

ALL STARS' LINEUP FORMIDABLE ARRAY

"Special" games have been, for the most part, a "jinx" for the Salem Senators this season, and so they will go into today's contest with Porter Yett's All-Stars without any undue confidence of victory. The Senators have won all but two of their City League games but have been out of luck in the non-league contests with the exception of the one against the House of David.

Early Meeting

This will introduce Mr. Raymond Barbuti, captain of the 1927 football team at Syracuse university. This spring he was a star 440-yard man and lead off of the mile relay team at Syracuse.

place the Salem shooting grounds on a par with any of the other leading clubs of the state. Only an informal shoot will be held for the purpose of the meet to give everyone an opportunity to try out the traps and get acquainted with the field. The shoot will probably be held on the basis of a 100-bird program.

The Beavers landed on Dickerman in the seventh and on Delaney in the eighth for two scores in each frame. Elmer Smith hit his twenty-first home run of the season.

TUSSLE FOR LEAD SCHEDULED TODAY

Table with 3 columns: Player, W, L, Pct. Mt. Scott 11, 1, .917; Salem 11, 2, .846; Montavilla 10, 2, .769; Nicolai 6, 6, .500; Woodmen 5, 7, .417.

Both games on the city league schedule for Sunday will be played in Portland, Nicolai meeting Mt. Scott at Kendall Station, while Woodmen clash with Montavilla at Montavilla.

If Nicolai should lose, it may be nosed out of a chance to compete in the second half. However, the Woodmen would have to win their remaining games for this to happen. A defeat would send Mt. Scott into a tie with Salem for the leadership.

Lefty Schroeder, Mt. Scott pitching ace, will be out of the lineup for a week or so with a split finger. Phil Heim from the Timber league may start on the mound Sunday.
