BEARCATS CHAMPS WESTERN DIVISION

NORTHWEST CONFERENCE STANDINGS

Western Division

W.	L.	Pct.
Willamette	4	1 .800
Linfield	2	1 .667
Pacific	3	2 .600
Puget Sound	0	5 .000

Eastern Division

W.	L.	Pct.
College of Idaho	5	1 .833
Whitman	1	5 .000

That Willamette university has won the western division baseball championship of the northwest conference was announced yesterday by Coach Roy S. Keene, following a consultation with Dean Frank M. Erickson, president of the circuit. Linfield, which was defeated by the Bearcats last week 3 to 0, protested Willamette's claim and asked that another game be played to determine which institution would play College of Idaho for the conference title, but Dean Erickson ruled that this would not be proper.

The northwest conference ruling entered into last year was that each school should play two games with the others in the division, both games of which should count in the standings. Authorities at Linfield apparently overlooked this ruling and arranged only one game against every other conference team. This makes the Willamettes ineligible for the title in spite of the fact that they defeated Puget Sound, and Pacific, losing only the one game to the Bearcats.

Willamette defeated Puget Sound twice, Pacific once, and Linfield once, dropping only one contest to the Badgers. The Bearcats are ahead of the Badgers in percentage totals. Pacific has lost two games.

The Willamette batsmen will leave Monday morning with Coach Keene for Caldwell where they will tangle with the Coyotes to settle superiority in the conference play. The games will be played Wednesday and Thursday there. Tuesday, the team will stop at LaGrande, and play a game against the town team. Coach Keene was at one time manager of a club in that city, and he is to occupy the mound for the locals in an endeavor to strike out some of his former associates.

Little hope is held out for victories over the Idaho Coyotes as they have a wonderful team with a big record. That aggregation won five out of six games played against Whitman college, which has since scored victories over University of Idaho and Washington State college. The Idaho nine has won nearly every game played this year, by comfortable scores.

It is a surprise to local followers of the games that the Willamette nine has done so well this season. Many of the men making up the team had little or no knowledge of the game before they went out this spring, and there are only two or three fellows on the squad who could be called really good players. And when McKezie, Willamette's hope on the mound, and McMullen, one of the heaviest hitters, were declared ineligible it was thought that the Bearcats were through.

Ellis and Ledbetter have pitched right ball in every game and Coach Keene has been able to whip the men into a machine which has won games by "out-smarting" the opponents. The Coyotes, at least, should know they have been in a game before the Bearcats leave for home.

The men who will probably make the trip are Ashby, Dietz, Hood, Kaufman, Welch, Girard, Knott, Robertson, Ellis and Ledbetter.

Stanford Team Winner in Conference Tennis

Henry Neer, playing No. 1 position on the Oregon team, won every singles match he entered and is rated as one of the best net men on the Pacific coast. Roy Oberberg, his team mate, lost to Tubby Ogden, ranking Stanford ace.

WHILE WAITING FOR BIG ONES

While he's waiting for Tex Rickard to chase up the best catch of the heavyweight boxing season Gene Tunney, world's heavy king, is spending most of his time in the north woods to keep in condition. Photo shows him with one of the brook trout pulled out during a day's fishing in the Laurentian Mountains, northwest of Montreal.

THE OLD MASTER HAS A PUPIL

And there are those followers of the Athletics who predict that Al Simmons, already a good natural hitter, will develop into one of the game's greatest stars under the guidance of Ty Cobb, 12 years battling champ of his league and holder of most of the batting records of the game outside Babe's home run marks. For Cobb has already helped his younger teammate by getting him to vary his stance for various pitchers.

FIRST ALL-PACIFIC MEET DRAWS HUGE ENTRY

The annual Pacific coast track and field meet, heretofore confined to the nine schools of the conference is an open affair this year for the first time, and although the entry lists for the meet June 3-4 do not close until next Saturday, 19 colleges have entered teams. Not only sectional but national and world marks are liable to fall due to the presence of such record holders as Charlie Borah, Leo Barnes and others in the meet. Above are four of the stars entered. Biff Hoffman is a discus star with Stanford, "Nibb" Hill a pole vaulter with California; Gillette, captain and mile runner with Montana, and Charteris, an 880-yard star with University of Washington.

CAMAS AND SALEM IN TIE FOR THIRD

PORTLAND CITY LEAGUE

Games Today
 Salem vs. Camas, at Oxford Park, 2:30 p. m.
 Montavilla vs. Nicolai, at the Vaughn street grounds.
 St. Johns vs. Woodstock, at Wall street.
 Mt. Scot vs. W. O. W. 77, at Kendall station.

That long delayed battle between the Salem Senators and their former team mate, Jimmy Burton's Camas outfit, is scheduled to be played today, and prospects Saturday night were that the weather man would permit the game to be played.

This game is hoped to be a tough one for the Senators for two reasons, aside from Camas' general strength. The first is that Burton will be behind the bat, telling his pitcher what to feed his former associates that they don't like; the other is that the aforesaid pitcher will be Tom Gressett, who has always been a hard man for the Senators to cope with.

If anything more were needed to make it a hot battle, additional inducement would be found in the fact that the two teams that meet here today at 2:30 are tied for third place in the Portland City league race, and that the winner of this game will take a firmer grasp on that rung of the ladder and be in a commanding position to shoot at the leaders—Montavilla and St. Johns.

OLD PING BODIE REJOINS SEALS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—(AP)—Ping Bodie, great outfielder of other years whose terrific hitting made baseball history for the San Francisco Seals as early as 1909, Friday rejoined the same club that started him on the road to fame nearly two decades ago. He signed a contract here, the third time his name has been attached to a Seal contract.

Herby Pennock has gone into the poultry business again. Will get $20,000 a year from Jake Ruppert for delivering goose eggs.
