In buying a tractor it is not advisable for the farmer to select a machine much larger than his farm operations will require. The earlier machines unquestionably were too large for many of the farms upon which they were used. It is now possible to buy a tractor of a size suited to the farm and the work there is to do.

No Ugly Ducklings

A monopoly on good looks seems to be held by the family of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Alexander, of Charlotte, N. C. Recently Alice, 12, was chosen the prettiest child in the junior high school there and her brother, Frank, 15, has been chosen the handsomest boy in the same school. A brother, Thomas, 17, received that honor last year. Neighbors say if beauty contests were held in the second grade, Syd, 7, would carry off the title.

Clarion Rules Made By Outgoing Editor

System of Reports on Financial Condition to Be Started

To place the managerial end of the Clarion, weekly newspaper at Salem high school, on a more stable basis, the student council yesterday, on the recommendation of Bob Bishop, Clarion editor, drew up some rules which will go into force next year.

The rules provide that the Clarion manager shall be required to submit a monthly report to the council, showing the definite status of accounts and that the student body treasurer shall be responsible for seeing that these reports are forthcoming. It is also provided that the manager shall be placed under a bond of $1500.

Gold pins to designate membership on the student council will be given each year, it was decided. Members of the council this year, who will receive the award are Harold Adams, Dwight Adams, Robert Bishop, Ed Fisher, and Howard Kurtz for the seniors; Floyd Albin, Marvin Headrick, Ed Nash, and Eloise White for the juniors; and Gerald Simpson and Maxine Meyers for the "rooks."

COYOTES TAKE CHAMPIONSHIP
Caldwell, Idaho, May 27.—(AP)—The College of Idaho Coyotes won the baseball championship of the Pacific northwest conference here today by taking their second game, 10 to 5, from the Pacific university nine, western division champions.
