Chadwick Chapter of Eastern Star Has Delightful Evening
Members of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, spent a delightful evening in the rooms of the Masonic temple Tuesday, June 21. Canteenery bells and margarites were arranged attractively about the rooms.

Mr. William Marshall, worthy patron, gave a report of the grand chapter meeting held in Portland June 13-18. Mrs. Steven Chadwick, most worthy grand matron of the Eastern Star, was the honor guest at the Portland assembly. Mrs. Chadwick is the daughter-in-law of the late Governor Chadwick, after whom the local chapter was named. She will visit in Salem in the fall, and plans are being made for her reception here.

At the close of the chapter meeting a most delightful program of music was offered. Edward Fisher, popular young singer of Salem, who was a member of this year's Salem high school gradu-

TWO HOMES MADE HAPPY

By Women Who Used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I think it is the most wonderful medicine I ever tried," is the statement made by Mrs. Goldie Shoup of St. Joseph, Illinois. She declares that after taking the Compound she is in better health than before.

Mrs. J. Storms of 28 Lane Street, Paterson, N. J., writes: "I can not speak too highly of your medicine and I recommend it to all my friends." These statements were taken from two enthusiastic letters which tell of the help that has been received from using the Vegetable Compound. Both Mrs. Shoup and Mrs. Storms were in a run-down condition which caused them much unhappiness. When women are suffering from weakness and from weakness, their lives and that of their families is affected. When they feel well and strong and are able to do their household work easily, happy homes are the result.

ating class and pupil of Prof. R. W. Hans Seitz, gave two bass solos, the aria from "The Magic Flute," by Mozart, and "Tommy Lad," by Murgesson. He replied with an encore, "Dunna." He was accompanied by Mr. Seitz. Mr. Seitz also sang three numbers, "Traumerel," by Schumann, "The Land of the Sky Blue Waters," by Cadman, and an encore, "German Peasants' Dance," by Schlemmiller. Mr. Seitz was accompanied by Miss Marguerite Bloomberg. An interesting part of the program also was the whistling solo by M. J. Wilbur. Miss Mildred Hansen accompanied Mr. Wilbur.

Chemeketa Chapter Members Guests of McMinnville Group
Yamhill chapter. Daughters of the American Revolution, entertained members of the organization from the Salem Chemeketa chapter, the Lewis and Clark chapter at Oregon City, and a number of matrons from Newberg who will organize a chapter there in the very near future.

Eight matrons of Chemeketa chapter were among the guests. They were Mrs. Homer Goulet, chapter regent; Mrs. W. H. Byrd, vice chapter regent; Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. C. C. Best, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Miss Lillian Applegate, state historian, and Mrs. Frances Cornell.

Covers were placed for fifty guests for the luncheon, which was served on the lovely, large veranda of the E. C. Apperson home in McMinnville. It had originally been planned that the affair should take the form of a picnic, but because of the coolness of the day the order of the luncheon was altered.

Readings, songs and short talks by the guests made up the program for the afternoon, and Mrs. E. C. Apperson, treasurer of the Yamhill chapter, served as chairman during the afternoon.

Schubert and Nevin Overtures to Sing Saturday Night; Other Artists Appear

An attractive feature of the joint program to be given by the Schubert Overture of Salem and the Nevin Overture of Portland on Saturday evening at the First Baptist church comes to add interest to the announcement of the concert. The widely successful Russian folk song, "The Volga Boatman," has been arranged exclusively for the two overtures by Daniel H. Wilson of Portland; and will be the last number on the evening's program. The number was sung by them on the Oregon composers' program presented several months ago in the Portland auditorium. Following this first presentation by the overtures many requests have been received by choral societies for copies of the arrangement, but none have been granted as yet.

Salem Women Return From State Conference at Eugene

Delegates representing the First Methodist and Leslie M. E. churches of Salem have returned from a recent trip to Eugene where they spent Tuesday and Wednesday attending the 41st annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Oregon conference.

Six ladies from Salem were re-elected to the offices of the conference which they have been holding during the past year. They are Mrs. C. J. Kent, Mrs. E. E. Gilbert, Mrs. C. J. Swafford, Mrs. H. Durkheimer, Mrs. E. C. Miller and Mrs. J. W. De Yoe.

The ladies of the First Methodist church gave an interesting demonstration of a busy day for the secretary of the Old People's home, which brought out the work done by the home.

Those making the trip to Eugene from the First Methodist church were Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Mrs. C. J. Kent, Mrs. E. E. Gilbert, Mrs. C. J. Swafford, Mrs. B. Blatchford, Mrs. H. Durkheimer, Mrs. E. C. Miller, Mrs. J. H. Baker, Mrs. C. M. Keeler and Miss Kaeter. From the Leslie church the delegates were Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mrs. J. W. De Yoe and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot.

Miss Barbara Shanks Attends C. P. S.

Miss Barbara Shanks, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Shanks, is attending the summer session of the College of Puget Sound in Tacoma. During the last school year Miss Shanks was a student at the University of Oregon, where she is a member of Delta Zeta sorority. Her first two years of college work were taken at the College of Puget Sound. Miss Shanks will return to her home in Salem about the middle of August, and plans to teach in McMinnville next year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gillette Are Week-End Guests

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gillette (Lorrel Blatchford) were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Blatchford's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford. Mr. and Mrs. Gillette were on their way from Portland where Mr. Gillette has been athletic instructor in the Roosevelt high school there. At present they are both taking work at the summer session of the University of Oregon, and in the fall will make their home in Marshfield where Mr. Gillette will be principal of the high school.

Guests at Bartruff Home

Miss Thelma Bestler, Miss Bernice Olsen and Miss Helen Pangborn, all teachers in Tacoma, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bartruff over the last week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Bartruff and three guests motored to Corvallis Sunday where the three teachers will take work in the Oregon Agricultural college summer session. Mr. and Mrs. Bartruff and daughter, Mrs. John Tweed, motored to Portland Monday where they were the guests at the Frank Quigley home.

Miss Christabel Jewett Leaves for Extended Eastern Trip

Miss Christabel Jewett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jewett, 1206 North 16th street, and Miss Elina Keckritz of Portland left Wednesday for a two months' trip in the east. They will visit Chicago and other mid-western cities of the United States before going north into Canada. They will go up the St. Lawrence and Hudson rivers, returning to New York, Washington, D. C., and other towns of interest on the Atlantic seaboard. They will make their return trip through the Panama canal, landing in California, and expect to return home about August 22. Both Miss Jewett and Miss Keckritz are teachers in Portland.

Polk County Federated Clubs Hold Picnic

Over 300 persons were present at the picnic given by the Federated clubs of Polk county at the Rickreall picnic grounds Wednesday evening. A program of short talks, music and readings was arranged for the evening's entertainment.

Mr. Foster, of the land settlement department of Portland, was the main speaker of the evening. His subject was "Land Settlement." Mr. Ide, head of the land settlement department of Portland, also spoke, and J. R. Beck, county agent for Polk county, gave a brief talk. Miss Lois Gorsline and Corydon Blodgett gave readings, and Billy Utley gave a vocal solo.

Mrs. Simeral Visits With Mrs. Noyes
Mrs. O. A. Noyes has had as her house guest for the last week Mrs. R. W. Simeral of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Simeral will return to her home today.

To prevent shoes from mildewing in a dark closet during war, damp weather, keep them on shoe-trees or stuffed with paper and placed in a well ventilated, dry, light place. If any mildew is found wash it off with warm water and soap, or simply wipe off and dry the leather well afterward.
