

DELIGHTS OF THE STAGE AND SCREEN

Oregon Theater General Lew Wallace's "Ben Hur: A Tale of the Christ" that was a stage spectacle twenty-two years and as a book enjoyed a circulation as large as the Bible...

The celebrated Antioch chariot race, in which Ben-Hur and Messala contest for the palm, occupied three months in the making. Twelve quadrigas are driven seven laps over a course facing a Circus Maximus that holds nearly a hundred thousand spectators.

The final scenes deal with Ben-Hur's assembling of legions in the plain to establish a kingdom of Judea, the discovery of his long lost mother and sister in the Vale of Hinnom, the procession of Palm Sunday, and the healing of the sick ones by the Saviour, whereby Ben-Hur and his beloved Esther and kinfolk are reunited.

In a grandiose epic that has taken three years for its completion and included as many as 100 adventures as a historic Odyssey of the Old and New Worlds, Ramon Novarro (in the title role), Betty Bronson, May McAvoy, Francis X. Bushman, Carmel Myers, Claire McDowell, Kathleen Key, Nigel de Bruiler, Mitchell Lewis and Frank Currier have prominent parts.

The address of the evening was given by Mr. Poling. He emphasized the importance of cooperation and all working toward a greater Willamette valley.

The Farm Relations committee of the Salem Kiwanis club attended this meeting. Dr. Henry E. Morris and Mr. Chambers gave short talks. Arrangements were made for a meeting of the committee with the clubs on June 2.

MRS. CARRIE TOWN AND FAMILY LEAVE

Six People Form Compact to Spend Year in Oregon; May Return BROOKS, May 25.—(Special).—About a year ago a mutual agreement was entered into by a party of six viz: Mrs. Carrie Town, Miss Tressie L. Town, Miss Myrtle Town, Mrs. Elsie Phillips, (Mrs. Town's daughter), also her son-in-law) George Phillips and Dr. Ida B. Peppers, as follows: "We will drive through to Oregon, stay a year, and then return to Ohio."

They came, they saw, they like Oregon, and located at Brooks—where they all—the ladies, no donned overalls or coveralls, went into the hop yards and worked like men.

Miss Tressie secured the primary room at the Brooks public school, district 31; Mrs. Elsie Phillips secured the school at Champeog, district No. 22; George Phillips secured truck driving and farm work, and Miss Myrtle secured the position as bookkeeper for the Labish Meadows Celery union—these positions were all filled with credit to the employees and with satisfaction to their respective employers.

Friday, May 20, the last day of Principal H. M. Cline-Smith's and Miss Tressie L. Town's schools at Brooks, district No. 31, a few leaders planned a farewell surprise party to be held at the school. Mrs. Town and family, a large crowd attended. The fore part of the evening was spent in games in the basement by the young folks in visiting, and sociability by the older ones, and a hasty impromptu program was made up from among the numerous guests present, consisting of songs, readings, recitations and speeches by various ones.

Miss Helen McMillan, who taught school here, left for her home in Portland. Miss Laura Cammack was home over the week-end.

LEAVE FOR NEW YORK CITY SILVERTON, Or., May 26.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Herrigstad left this week by automobile for New York city where they will leave their cars and go by steamer to Norway. They expect to be gone six months.
