Coast League Standings. Oakland W. L. Pct. San Francisco 64 44 .593 Seattle 68 49 .542 Sacramento 66 48 .538 Portland 57 51 .523

PORTLAND, July 12.—(AP). Portland took the opening game of the series from San Francisco Mission today 5 to 2. Larry French allowed only five hits, and two of these, including a homer by Griffith of the Bells, were in the ninth inning after two were out.

The Beavers bunched hits off Pilette for two runs in the sixth and three in the eighth.

The score: R. H. E. Mission 2 5 0 Portland 5 11 0 Pilette and Whitney; French and Fischer.

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—(AP). Sheriff John Singleton held Los Angeles to four hits and twirled Sacramento to a 6 to 0 victory in the series opening here today.

Johnny Monroe, Sacramento sacker, was banned while standing in the Sacramento dugout.

Krug's hard throw to first hit Monroe over the eye and he was unconscious for half an hour.

A physician said the injury was not serious. Score: R. H. E. Sacramento 6 12 1 Los Angeles 0 4 3 Singleton and Koehler; Wright and Walby; Hannah.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—(AP).—San Francisco batters pounded the offerings of the Oakland twirlers for 15 safe hits today, winning the game, 6 to 2.

The score: R. H. E. Oakland 0 6 0 San Francisco 6 15 1 Dickerman, Crashead and Baker; Kutz and Rego.

No Seattle-Hollywood game today; traveling.

CHANNEL WINNER LEADS LAKE RACE

LAKE GEORGE, N. Y., July 12.—(AP).—William F. Keating, New York swimming instructor, won the 24 mile swimming marathon in Lake George from Hague at 4:30 o'clock this morning, day-light saving time.

LAKE GEORGE, N. Y., July 12.—(AP).—Holding the lead he wrested from Ernst Vierkoer, German channel conqueror at the ten-mile mark, Edward B. Keating, of New York, was still showing the way to 18 survivors in the Lake George 24-mile marathon swim tonight.

At 10 o'clock he was reported to have passed Fourteen Mile Island, at the southern gateway of the treacherous narrows, and passed out into the broad, calm waters of the lower lake, about 7 miles from the finish.

The 18 who were left of the original 149 entrants were spread out over five or six miles behind Keating.

THREE OUT OF EVERY FOUR

HORACE LISENBE

Horace Lisenbee of the Washington Senators continues to be one of the pitching stars of the American League season, with a winning percentage of .750—three victories out of every four starts. Beat the Yanks three times. Pitched two shutouts. It's his first year up.

SERGEANT BAKER KAYOS CALLAHAN

WRIGHT FIELD, Chicago, July 12.—(AP).—Sergeant Sammy Baker, of New York, the conqueror of Ace Huddins, knocked out Mushy Callahan, of Los Angeles, junior welterweight champion, in the ninth round of a scheduled ten-round fight here tonight.

Starting the seventh, Baker landed three hard rights to the head without a return, forcing Mushy to the ropes. Callahan came back, however, near the finish and nailed Baker with a right to the chin, that almost upset the soldier.

Callahan was leg-weary and tired at the end of the eighth, from the hard rights to the chin.

DEMPESEY PREPARED TO STEP 15 ROUNDS

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Saratoga Lake, N. Y., July 12.—(AP).—Continuing the policy of "work-a-day and rest-a-day," Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of a year ago, suspended training for the day, taking a complete rest not only from boxing but also from road work.

Up at 6 o'clock, Dempsey left his cottage early for a 40 mile trip to Lake George, where he started a long distance swimming marathon. He returned early in the afternoon.

The ex-champion will swing back into action with a vengeance tomorrow. If the policy outlined by Flynn continues, Dempsey will train tomorrow, Friday, Sunday and Tuesday, leaving for the scene of the bout Tuesday night. The champion will not box more than six more times before squaring off with Sharkey.

Dempsey is ready now to step 15 rounds, probably as ready as he will ever be. He is punching as hard as any man in the ring today. The small fast men can evade his terrific left hook for the three minutes they are in action, but the bigger, slower heavyweights bend and crumple under his attack.

The big mystery is Dempsey's weight, which is announced by Leo Flynn as 195 pounds. Experts, however, say Dempsey will enter the ring at the Yankee stadium a week from Thursday night weighing 200 pounds, more than he ever weighed for any of his bouts.

SCANT SALARY REASON GIVEN FOR RESIGNING

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—(AP).—The St. Louis Cardinals bopped the Philadelphia Nationals their second straight setback by a 9 to 6 score.

"Cy" Williams knocked a homer in the 9th. Score: R. H. E. St. Louis 9 13 1 Philadelphia 6 13 3 Haines and Snyder; Sweetland, Scott and Wilson.

NEW YORK, July 12.—(AP).—Rogers Hornsby's 16th home run of the season with one on base in the sixth inning enabled the Giants to nose out the Reds in a series opener today by 3 to 2.

Score: R. H. E. Cincinnati 2 9 1 New York 3 11 1 Luque, Neft and Hargrave. Picinich; Benton and Taylor.

CLEVELAND, July 12.—(AP).—Urban Shocker blanked the Indians with seven hits while the Yankees broke through with a 7 to 0 victory in the start of a series today.

Ruth featured with his 30th home run of the season with one on base in the ninth, thereby forging ahead of Gehrig by one run in the race for four baggers.

Score: R. H. E. New York 7 14 1 Cleveland 0 7 1 Shocker and Grabowski; Shaute and L. Sewell.

DETROIT, July 12.—(AP).—Washington drove Collins from the box to win a delayed game from Detroit in a wind and rain storm today.

The score was 9 to 6. Score: R. H. E. Washington 9 13 1 Detroit 6 7 4 Lisenbee, Marberry, Braxton and Ruel; Collins, Holloway, Smith and Woodall.

