

Big Caravan of Fans Going to Portland for Senator Game Sunday

SALEM HAS CHANCE TYING MT. SCOTT

All Salem fandom is planning to go to Portland next Sunday, and its mecca there, according to present plans, will be the Vaughn street park—but not for a Coast league game. The attraction that will take the local "bugs" to the coast league park will be the final official game of the Portland City Senators fighting for a tie in percentage with Mt. Scott, its opponent in this contest.

In case the Senators do win, it will probably mean a series of three games or more to decide the winner of the league title for the season, before the opening of another round of games between the four highest teams in the league.

Manager "Frisco" Edwards of the Senators indicated Tuesday that he was pretty well pleased with the way Wayne Barham, Salem's reliable veteran, was burning them over last Sunday against Eugene, and will start Barham in this important game if his arm is right.

There is a possibility that another attraction may get first call on the Vaughn street park for this date, but announcement on this point will be made in plenty of time so that the fans will know where to go. The game will be played in Portland, whether the coast league diamond is available or not.

Salem's continued record of victories is drawing a great amount of attention from ball clubs in other parts of the state, and numerous challenges for games on week days or open Sunday dates are coming in. One of these is from the Pendleton team, which may come here July 19 for a twilight game starting about 5:30 o'clock.

AMERICA WINS COURT TITLES

WIMBLEDON, England, July 5.—(AP)—The 1927 Wimbledon tournament closed today in a blaze of glory for the United States, with four of the five championships in the hands of American players.

The lone crown that was missing—the coveted men's singles—was perched on the brow of little Henri Cochet, the French ace, who eliminated William T. Tilden in the semi-finals on his way to his ultimate victory.

With the women's singles, won by Helen Wills, and the men's doubles, won by Tilden and Francis T. Hunter, already captured, the American players went into the last day's play with the women's doubles and the mixed doubles championships as their goal.

Elizabeth Ryan, of California, was the bright American star in today's play. Paired with Miss Wills, she won the women's doubles from the South Africans, Miss "Bobbie" Heine and Mrs. J. Peacock, and then returned to the court after a few minutes' rest, and with Hunter raced through the semi-finals of the mixed doubles, winning from another South African team, Louis Raymond and the same little "Bobbie" Heine.

Later as the curtain was about to be rung down over Wimbledon for 1927, she appeared again with Hunter against L. A. Godfree and Mrs. Kitty McKane Godfree, to win the mixed doubles title, after a stubbornly fought battle in the first set. The display of fortitude and stamina given by the California girl in her three appearances, aroused the keenest admiration from the spectators.

MOTORCYCLE POLO PLANNED TONIGHT

The Sunnyside ball park will again be the meeting place of the Salem motorcycle club, it was decided yesterday by those planning the meetings. A feature of this week's meeting will be a polo game, the first played by the local cyclist teams which were recently organized.

Refreshments for tonight's meeting will be provided by two newly married couples in the club, Mr. and Mrs. Cody Evans, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Baxter.

The trip to Pacific City over the Fourth was made by about 20 of the local members, who were joined by 10 more cyclists from Eugene. Races and stunts on the beach occupied most of the time. Mrs. Wayne Taylor, wife of the secretary of the club, is the only woman cyclist in the club. She made the coast trip with as much ease as any of the male members of the club.

The organization now has 28 members, and is growing weekly as interest in the activities pursued grows.

FAIR BOARD PLANS HALF MILE TRACK

In answer to the demands of racing men and exhibitors who use the Lone Oak race track at the state fairgrounds, the Oregon state fair board has authorized construction of a new half-mile oval within the old mile course.

Progress is already under way on the new course, which it is believed will prove a greater drawing card during fair week than heretofore, in that the shorter races may all be started in front of the grand stand, and in mile harness and trotting events, the crowd will have an opportunity to see more of the features at closer range than under the old system.

The old track will probably continue to be used for auto races, and for longer horse races, and, it is said, can be used for "warming up" horses before the events in which they may be scheduled.

Lone Oak track, however, bids fair to lose its time-honored name in the field half way down toward the north end, has been destroyed in laying out the newer course.

It is expected that the new oval will be completed soon and be in first class condition for fair week, when it will probably see its maiden race.

LATE SPORTS

LOS ANGELES, July 5.—(AP)—George Godfrey, Philadelphia negro leviathan of the fistie game, smashed his way to a knockout victory over Neal Clisby, San Bernardino, Cal., heavyweight, here, tonight. Clisby took the count in the seventh round of a scheduled ten-round bout.

Games which Hansen-Lillequist won with Kiminki in the box will stand, it was decided, although Kiminki will not be permitted to play any more this season. No agreement had been reached with the club managers when Kiminki was played this season, and the games were protested by one of the teams.

PORTLAND MAN STILL IN PLAY

PORTLAND, Or., July 5.—(AP)—Nothing sensational occurred in the course of the second day's play of the annual Oregon state championship tennis tournament, here, today, although at times some sparkling exhibitions were given. Without exception, favorites came through.

One of the features of the tournament was the match in which James K. Ruscher, Pasadena City champion, and Dick Charnock, his fellow townsman, defeated W. P. Hornsberger and Scott Stewart, California stars. The score was 3-6, 7-5, 6-3.

John Rised, member of the California team, seeded at No. 1 in the men's singles, went into the third round today, by defeating W. D. Green, 6-3, 6-1. Dick Charnock and J. Neer staged a well played three-set encounter, Charnock winning 3-6, 6-3, 6-2. Henry Neer, one of Portland's strongest bidders in the meet, successfully tackled Ralph Elle, Portland, winning in straight sets, 6-1, 6-0.

Marian Williams, southern California champion, Louise McFarland, national girls' champion, teamed in the doubles, defeated Sally Cannon and Adele Wedemeyer, young Portland luminaries 6-0, 6-2.

DEMPSEY FIGHT NOT POSTPONED

NEW YORK, July 5.—(AP)—Suggestions that the Dempsey-Sharkey fight July 21, at the Yankee Stadium might be postponed because of Dempsey's worry over the tragic death of his brother, or to inability of the former champion to get into condition by that time, was spiked today by Tex Rickard.

The promoter declared there had been no consideration of a postponement, that none was contemplated, and that none would be made.

FLIER INVOLVED IN SUIT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—(AP)—Ernest L. Smith, civilian aviator who was prevented from making his Oakland-Honolulu flight on the day the army Fokker started, faced the possibility of being restrained from attempting the hop again when Edmund J. Moffett, his former manager, filed suit today against him and his backer, Anthony Parente, for alleged violation of contract. The court is to hear the injunction petition Friday.

"The Best Seller"

WHEN it comes to best sellers, Camel leads them all, because by the greatest number of smokers it is considered the best cigarette.

The closer the search for quality, the greater the preference for Camels. For Camel, made of the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, is supremely blended to a mellowness, mildness and individuality of taste that is beyond matching or imitation.

If you don't yet know its satisfying smoothness, just try this overwhelming favorite among cigarettes.
