BRIDGE REPORT READY

Agreement Reached on Specifications for Longview Span

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(AP)—Representatives of the secretaries of war, commerce and agriculture today reached a decision on specifications to be required in the construction of an interstate bridge between Longview, Wash., and Rainier, Or., to span the Clumbia river.

The report will be given to the cabinet members early next week, it was expected, and may be made public at that time.

The three departments were designated by special legislation to supervise plans for the bridge structure.

Meetings were held at Portland and at Longview. No details of the report will be given until the suggestions and recommendations have been voted by the secretaries.

E. Lester Jones and Major R. T. Coiner if the army engineer corps, representing the secretaries of commerce and of war, and Dr. H. B. Humphreys of the bureau of public roads, representing the secretary of agriculture, drew up the report.

JAPANESE PICNIC HELD LAST SUNDAY

Was Held at Lake Brook Farm, With 500 Present, 200 Being Americans

With a fortunate selection of the brightest day thus far this year, the annual Japanese picnic, staged by the vegetable growers of Oregon, was held at Lake Brook farm last Sunday. There were 500 persons in attendance, 200 of whom were Americans, as special guests, and who shared in the sports and refreshments. Ice cream to the value of $50 was purchased and a like amount of soda water, while the prizes for the competitive sports totaled $200.

A Japanese wrestling match was one of the features of the day, with baseball, foot races and other games for the amusement of the crowd. The Labish Meadows Cel-

REPORTS ACCIDENT

"The other fellow was drunk," said Charles Bodine, a Willamette university student, who reported an automobile accident in which he figured, to the police last night. Bodine was going along on State street when a car came out of Waverly without stopping in accordance with the stop-street sign. The car had no lights either, said Bodine, and the car containing two men pulled out from the scene without leaving their names. Bodine's leader was a bit smashed.

HELD FOR SPEEDING

Sam Toevs, 275 North 20, was arrested last night between Church and Capitol on Court street. He was going 38 miles an hour the officers report stated. Toevs will appear in police court to answer to the charge Monday.

PATRIOTIC ORDERS HOLD FINE MEETING

Six Affiliated Organizations Represented at Interesting Program

A well attended meeting of the patriotic orders affiliated with the Grand Army was held last night at the YMCA, with the Sons of Veterans and the Sons of Veterans auxiliary as hosts and hostesses. All six of the affiliated orders were represented, the Grand Army by one member, the Women's Relief Corps by 17, the Ladies of the Grand Army by two, Daughters of Veterans by seven, Sons of Veterans 12, Sons of Veterans Auxiliary 21. Several members of the United Spanish War Veterans and their auxiliary were also present. An interesting program was given, under the direction of Mrs. Waters. The new orchestra from the First Congregational church made its first public appearance, to play three highly appreciated numbers. Mrs. Waters, as director, has made an excellent start for a sterling organization. Miss Elizabeth Waters played a 'cello solo, "Smilin' Through," with Mrs. Waters as accompanist. Mrs. Norma Terwilliger read a patriotic poem, "Bring the Man Up to the Flag," that made a real hit.

Mrs. Huston, Mrs. Nash and Mrs. Arpke gave a vocal trio, "Sweet and Low," that brought good applause. Mr. Waters was the accompanist.

Dr. James Lisle, the one Grand Army veteran present, was called on for a brief talk, which brought out many interesting but little known facts of the great war.

Refreshments were served and a social session for getting acquainted closed the evening. The program was one of a regular series for all the Grand Army organizations, preparatory to the coming of the state convention here in Salem, June 21 to 24.

SPRING COMMENDS NEW USES FOR OUR WANT ADS

IF EVER there was a time when our Want Ads were serviceable, it is now—when the annual orgy of spring cleaning threatens, when houses and gardens must be fitted out for summer, and vacations become a matter of interest. Our Want Ads used at this season will do so many things conveniently and economically. It is in the spring that this great buying and selling medium turns result producing hand springs. Just consider your own program for next week, and if a Want Ad in the classified columns will help you, order it today

THE LONG delayed building boom is close at hand—making a good market for desirable vacant property. Residence lots are especially in demand. To take proper advantage of this condition, property owners should use our Want Ads. This unusually active section carries real estate offerings to thousands of prospective buyers. Returns are certain if you use the real estate classification of our Want Ad section.

DO you ever read the BAR-TER and EXCHANGE columns of the Want Ad section? If not, take a look today. Here is where the canny shopper becomes the canny swapper. A multitude of miscellany greets the wary readers who make good use of this section every day. Every one has something to barter or exchange. Phone in your offerings!

PLAY AROUSES INTEREST SILVERTON, Ore., May 21.—(Special.)—Considerable interest is being shown in "The Whole Town's Talking," the play to be given by the senior class of the Silverton high school.

