

GRIM BOBBY JONES STILL HOLDS LEAD

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, July 14. (AP)—Grim faced and bare-headed, Bobby Jones fought his way over the St. Andrews course today and because he wouldn't be licked, he won his fight and scored 72 for his second round in defense of his title of open golf champion of Great Britain.

With his sensational 68 of yesterday, he stood with 140 as the leader of the field after 56 holes, with 64 to be played tomorrow.

Bobby lost his smile and his cap but he kept his head.

Scotland in all her centuries of sterling golfing deeds never witnessed a braver one-man battle than Bobby fought. Golf was not play for the champion today. It was hard, grinding work.

He was not on his game for his tee shots would not behave and he missed putts here and there, some of them short ones, but he kept plugging away at the game with his sights on par. He was finally rewarded by getting one stroke under the 73 which St. Andrews calls perfect.

Tonight the battle was half over and the battle field was strewn with a half hundred casualties. Jones was two strokes ahead of his nearest pursuer, 21-year-old Ben Hodson, and four strokes in front of the next man, his Georgia neighbor, Joe Kirkwood.

The pace set by Jones eliminated all but 53 others of the hopeful players who started the 72 hole test with him yesterday morning. All 15 strokes behind the leader have ended their championship quest for this year.

Drugs Excite the Kidneys, Drink Water. Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble because we often eat too much rich food. Our blood is filled with acids which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, begin drinking good soft water, and get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpressible; cannot injure, makes a delightful little water drink and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

DEMPSEY AND SHARKEY—SIDE BY SIDE, IN THE RING

How Jack Dempsey and Jack Sharkey compare in size and build is shown clearly in the photo of them together in street togs. It was taken since they signed to battle July 21 for the chance to meet Gene Tunney, heavy king. Other photos show them as they appear in the ring, ready to fight their way to a title battle.

DEMPSEY TAPERING IN TRAINING WORK

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Saratoga Lake, N. Y., July 14.—(AP)—Confident that the job of winning back peak condition for the most important battle of his ring career is virtually over, Jack Dempsey today began to taper off his workouts.

With only a week remaining before Jack parts the ropes to face Jack Sharkey in the Yankee stadium, the former champion of all heavyweights, boxed only four rounds and finished the day with three minutes with each of pulley work, light bag punching and ring calisthenics.

"Short though it was, Jack displayed again all the fire and worked in nothing but short ring fights, giving full play to the splendid muscles of back, chest and abdomen. Jack drilled today for speed and perfection of certain lines of defense. His punching was sharp and accurate and whenever a sparring partner appeared in distress, Dempsey 'pulled' his spots.

However, he dropped Italian Jack Herman, one of the three heavyweights who faced him in the first seconds of the round, with a left hook to the chin. The Italian climbed to his feet and Jack let him last the round.

Dempsey expects to work out for the last time Monday, leaving for New York the next day, according to present day by day plans.

NEW YORK, July 14.—(AP)—Jack Sharkey continued today in training for his fight with Jack Dempsey July 21 to emphasize the play of his left.

Stressing his port side jabs and hooks, Sharkey made defensive work a secondary factor. Taking all his ring mates were willing to offer, the sailor often dropped his hands to his sides. Only at intervals did he dive through straight punches with the right to mark the persistent pecking left.

ACCIDENT VICTIM DIES THE DALLES, Ore., July 14.—(AP)—James Gates, ten years old, died at a hospital here last night from injuries suffered on July 4 when he was struck by an automobile.

SENATOR HITTING DECISIVE FACTOR

Hitting has been the principal factor in the Salem Senators' success during the first half of the City league season, and the same factor may possibly decide the race Sunday when the final championship game is played with Mount Scott.

In last Sunday's game the Senators just held their own as compared to previous performances, and finished with exactly the same team batting average they had at the close of the last previous league game, .348, which is a remarkable average for any team to hold.

Goleman is still at the top of the list with .476, aside from Beck's average of .500 which represents only two trips to the plate. The principal change from the last standings published was "Frisco" Edwards' advance to third place in the list, on the strength of three hits out of four times up. The averages follow:

Player	AB.	H.	Pct.
Beck	2	1	.500
Goleman	42	20	.476
Steers	50	21	.420
Edwards	39	15	.385

First Silk Hat Wearer in London Was Arrested

LONDON.—(AP)—Not many of the ultra smart young men of Mayfair who are bringing the high silk hat back into favor know that the first person to wear such head gear in London was promptly arrested for "inciting to riot and a breach of the peace."

The style was invented in 1797 by a Strand hatter named Hethewington, who calmly placed one on his head and walked out into the street. History relates that such a crowd grew that a boy was thrown down and trampled on and his arm broken while women screamed and fainted. The poor hatter was bound over in £500 bail not to repeat the offence. It is said that this encouraged the hat bootleggers of the day to popularize the fashion.

Republic Not Popular With Son of Composer BERLIN.—(AP)—Siegfried Wagner, only son of the great Richard and manager of the Bayreuth Festival Plays, can't become reconciled to the political upheaval in Germany. He improves every opportunity to criticize the republican government.

Wagner's most recent explosion was over the exposition of "Music in the Life of the Nations," now going on in Frankfurt-on-the-Main. In response to the request to exhibit at Frankfurt some of the historic material in "Haus Wahnfried," the Wagner home at Bayreuth, he is reported to have refused with the following words:

"How can one entrust such valuable material to the railway, in view of the uncertain conditions prevailing in this new form of state!"

The Senators had driven Weathersby to the shower in the first of the 8th with a two run rally that tied the count. Score—R. H. E. Sacramento..... 4 6 0 Los Angeles..... 5 8 0 Shea, Keefe, Rachac and Koehler; Weathersby and Sandberg.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—With a five run lead against them the San Francisco Seals tied the score in the 7th inning of their ball game today with Oakland and in the next inning pushed over three more runs, enough to win 8 to 7.

The game was punctuated in the 8th frame by a row which resulted in Mulligan, Seal infielder, being sent to the club house after he had interfered with a throw from Read, Oakland catcher.

Several of the players indulged in a verbal battle and the fans hooted and jeered and threw cushions on the field. Score—R. H. E. Oakland..... 7 13 2 San Francisco..... 8 8 2 Krause and Read; Moudy and Vargas.

SEATTLE, July 14.—Besting Jim Edwards in a pitching duel, Hank Hulvey gave Hollywood its second straight victory over the Seattle Indians today 3 to 0.