ST. LOUIS, July 12.—(AP).—Sisler's home run with two men on in the 9th inning gave the St. Louis Browns a victory over the Boston Red Sox today, six to five.

Score: R. H. E. Boston 5 6 1 St. Louis 6 13 6 Russell and Hartley; Jones and Schang.

CHICAGO, July 12.—(AP).—Philadelphia pounded out 17 hits today but lost to the White Sox 8 to 5.

JONES FAVORITE IN TITLE PLAY

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, July 12.—(AP).—Any one of four Americans—Bobby Jones, Bill Melhorn, Jim Barnes and Joe Kirkwood, among eight entrants from the United States and an even 100 others who qualified today for the British open—figures as a likely winner of the golf championship now in Jones' possession and which Americans before him have held five times in the past six years.

Jones, after a fine 71 today, remained the outstanding favorite. Melhorn added his second 73 today for a 146, one stroke better than Jones and led the American contingent of qualifiers.

DE MOLAYS LOCATED NOW IN LAST PLACE

Industrial League Standings. P. E. P. W. L. Pct. Postoffice 4 3 .571 Hansen-Liljequist 4 4 .500 DeMolay 3 5 .375

The DeMolays are now in undisputed possession of last place in Industrial League standings as a result of being defeated last night by the Hansen-Liljequist players, 4 to 1.

The Junior Masons got their lone run when "Jkey" White knocked the ball over the right field fence for a four-base stroll.

Follrich, daring second baseman for the mill team, caught the DeMolay battery asleep twice during the game and sneaked home for a couple of counters, once in the first and again in the third, after he had got on base each time by slamming the ball against the right field fence for two-baggers.

The DeMolays had plenty of chances to score but failed to connect at the proper time. Eight of their men died on bases.

Hansen-Liljequist now can win the title provided post-office loses Thursday night, and the lumber men can come out on top in their game against P. E. P. next Tuesday.

EXCITING GAME SLATED TONIGHT

One of the best games in the commercial league play is expected tonight when the Valley Motor-herd cross bats with the league leading Legionnaires. If the heavy hitters of the garage workers can pound out a victory, there is a fine chance for Dodge's outfit to win the title.

"Biddy" Bishop probably will take the mound for the Legion. Russell will pitch for the motor-herd.

FILES RESIGNATION

Miss Astrid Hofseth, R. N., superintendent of the Salem general hospital for the past two years, has resigned from her position, effective with the beginning of her vacation yesterday.

Miss Hofseth came to Salem two years ago, from Chicago, and has done much toward developing the present efficient management of the hospital. Her original contract called for one year's service, but she was persuaded to remain an extra year.

For the present she will remain in Salem upon her return from her vacation.

Miss E. Anderson, assistant superintendent at the hospital during Miss Hofseth's administration, has been placed in temporary charge of the work until the arrival of Miss Hofseth's successor, Miss Adeline Hughes, R. N., from Ohio.

KILLS ALLEGED HOUSE BREAKER IN STRUGGLE

Hanley on his last visit to the place. Tonight the lodging house keeper said Hanley came to the house and demanded to see his divorced wife, Hartwick, whose wife was out at the time, told Hanley to leave at once, and refused to let him enter the house. Hanley then tried to get in the basement window and then left, saying he would return later and "get" Hartwick, who then borrowed a revolver and hid it under the mattress in his room.

When Hanley returned later and broke into the house, Hartwick shot him, he says, as he grappled with him for possession of the gun.

Mrs. Hanley corroborated the testimony, adding that her former husband drank excessively and when in an intoxicated condition invariably tried to attack her.

CAN YOU PICK WINNER? JUDGES COULDN'T

Judges of track events at the National A. A. U. games at Lincoln, Neb., reserved their decision on the winner of the 100-yard dash until the motion pictures of the event could be developed and run "slow motion." This because of the fact that the entrants came to the tape apparently in a "dead heat."

INTEREST CENTERS IN SUNDAY'S GAME

Extra seats—or even extra standing room—will be needed at Oxford park next Sunday afternoon, when the Salem Senators battle once more for the Portland City league title, this time not as the "under dog" with a fighting chance, but on even terms with their opponents, the Mt. Scott Tigers, in the final game of the first half of the season.

Counting on an even harder battle than faced in Portland last Sunday—and that was tight enough to suit anybody up to the last inning—Manager "Frisco" Edwards of the Senators is planning to rely on Johnny Beck, newly signed pitcher who finished that game, to bring home the bacon once more, and Beck will be on the mound at the start of this all-important contest.

A little "inside stuff" on Beck's showing at Portland last Sunday was uncovered Tuesday when it was learned that the youth's temporary wildness when he relieved Barham was not due to "stage fright," but to the fact that he had not been used to pitching from a mound.

That difficulty will be overcome by a little practice before next Sunday, and Beck ought to be effective from the start. Experts who watched him pitch in Portland declared that he "had everything," and his work in striking out five batters in his first attempt at this class of ball, bears out the opinion.

SWIM CARNIVAL DUE ON MONDAY

High carnival will hold forth in the YMCA swimming tank next Monday night, according to the announcement last night of a water carnival and swimming exhibition for that date.

The first event will be a series of races and stunts in which every boy may participate, and there

TERRIFIC SWAT GIVES RUTH LEAD

NEW YORK, July 12.—(AP).—Babe Ruth pulled out in front of Lou Gehrig today by whacking out his 30th home run drive with one on base off Pitcher Shaute in the ninth inning at Cleveland.

It was his only smash of the day but it was a terrific wallop that not only cleared the right field wall but came down among houses across the street from the Cleveland ball park.
