For her going-away dress Mrs. Ellis wore a smart model in delicate rosewood georgette.

Box Luncheon at Illahee Country Club Tomorrow Night Will Attract Many

What will probably be one of the most enjoyable affairs listed on the social calendar this week is the box supper and informal evening of dancing and cards which will take place Thursday night at the club house.

Every lady and girl of the club is urged to bring a basket for the auction, enclosing her name in her box. Beverages will be served during the evening. Following the box dinner, dancing and cards will be enjoyed.

The lunch baskets will be auctioned at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. John Bayne Will Entertain South Section of Woman's Union

Members of the South section of the Woman's union of the First Congregational church will meet at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Bayne. Sewing will be in order during the day.

Visitors at N. C. Kafoury Home Are From Spokane

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Kafoury have had for several days as house guests Mr. A. Scroggin and daughter, Miss Arta Scroggin, of Spokane. The Scroggins are returning home after a most interesting motor trip through the south. The past ten months have been spent leisurely driving, visiting the scenes of Mr. Scroggin's boyhood and college days; also visiting relatives and friends in Florida.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Meet
Silver Bell circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, met last Friday night with a large number in attendance. The annual memorial service was solemnized. The audience was charmed with a beautiful solo by Mrs. Teesen. The drill team sponsored an exhibition drill in a very creditable manner. The juveniles staged a practice drill, preparatory to their visit in Silverton Saturday night.

Annual Exhibit at Blind School to Open Tomorrow

The annual exhibit at the state school for the blind will open tomorrow and continue through Friday. Many interesting articles made by students of the school will be on display in the gymnasium.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Comedy "Applesauce" Meets With Much Approval

The dress rehearsal of the comedy, "Applesauce," which will be presented on Friday evening, June 10, at the Capitol theater, was a complete success. The play is one which is simply effervescent with comedy.

The characters are extremely well cast; the play as a whole one of the best local productions of the year.

Those who motored to the boys' training school near Turner where the dress rehearsal performance was given on Monday evening, included Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jeldirka, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. Ray L. Farmer and Mrs. S. M. Endicott. The play, which will take place on Friday, is being sponsored by the Willamette chapter of the Red Cross.

Practical Nurses' Association Will Meet Tomorrow

The Practical Nurses' association will meet at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon on Marion Square, or in case of rain, at the home of Mrs. Rubeck, 545 North 21st, in a special meeting for reception of new members and consideration of unfinished business. Promptness is urged to allow time for the social program which has been planned.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Beard Motor to Los Angeles

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Beard left yesterday morning by motor for Los Angeles to attend the national convention of the Pacific Woodman Life association. Mr. Beard is state manager for the Pacific association.

Mrs. Beard will attend the national convention of the Woodman circle which opens in joint session with the Pacific Woodman Life association on June 13.

There's To Be a Fashion Show Today at Miller's

JUANELLA FROCKS

Exclusively In Salem At Miller's will be modeled to music from 12:00 to 12:30 and 3:00 to 3:30

Perhaps you will wonder why all this excitement about mere house frocks . . . come and see them modeled and you will instantly know why they are worthy of all this bother. They are as carefully made as silk frocks and most practical, too (though we confess that they don't look it) . . . for all fabrics are of highest quality and all are fast color.

Daytime Dresses that are different & inexpensive too!

100 Juanelle Frocks $1.95

Juanella Frocks 100 to sell for $2.95

For every mood . . . gay with bright colors and quiet with soft tintings. Dimitties that effect quaint basque styles . . . soisettes that adopt scalloped tiers . . . and prints that need only hemstitching or a combined color for trimming.

At Miller's Dress Section
Juanella Frocks in styles that mark them chic for street wear $3.95 and set them far above the general run of cotton frocks at any place near the price. Note the clever way a soisette frock uses organdie bands and an apron front edged with lace . . . how a print model trims its pockets and collar and cuffs with lace . . . little things most truly, but the things that make this collection outstanding. See them displayed on lovely models . . . to the strain of lilting music.

Come to the Fashion Show!
Miss West, Representing Juanella Frocks, Will Be Present to Give Lecture Upon These Dresses
