SALEM DISTRICT INDUSTRIES

EIGHTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR

THE DAILY STATESMAN dedicates two or more pages each week in the interests of one of the fifty-two to a hundred basic industries of the Salem District. Letters and articles from people with vision are solicited. This is your page. Help make Salem grow.

FLAX EXPERTS TO VISIT DISTRICT

Field Inspection, and Basket Picnic and Speaking Friday at Aumsville

(Mrs. A. E. Bradley, Aumsville, sent the following for publication by The Statesman:)
"We are to have with us Friday, the 15th, Prof. Dewey, who is head of the flax department for the United States government, Washington, D. C., also Prof. Hyslop and his assistant, D. D. Hill, OAC, also Mr. Starling of the Pacific linen mills, Vancouver, Wash., for whom we are arranging a program to begin at 2 o'clock, p. m. at Picnic park. First a tour of inspection of fields, some being harvested. Fields seeded from state flax seed, fields for Pacific linen mills, of Saginaw seed. To the fields of seed flax, then back to the park for 7 o'clock basket dinner. Following will be speaking by above named men, and an open forum in which questions may be asked and discussed. An invitation is extended to growers, prospective growers and others interested in this work to bring their baskets and enjoy a pleasant and profitable afternoon and evening.
