Beautiful Wedding in Silvertown Yesterday at High Noon

One of the most beautiful wedding ceremonies of the entire summer was solemnized yesterday at high noon in the Trinity church of Silvertown when Miss Myra Sather became the bride of Ben E. Roisen of Montivideo, Minnesota. The single ring service was read by Rev. George Henriksen of Parkland, Washington, in a church most attractively decorated with pink roses and fern in the presence of fifty relatives and friends.

The bride was lovely in a gown of oyster-white satin embroidered with pearls and rhinestones. Her full length veil was arranged in a simple cap with orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful shiver bouquet of white orchid, bride's roses, and lilies of the valley.

Miss Marcella Einnevelsen as maid of honor wore a beaded coral model and carried orchid sweet peas and pink roses. Victor Sather, a brother of the bride, served as best man. Knute Biggers and Merl Larson were the ushers.

The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Miss Corneille Goplerud. Proceeding to the ceremony, Mrs. Alvina Legard of Salem, accompanied by Miss Esther Towe, sang "At Dawning," and following the ceremony "Because." "Oh Promise Me" was played softly during the service by Miss Goplerud.

A reception at the home of the bride in Silvertown followed the ceremony. The luncheon table was centered with pink carnations and tapers of the same shade.

Assisting at the reception were the Misses Esther Towe, Virginia West of Portland, Louise Henriksen of Parkland, Washington, and Velma Rutherford.

Mr. and Mrs. Roisen left immediately after the reception for Minnesota where Mr. Roisen is engaged in business.

Farewell Reception Compliments Mrs. Hester

Mrs. R. M. T. Hester, who will leave the first of August for Stockton, California, where she has accepted a position as assistant to Rev. Ward Willis Long, was complimented with a farewell reception on Wednesday evening when the ladies of the Missionary society entertained in her honor.

The picnic dinner was served to about three hundred and fifty members of the congregation and their friends in the grove, which was attractively lighted with colored globes and Japanese lanterns, at the fairgrounds.

Following the dinner the group gathered around a huge bonfire and an interesting program was given.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. E. G. Ford, president of the Missionary society.

Mrs. C. A. Park served as toastmistress and the following responses were given by the various church societies and departments:

The Sunday school by H. E. Barrett; Comrade Club by Cecil Swape; Trustees by Mrs. George J. Pearce; Men's club by J. P. Bates; Young Married People's club by Dr. A. G. Bates; Camp Fire Girls by Doris Godsey; Frances Greig Circle by Lydia Childs; Christian Endeavor society by Dorothy Hutchinson; Advanced Christian Endeavor society by Jack Ramago; Intermediate Christian society by Edith Glasgow; Young People's Work by Mrs. Hester.

Talks were also given during the evening; among them, "The Church from the Pastor's Viewpoint," Dr. Norman Kendall Tully; "The Church from the Pastor's Wife's Viewpoint," Mrs. Norman Kendall Hully; "Glimpse of the Hereafter," Mrs. Clarence W. Green; "Outlook for Albany College," Clarence W. Green.

The music for the evening was in charge of R. H. Robertson; games of C. A. Kells. Scriptural passages were recited by little Louise Ramago, and the program closed, with a prayer-lead by Dr. Tully.

Mrs. Hester was presented by the Camp Fire Girls with a very pretty pin. She was also the recipient of a beautiful Gruen wrist watch presented to her by Mrs. Reed Chambers in behalf of the members of the Woman's Aid Society of the church.

W. H. M. S. and W. F. M. S. Hold Joint Meeting on Tuesday Afternoon

The members of the Woman's Home Missionary society and of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society held a joint meeting on Wednesday in the First Methodist church parlors, with Mrs. R. V. Hollenberg presiding.

Miss Alma Pohle told of her work in the Chicago Training school where she has been for the past year. Most of her work was with the immigrant girls of Chicago. A most interesting account of her European travels was given by Miss Mary Paragonogian. Particularly vivid were her descriptions of her audience with the pope in Rome and of her trip to Greece. Several readings from James Whitcomb Riley given by Mrs. J. R. Carruthers completed the program.

A PRETTY TRIBUTE BY OBSERVING MAN

Artist Who Painted Horn of Plenty Had His Studio in Willamette Valley

W. A. Delzell, of the U. S. Realty company is in receipt of a letter from an old friend in Colorado who has spent a lifetime "on the road" as a traveling man and has repeatedly visited every section of our country west of Chicago. His friend recently was in Salem and the letter gives his impressions of our valley, in part like this:

"No one who drives over the paved highways of the Willamette valley at 95 miles per hour can fully see the wonderful resources of this fertile country. They go too fast to appreciate it and often hurry on to less productive lands. "Enough fruit goes to waste every year in the Willamette valley to supply the needs of a city the size of St. Louis or the whole state of Nebraska. Fruit in glorious abundance, luscious fruit of all kinds actually going to waste. During October and November of 1926 I traveled up and down this beautiful valley many times, and I saw orchard after orchard where the fruit was never picked. The trees were holding forth branches abundantly laden with the choicest fruit, apples and pears, inviting some one to accept the golden gifts—yet after clinging to the fruit until away into November the limbs finally dropped it off and the ground underneath the trees was heaped with the gifts no one seemed willing to accept.

"Had His Studio Here
"The artist who painted the original picture of the 'horn of plenty' surely had his studio in the Willamette valley, for no where else could such models be found. I don't know why there is so much of this rich land that is not farmed. There are thousands and thousands of acres untouched by the plow. This one valley can support more people than now live in the entire states of Oregon and Washington and have plenty to spare—and this is speaking merely of the fertility of the soil. The health giving climate, the beautiful scenery and natural resources other than farming—all add to the attractiveness of this valley. The Willamette valley, with a rainfall slightly less than that of Chicago, with mild winters where freezing is rare, where roses bloom from May until Christmas, spreads out its treasures and invites who will to come."

FARMER WOMAN IN OKLAHOMA

Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Because It Gave Her Health and Strength

In a sunny pasture in Oklahoma, a herd of sleek cows was grazing. They made a pretty picture. But the thin woman in the blue checked apron sighed as she looked at them. She was tired of cows, tired of cooking for a household of boarders, besides caring for her own family. The burdens of life seemed too heavy for her failing health. She had lost confidence in herself.

One day she began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her general health began to improve. She took it faithfully. Now she can do her work without any trouble, sleeps well and is no longer blue and tired.

This woman, Mrs. Coja Short, R. 9, Box 287, Oklahoma City, Okla., writes: "Everybody now says: 'Mrs. Short, what are you doing to yourself?' I weigh 135 and my weight before I took it was 115. I have taken seven bottles of the Vegetable Compound."
