oring the ladies of the congrega- tion who are more than 80 years of age was the group of songs which Mrs. Elsie De Vine gave. The group was particularly pleased with the favorite, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," with which Mrs. De Vine opened her share of the program.

Mrs. De Vine has recently come to Salem from Denver, Colo., and her talent is rapidly finding recognition. On Mother's day Mrs. De Vine sang pleasingly at the Elsinore theater. On Wednesday, at Mrs. Kanter's, when Mrs. De Vine sang, she wore the wedding dress and bonnet which her mother wore 75 years ago.

The 13 honor guests were seated as for school, with Mrs. Allen H. Dodd, in her incomparable manner, presiding as school mistress.

OUR LONG DISTANCE CALLS SPEEDED UP

Innovations of Salem Local Telephone Office Save Time and Money

An innovation has just been introduced in Salem which will materially speed up long distance telephone connections with other points in this vicinity. Arrangements have been completed by the telephone company so that "information" will when requested give the telephone numbers of persons or firms listed in other leading centers of the Pacific northwest with which Salem has frequent conversations.

Manager C. C. Aller says the method works this way: If the business man or resident calling from here can give the number with which he desires to talk in another city, his call goes through quickly. If he does not know the out-of-town number. All he now has to do is to call "information" and ask for it. "Information" will give it to him.

Saves Time and Money Then, having obtained the number, he can proceed to place the call in the usual way. By making a practice of using numbers in requesting long distance connections, time and money will be saved the patron, according to Mr. Aller, and the result will be a more profitable use of the telephone service.

"We are putting this convenience at the disposal of the telephone users of this city," said Mr. Aller, "because we know, from the studies we have made, that the customer who gives the number in placing his long distance calls, quickly recognizes the advantage of doing so. We are endeavoring to make it as simple and easy as possible for him to secure the number before calling."

Another New Thing This innovation is in addition to the new operating feature which permits calling Albany, Dallas, Independence, Monmouth, and Silverton telephones without the necessity of calling "long distance," on "station to station" calls, a practice which was instituted recently. Both innovations are designed to speed up the service from Salem to other points. The main difference between them is that calls to Albany, Dallas, Independence, Monmouth and Silverton are placed through the local operator, while calls to other points are to be placed by number through the long distance operator when the number has been ascertained from "information."

BOY SCOUT BENEFIT PROGRAM COMING

Local Talent to Stage Show at Capitol; Parrish School at Elsinore

Tentative programs for the benefit scout performances at the two theaters Thursday, June 2, were announced last night by Barney Wright, Valley Motor company, who is in charge of arrangements for the events. The benefit shows will take the place of the annual boy scout drive for funds to carry on the season's activities.

At the Capitol theater local talent vaudeville will be featured. Dancers from Mrs. R. L. White's dancing school are to be the big item on the bill, with a quartet from the state house, solos by E. E. Kennell, and stunts by artists from St. Joseph's Parish are among the other numbers listed. The program is not complete, and an effort is being made to secure some talent from Willamette university to take part.

Pupils at Parrish junior high school will have the entire program at the Elsinore for the evening. They will present the pleasing Cinderella cantata. This cantata was put on at the Parrish auditorium about a month ago and there have been continued requests for a return performance.

All the money which is taken in at these shows will be used to further boy scout activities and to make up the deficit in the scout treasury. Boy scouts are now selling tickets and the purchaser may choose the performance he wishes to attend later.

FILING PERIOD CLOSES TODAY FOR ELECTION (Continued from page 1.) charge. In addition to any referendum measures that may be completed by petitions, 10 constitutional amendments and measures approved by the 1927 legislature will be on the ballot at the special election next month.

Income Tax Considered The most important of these is the state income tax bill which was referred by the legislature at the request of Governor Patterson. The maximum levy under this measure is 3 per cent. Single persons are exempted from payment of the tax in the amount of $1,000; married persons, $2,000, and for each dependent the amount $500.

Legislators Pay Up There also will appear on the ballot an amendment fixing the compensation of legislators at a figure not to exceed $10 a day, for any regular or special session. The compensation of any legislator for one regular or special session shall not exceed $400.

Oppose "Swearing In" Approval of another amendment would bar from voting at any primary or general election any person who had not previously registered. It was said that this amendment was intended to do away with the blank A, which provides means for swearing in a voter not registered on election day.

Oppose Pay Boosts State or county elective officers shall be allowed to receive increases in compensation during term for which he was elected, unless another amendment provides otherwise. This amendment was intended to prevent the various grange organizations from voting at any primary or general election.
