepper and paprika. Melt a tablespoonful of butter in a clean smooth skillet or omelet pan, and pour in the liquid. Cook slowly and when almost ready to fold, sprinkle lightly with finely chopped parsley. Fold, slip to hot dish and serve at once.

Cereal with Prunes

Wash, soak and steam a cupful of small prunes, remove pits and cut into pieces. Add to any cooked cereal just before serving.

Bacon Curls

Roll lean bacon sliced rather thicker than usual and fasten with toothpicks, broil or bake in a hot oven till crisp all the way through. Serve on hot platter, with garnish of water cress.

Bran Muffins

Mix and sift together one cup of whole wheat flour, three teaspoonfuls baking powder, one-half teaspoonful salt and two cupfuls bran. Dissolve one-half teaspoonful soda in one and one-half cupfuls sour or butter milk, add half a cupful of molasses and one well beaten egg; beat all the ingredients together and add a table-spoonful of melted butter and one-fourth cupful chopped nut meats. Bake in well buttered muffin pans, in moderate oven twenty-five minutes.

Prunes with Orange Juice

Wash, soak and simmer one-half pound of prunes in one pint of water till partially tender, then add thin yellow rind from one orange and four table-spoonfuls of sugar. Continue cooking until the prunes are done, then add the juice from the orange. Chill well and remove orange peel before serving.

Popovers

Sift then measure and sift again one cupful of flour, to which you have added one-half teaspoonful of salt, add one cupful of milk and beat five minutes with a rotary beater beat two eggs to a stiff froth without separating them, then combine mixtures and beat again two or three minutes. Half fill heated iron or pottery gem pans, and place in a hot oven. Bake twenty minutes.

Fruit Melange

Cut in small pieces one slice canned pineapple, one orange and one cupful cooked prunes, removing the stones. Mix all together, adding enough of the prune juice to moisten well, chill and serve in cocktail glasses, garnishing each with a maraschino cherry.

Codfish Souffle

Soak one-half pound salt codfish, then place in fresh cold water, bring to boiling point and simmer till tender, remove, drain, cool and flake into tiny pieces. Bring one cupful milk to boiling point and add the flaked fish, with pepper and paprika to taste. Blend a tablespoonful each of butter and flour together, add to the fish and beat with an egg beater for two or three minutes. Whip one egg, beat into it one-half cup cream, and whip into the egg. Beat several minutes until light and airy, serve on squares of toast.
