Daughters of American Revolution Observe Flag Day and Install Officers

Observance of flag day and the installation of officers made up the program of yesterday's meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which was held at the home of Mrs. Seymour Jones on the River Road. A picnic luncheon at 1 o'clock was served on the porch and lawn of the country home.

The flag day program, annually given by the group, was featured this year by a reading, "The Making of the Flag," given by James G. Heltzel, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Molly Styles.

Mrs. Seymour Jones, past state regent, presided at the installation. Those installed were Mrs. Homer Goulet to succeed Mrs. C. C. Clark, who has held the office of chapter regent for the past two years; Mrs. W. H. Byrd, vice-regent; Ruth Rullison, secretary; Mrs. J. G. Heltzel, treasurer; Miss Morris, registrar; Mrs. W. E. Han-son, librarian, and Mrs. Blanche Eakin director.

Those attending yesterday's meeting from Chemeketa chapter, which now includes both Salem and Dallas members of the organization, were Ida R. Scofield Parko, Blanche Eakin, Mrs. Harry T. Love, Mrs. Angella Holmstrom, Mrs. Frances Connell, Mrs. C. H. Best, Wilma E. Orr, Mrs. W. C. Byrd, Mrs. C. B. Sundkeg, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. Karl Steiwer, Ruth Rullison, Mrs. Caroline Underhill, Mrs. James G. Heltzel, Mrs. La Moine R. Clark, Lillian G. Applegate, Marguerite Looney, Mrs. J. Lyman Steed, Mrs. Joseph S. Sibley, Mrs. Charles C. Campbell, Mrs. Cora E. Boyer, Nina McNary, Mrs. W. T. Stolz, Helen Litchfield, Mrs. Bertha M. Jans, Esther Morris, Mrs. Harriet Jeanne Rigelman, Mrs. Mollie Styles, Ola L. Clark, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Alton Hurley, Mrs. Hoffnell, Mrs. A. L. Hurley, Mrs. Lewis Mills, Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. U. G. Shipley and Mrs. Seymour Jones.

Guests attending the luncheon and program from other chapters were Mrs. Fred B. Sackett, Mrs. Walter C. Miller, Mrs. Jesse T. Irvine, Mrs. J. L. Shumaker, Mrs. H. B. Cartledge, Mrs. E. C. Apperson and Mrs. James Kurwood of the Y. W. I. I. chapter of McMinnville; Isaac Lee Patterson of the Multnomah chapter of Portland and honorary member of Chemeketa chapter; Mrs. Evelyn H. Hoover of Roseburg, Mrs. O. P. Hoff of Multnomah, Bertha M. Guffin of Tuscon, Ariz., and Miss Josephine Turner and Mrs. C. F. Turner, visitors.

It was intended that several past regents' pins should be presented as a feature of yesterday's program, but because of their failure to arrive, the presentation will take place at a future meeting of the group.

Kenneth Allen to be Presented in Recital
French and Italian songs, negro spirituals, modern compositions, and character songs make up the unusual repertoire of Kenneth Allen, 18 year old Salem tenor who will be presented in recital by Miss Minnie Magers at the First Baptist church Friday evening, June 17.

The young singer has made himself one of the best known of the younger musicians of the state, appearing in many programs in both Salem and Portland. He was formerly soloist with the Whitney boys' chorus, and is well known as a radio performer. When seven years old he appeared before eastern musicians, and his clear soprano voice was used in Victrola renditions.

He was a member of this year's graduating class of Salem high school, where he has been president of the student body for the past year, and at a recent convention of high school student body officers, held at the University of Oregon, he was elected president of the state association of student body presidents for the coming year. He plans to enter the University of Oregon in the fall.

Miss Mildred Roberts, violinist, and Clarence Wenger, pianist, will assist Mr. Allen Friday evening. Mr. Wenger will give two piano solos, and Miss Roberts will play
