Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney Entertain Senior Class at Annual Party

One of the most noteworthy social affairs in Willamette university circles this week was the annual senior party at which Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney were hosts on May 18 at their home at 828 S. Twelfth street.

Conversation and informal games were the diversions of the evening. The rooms were lovely with early roses and columbine. More than 60 members of the class were present for the evening. Delicious refreshments were served late in the evening. Mrs. Doney was assisted by Mrs. Gustav Ebsen.

Mrs. Frank W. Power Is Hostess for Kensington Group

Mrs. Frank W. Power entertained members of the Kensington club at a delightful meeting Thursday afternoon. The rooms were lovely with snowballs and columbine.

During the afternoon Miss Florence Power, daughter of the hostess, gave two musical numbers. Needlework and conversation were the club diversions. At the tea hour refreshments were served.

In the group were Mrs. F. S. Anusen, Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mrs. George P. Griffith, Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. Charles Hudkins, Mrs. Charles S. Pratt, Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mrs. H. E. Morris and the hostess, Mrs. Frank W. Power.

Professor Petri Will Give Benefit Concert Today in Corvallis

Salem friends of Prof. Paul Petri, head of the OAC Conservatory of Music, will be interested in the benefit concert which he will give in Corvallis this afternoon in the college tea room from 3 to 6 o'clock for the benefit of the scholarship loan fund.

Professor Petri gave the famous song cycle by Von Fellitz, entitled "The Elliland," last year. It is this production which he has been asked to repeat.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Smith Entertain Ladies of the Grand Army

An interesting social meeting was held by the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic and their invited guests Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Smith. The afternoon was enlivened by an unusual fish pond and auction. Mrs. Thelma DuBois gave a group of old fashioned songs. Memorial day and convention plans were discussed and perfected. At the tea hour the hostess served delicious refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Gosser.

Out of town guests for the occasion were Mrs. Ellen Jones of Albany, Mrs. Sarah Churchill of Portland and Mrs. Anna May Baker of Seio.

Members and other guests included Mrs. Sarah Oliver, Mrs. Ruth Dennison, Mrs. Mabel Gearhart, Mrs. Roxy Coulson, Mrs. Thelma DuBois, Mrs. Lena Taylor, Mrs. Mary L. Straw, Mrs. Ardel K. Lawrence, Mrs. Laura Clutter, Grandma Pugh, Mrs. Mary Gosser, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Film at First Congregational Church

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock the six-reel film, "On the Threshold," will be used as the feature of the evening service. This is Willis Hall's dramatic drama of the father who tried to safeguard his daughter's happiness by vowing he would never permit her to marry. Old "Bible Bo," an itinerant servant of God, plays a leading role in the strange story of the father and daughter. It is a beautiful story of love and fate and of faith regained through the influence of a devout Christian man.

Ecclesia Club Initiates Nine New Members at Home of Inez Wood

One of the most delightful meetings in the history of the Ecclesia club was held last Monday night at the home of Miss Inez Wood when Miss Wood, Miss Jessie Miles and Miss Vivian Whistler were hostesses for the nine new initiates of the club and the active members.

Election of officers was an added feature of the evening. Miss Vivian Whistler was re-elected as president; Miss Golda Wheeler was chosen for vice president; Miss Esther Erickson was named secretary, and Miss Bertha Miller treasurer.

The newly chosen members of the club are Myra Chambers, Vivian Oestrich, Mabel Ulrich, Mildred Flagg, Louise Hiller, Leolyn Barnett, Verda Olmstead, Doris Bowden and Gwendolyn Jennings.

The club members present on Monday were Gladys McKee, Esther Erickson, Bertha Miller, Marlowe Miller, Edna Warden, Retta Claggett, Gladys Kafety, Esther Diefenbach, Melba Robinson, Marcella Caspell, Velma Rominger, Ola Volkel, Bernice Strand, Hazel McMorris, Jessie Mills, Flora Turner, Inez Wood and Vivian Whistler.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon W. DuBois Are Hosts at Birthday Surprise

Mrs. E. B. Taylor was the inspiration for an enjoyable birthday party for the first of the week when her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leon W. DuBois were hosts. The affair was a complete surprise to the honor guest.

Five hundred was the diversion of the evening, with the first prize among the ladies going to Mrs. S. M. Willett and the second to Mrs. E. B. Taylor, while the men's first prize was won by E. B. Taylor and the second by A. G. Potter.

In the guest group were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Willett, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Potter, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Davis, Dr. L. B. Schmidt, Mrs. H. A. Fitzgerald, the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Taylor, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Leon W. DuBois.

Delicious birthday refreshments were served late in the evening.

Last Straw

A young country girl was evidently taking her first ride on the train. The conductor came through the car yelling, "Tickets, please," and after some embarrassment she handed him her ticket.

Soon after a train boy came into her car crying, "Chewing gum." The country maid turned to her companion and said, "Goodness, do I have to give up that, too?"
