Pantomime—"Hans, Who Made the Princess Laugh."
Story of the play: There was once a very sad princess who never could be made to smile. At last the king in despair decreed that he who could make the princess laugh should not only win her hand but be heir to half the kingdom as well. Many came before the castle wall to try their luck, but none could win her. Hans, the peasant, watched with the other villagers, and was angry at the treatment given a poor old beggar by the guards and those who failed. He offered her what little he had, whereupon she gave him a magic golden goose, for in truth she was a fairy. Now, when the people saw that marvelous goose they tried to pluck its feathers, but no sooner had they touched it or anyone holding Hans' goose, than they found themselves unable to break away. When the princess saw Hans and his long trail of unwilling followers, including many who had tried for her hand, she laughed till the king thought she would never stop! Of course, Hans won the prize.

GORDON WINS FIRST IN HYMN READING
Student Body Officers Elected at Kimball School of Theology

George Gordon, Kimball student and pastor of the Methodist church at Sheridan won first place in the scriptures and hymn reading contest held in Kimball hall yesterday afternoon as part of the graduation exercises of the school.

Mrs. Irene J. Hart, of Shedd, won second place. There were six entries in the contest.

Further exercises for the afternoon included a fellowship and communion service conducted by President Canse, and an election of student body officers for next year.

Those elected were: Wayne Wright, president; Mrs. Alta Contry, vice president; C. A. Pickering, secretary of prayer meetings; R. H. Hart, secretary; H. H. Allen, treasurer, and George Gordon, sergeant at arms.

An enjoyable social feature of the program took place last evening with the reception to alumni, students, trustees, faculty, and friends, given by President and Mrs. John M. Canse. A large number of Salem people were present, taking this last opportunity to pay their respects to the students and members of the faculty and graduating class before the close of school for the season.

Activities taking place today, which will bring the three-day commencement program to a close include an alumni business meeting at 9:30 a. m., the annual meeting of the board of trustees at 10:30 a. m., the graduation exercises in Kimball hall at 2:30, with Rev. J. C. Harrison, pastor of the Centenary-Wilbur Methodist church of Portland, giving the address, and the alumni banquet at 6 p. m., in the Leslie church parlors.

STUDENTS CHOSEN TO HONORARY BODY
Evidence of the fact that scholarship is not entirely incompatible with student activities came today with the announcement of the list of Willamette university seniors elected to Alpha Kappa Nu, local honorary scholarship fraternity. Nearly all of those on the list have taken a prominent part in one or more student body activities during their college years.

Those chosen by the faculty committee of the university this year were Joel Borremann, Philomath, student body president, Thespian and debater; Daryl Chapin, Salem, senior scholar in physics and member of the glee club; Irene Clark, Portland, women's varsity tennis star; Ruth Drew, Prosser, Wash., president of Lausanne Hall club; Mary Erickson, Salem, student assistant in biology; James McClintock, Roseburg, Y. M. C. A. president, Thespian, and debater; Eleanor Merewether, Portland, president of Adelante literary society; Hazel Newhouse, Newberg, women's varsity debater; Sadie Jo Read, Portland, student body vice president, senior scholar in French, and Thespian; and Rose Wetherell, senior scholar in history and member of the writers' club.

Elections to Alpha Kappa Nu are based on high scholarship and character, and are limited to not more than 15 per cent of the graduating class each year.

IS A HEALTHIER STRONGER GIRL

Because She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The fertile valleys of Oregon help to supply the tables of America. This is possible thru the magic of the humble tin can.

In one of the canning establishments, Julia Schmidt was employed. It was complicated work because she did sealing and other parts of the work. It was strenuous work and she was not a strong girl. Often she forced herself to work when she was hardly able to sit at her machine. At times she would have to stay at home for she was so weak she could hardly walk. For five years she was in this weakened condition.

She tried various medicines. At last a friend of hers spoke of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Miss Schmidt gave it a trial.

"Everyone says I am a healthier and stronger girl," she writes. "I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to all my friends who tell me how they suffer and I am willing to answer letters from women asking about it." Julia Schmidt's address is 113 Willow St
