FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

PORTLAND, July 13.—(AP)—The production of cantaloupes is moving north in California. A car each has arrived from the Lindsay and Wasson sections but found the imperials in better condition than is usual with the clean up shipments from the more southern fields.

The local cherry harvest is at its height. Bing's, well graded, are selling for 15 1/2c per pound and Royal Anne for 8c. Prices are unchanged in most commodities.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 13.—(A)—Wheat prices rallied at the last today although averaging lower most of the time previous. Relative strength of the Winnipeg market tended to emphasize weakness in some quarters concerning black sea possibilities in Canada.
