

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE STAGE AND SCREEN

Oregon Theater
Using the same ingenious devices for creating suspense which have already won him everlasting fame, Herbert Brenon has taken Dixie Willson's tale of the New Orleans Mardi Gras, "God Gave Me Twenty Cents," and turned it into such a film as should make even the author's heart beat with pride. Paramount's production which shows at the Oregon theater today, is comparable to the best pictures which have so far been produced and because of it, both director and cast are destined to garner much praise.

W. Matthes Elected as School Director

W. A. Munger Re-elected Clerk For 25th Consecutive Term

PERKINS SCHOOL, June 21.—(Special)—At a well attended school meeting held Monday evening, district No. 102, Perkins school, elected Willard Matthes school director in place of Addison Page, whose term had expired. W. A. Munger was re-elected clerk for the 25th year of continuous service in this capacity. The school board now consists of Jesse Matthis, George Campbell, and Willard Matthes. According to present plans, the building will be put in thorough repair, both inside and out, resurfaced, and everything put in order for fall opening of this fine old school. Miss Ina Delle Koon will have charge of Perkins school again this year.

full justice. Miss Moran plays the young wife who falls in love with an unscrupulous sailor, for all its worth. Mulhall is the gob who loved as he gambled, not too wisely but too much. The vamp of "Variety" has her best part since coming to America, as the woman who placed her happiness on the flip of two coins—which she knew were crooked. Collier enacts a different sort of "heavy" after a series of hero roles. As for the story—it is a rich, colorful fair in which Mulhall marries the little girl he'd met during the Mardi Gras carnival, only to have his home broken up by a former sweetheart who walks into his life, and then refuses to leave it.

offer and commend the jury for their conscientious conclusions. The court discharged the jury, after thanking them for their service. Exceptions to the instructions of the court were filed by the defense, after the jury had retired.

While Ray and Roy DeAutrement were being arraigned, the aged bailiff reported that the jury had arrived at a verdict. They were hustled from the courtroom, and into their cells. Hugh was rushed back to court.

The brothers, who have not seen each other since the tunnel robbery, did not see each other today, though all three were under the same jail roof. Their first meeting will be when they are taken north Saturday, under heavy guard.

The trial of Hugh DeAutrement, lasted 15 days. The verdict was no surprise as public opinion forecast it accurately, when the arguments began Monday.

And, the public received calmly the conclusion of another chapter "in that affair upon the hill," as the detectives working on the case have called it.

POLK COUNTY CLUBS TO PICNIC TONIGHT

Second Annual Affair of Federated Organizations to Be at Rickreall

The second annual Polk County Federated clubs picnic will be held in the Grove at Rickreall this evening starting at 6 o'clock, according to J. R. Beck, general chairman of the picnic committee.

The Polk County Federated clubs is made up of representatives of each of 20 organizations in all parts of Polk County including granges, Farmers' unions, community clubs and chambers of commerce. Therefore it is expected that there will be a large turnout at the picnic this evening.

Mrs. A. E. Utley of Brush College, Mrs. T. J. Edwards of Mouth and Mrs. Abigail Watt of Falls City make up the program committee and according to word from these ladies the program will consist largely of musical numbers put on by a chorus representing the best voices from each organization in the county.

Frank Farmer of Rickreall and Hugh Black of Dallas are a committee to have a large bonfire on the coffee detail to prepare "the hot and dirty" for the folks in attendance. Everyone takes their own picnic dinner and these will be eaten around the camp fire beginning at about 6:30.

Last year a crowd of about two hundred attended the first picnic of this kind and this year with prospects for good weather a much larger attendance is hoped for.

DIRECTORS REELECTED

(Special).—School election held Monday was particularly quiet, only 25 votes being cast for Carl Loe and Ed Geer who were re-elected to the school board. They had no opposition.

TO CELEBRATE 75TH YEAR OF A CHURCH

First Congregational People of Salem to Have Diamond Jubilee

The First Congregational church of Salem was organized by Rev. J. W. Goodell on July 4th, 1852, with four members, I. N. Gilbert, Mrs. Marietta Gilbert, his wife, Mrs. L. L. Williams and Albert Fellows. Ever since then this church has carried on its Christian work in Salem and next July 4th, will mark its 75th anniversary. Its members and friends plan to commemorate the 75th birthday of this church next Sunday, June 26. Twenty-five years ago from July 6-10, 1902, the fiftieth anniversary was celebrated. At that time there were many present who were residents of Oregon when the church was first organized.

but few if any of these now remain. However, there are many here who were present 25 years ago and there are still a number here who sang in the church choir over fifty years ago. It is expected that these old time singers will again sing in the choir next Sunday. During these 75 years this church has been led by men of deep faith and high Christian ideals, bringing many into the Christian life, and spreading the gospel of love and service in the community.

A powerful drama of those who play and those who pay.