SPEIGHT FINED F. Scotty Speight, proprietor of Scotty's market on South Twelfth street, was taken in tow by officers last night when two pint bottles of liquor were found in his possession, according to the charge placed against him. He was slightly intoxicated when arraigned before Judge Poulsen and was fined $100.

MOVING from house to apartment, or from one apartment to another, often results in excess furniture which does not fit the new living quarters. Dispose of them through Want Ads. Other families want: odd pieces or entire sets to complete their furnishings, and readily buy used furniture that is suitable, because of the saving it represents. List the pieces you have, give sufficient description and tell in your Want Ad when and where they may be seen and the sale is as good as made!

CAMPERS are already camping at the bit, longing to get out in the "great open spaces." They are also checking up on their equipment—and when they find something missing their first instinct is to turn to our classified columns to fill their needs. If you have any camping equipment to sell—our Want Ads will do it.

WITH better conditions prevalent in the automobile industry, and the excess production of cars being rapidly absorbed—indeed, with even a car shortage possible, it is little wonder that the buying of used cars has become quite brisk again. The USED CAR classification is a great motor mart for this whole territory. Want Ads in this paper have been astonishingly successful of late, especially in the sale of Ford cars. If you have a car to sell, advertise it, order your Want Ad today or tomorrow, then get ready for buyers!

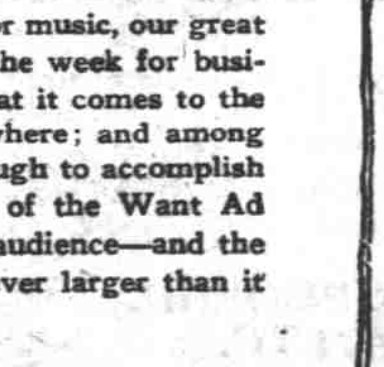

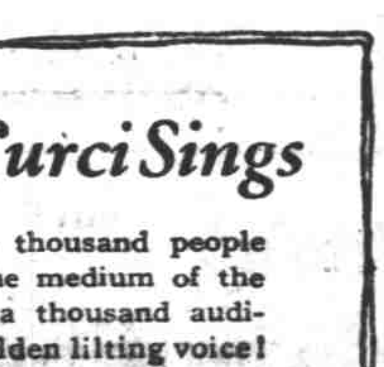

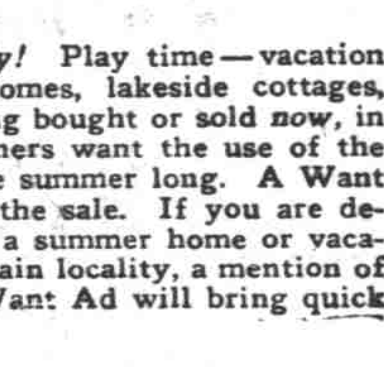

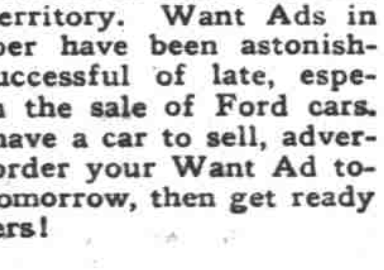

May! June! July! Play time—vacation days! Summer homes, lakeside cottages, camp sites are being bought or sold now, in the Spring, as owners want the use of the property the whole summer long. A Want Ad will facilitate the sale. If you are desirous of securing a summer home or vacation place in a certain locality, a mention of your wants in a Want Ad will bring quick results.

When Galli-Curci Sings her audience is but two thousand people at most. But through the medium of the reproducing phonograph a thousand audiences may be moved at once by her golden lilted voice!

What mechanical reproduction does for music, our great Want Ad section does every day in the week for business. Your want is reproduced so that it comes to the notice of thousands of people everywhere; and among these thousands there are always enough to accomplish the results you want. The efficacy of the Want Ad comes from the acute interest of its audience—and the audience of this great section was never larger than it is today.

Nor was it ever more interested. People in this territory have come to recognize it as the quickest way to sell and the most economical way to sell whatever they want. And among so many readers there are always people who want what you have to sell, who can supply what you want to buy!

Check over our Want Ad section this week. If it produces results for all the advertisers already in it, it can produce for you! A salesman, a messenger, a marketplace, an all around convenience! Don't neglect to use it!

THE TIME to sell a boat or launch is while it's high and dry and the hull can be thoroughly inspected. If you have a slim little single sticker shored up somewhere, or a power boat on the blocks that you will not want this summer, the time to make a quick sale is now. A Want Ad will quickly connect you with yachtsmen prospects.

PARROTS that show off; dogs, from kennel show ribbon holders down to the ordinary no-account kind; cats and kittens; canaries, white mice, gray mice, whirling mice; guinea pigs of all strains, rabbits, gophers or ferrets—all kinds of pet animals can be bought or sold through Want Ads in this paper.
