A Statement of Facts

Since its inception the firm of G. W. Johnson and Co. have made it a cardinal point at all times to offer men's and young men's clothing, furnishings and hats of the highest type and at moderate prices and built up their wonderful business to what it is today. One of the best equipped and stocked men's stores on the coast and each season has seen our business increase necessitating larger purchases; and in anticipation of this increase we bought accordingly but owing to a decidedly backward season we are so heavily stocked with merchandise that it would take months to dispose of same through the regular business channels, so we are forced to take this drastic method and throw discretion to the winds and forget all about loss in order to convert this great surplus stock into cash within the next ten days. So don't miss it. Be here when the doors open.

The unusual feature of this sale is the remarkable newness of this merchandise and no more exclusive models can be found in any city on the coast. Adhering to our policy not to carry merchandise over from one season to another compels us semi-annually to dispose of stock on hand. But this season we over bought and are forced to dispose of this surplus stock, now, therefore we are going to disregard all former cost to accomplish our purpose.
