Many from Salem at Neskowin

Many local people are at Salem's seaside resort either as transient vacationists or as permanent summer residents. Among them: Dr. and Mrs. W. Carlton Smith and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gibbard. Mrs. Gibbard and Mrs. Smith are spending the summer there. Mrs. Wiggins is a guest of Mrs. Frank Spears at the Spears' summer home. Mrs. E. L. Griffith and Mrs. Bert Ford are in Neskowin for the summer. Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Mott and their small daughter are spending the week in their beach cottage with Mrs. Karl Becke and little Miriam Becke as their house guests. Mrs. John Jerman and her children are at this resort for several weeks. Mrs. Raymond Walsh and her children, and Miss Priscilla Fry have opened the Dan J. Fry summer home on the south beach.

St. Helen's Wedding of Interest in Salem

The marriage of Miss Mabel Davies and Louis W. LaBare was solemnized recently at the First Methodist church of St. Helens with Rev. S. Darlow Johnson officiating, assisted by Rev. A. S. Hisey. The church was decorated with summer flowers in pastel shades.

Mrs. S. Darlow Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. C. A. Wilcox, sang, presiding at the ceremony. Mrs. Wilcox also played the wedding marches.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of lace and crepe back satin, with a veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower of Ophelia roses and sweet peas.

Miss Elaine Oberg, as maid of honor, wore a bouffant frock of orchid taffeta and rainbow tulle with a band of brilliants in her hair. She carried lavender sweet peas.

Nancy Austin and Frances Ann Ross, in dresses of net and lace, were the flower girls.

Thomas Mackenzie served as best man and Adam Woods and A. Holmes Johnson as ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors which were attractive with baskets of Dorothy Perkins roses, delphinium and Shasta daisies. Mrs. Sydney Melhuish and Mrs. Charles Headcock cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Chas. Chown, Miss Caroline Stober, Miss Anne Lavendar, Miss Margaret McDaniell, Miss Crystal Burkhead and Miss Harriet LaBare.

Mr. and Mrs. LaBare are at home to their friends at Wellesley Court, Portland.

Help for Sick Women

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Restored the Health of Thousands

Brooklyn, New York. Mrs. G. Hegmann of 229 Schaffer St. was in a run-down condition and could not do her housework. She could not sleep at night. Her story is not an unusual one. Thousands of women find themselves in a similar condition at some time in their lives. "I found your advertisement in my letter box," wrote Mrs. Hegmann, "and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got relief." Mrs. Hegmann also took Lydia E. Pinkham's Herb Medicine and Lydia E. Pinkham's Pills for Constipation with good results. She writes to me by women who have symptoms the same as mine, and to others whom I think it will help. You may use my statement as a testimonial, and I will answer any letters sent to me by women who would like information regarding your medicines.

There are women in your state—perhaps in your town—who have written letters similar to this one telling how much Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped them.

Reunion of Roelofson Family Held Recently at Champog

OREGON'S EXPORTS SLIGHTLY REDUCED

Prunes Rank Fourth Among Commodities Shipped From State This Year

Exports of merchandise from Oregon during the first three months of 1927 were valued at $12,866,851, compared with $13,781,451 during the corresponding period of 1926, a decrease of $914,600, according to figures made public Monday by the department of commerce.

Wheat shipped from the state to overseas markets was valued at $3,998,200 and ranked first in order of value among the commodities exported during the three months. Exports of apples were valued at $1,389,706 followed in order by boards, planks, and scantlings, $1,171,761; wheat flour, $1,074,280; and prunes, $991,282.

Milk and cream, pickled salmon, cattle hides, canned and prepared fruits, binder twine, logs and hewn timber, wood manufactures, machinery, vehicles, chemicals, metals and manufactures of and coconut oil were included in the commodities exported during the three months.

Total exports of merchandise from the United States during the first three months of 1927 were valued at $1,175,920,509 compared with $1,098,839,243 during the first three months of 1926, an increase of $76,181,266.

New York ranked first in order of value of exports during the three months of 1927 with foreign shipments of merchandise valued at $193,190,065. Texas was second with $172,035,780, followed in order by California, $81,244,751; Michigan, $80,696,172; Pennsylvania, $77,073,735; New Jersey, $62,492,286; Louisiana, $59,154,736; and Ohio $45,745,768.

Twenty-four of the 48 states shown in the study increased the value of exports compared with the first quarter of 1926. The export trade of Texas increased $43,162,167; California $17,592,587; Pennsylvania $11,558,488; Michigan, $8,930,344; Ohio, $5,797,918; West Virginia $4,235,695 and Tennessee, $3,126,576.

Dr. Julius Klein, director of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, under whose direction the figures are compiled, calls attention to the fact that the statistics are based primarily on through-bills-of-lading, and, therefore, in the case of some states, show but a part of the total export trade and for others include goods produced elsewhere.

Three Attempt Escape Only One Successfully

Escape from the boys' training school was accomplished by three of the inmates Sunday evening, two of whom were picked up shortly afterwards on the highway, as they attempted to make a getaway. The third is still at large, according to a statement made last night by officials of the school.

The one still at large is Arthur Daniels, whose home is at Hillsdale. He is described as being 19 years of age, but looking younger; 5 feet, 5 inches in height, and weighing 135 pounds. His face is somewhat marked with small-pox.

Those making the unsuccessful attempt were Theodore Nunn, age 18, and Henry Arp, age 16.

"MAROONER" LIVING

ATLANTA.—Captain F. Lloyd Guiding, hero of the children's classic, "The Young Marooners," written by his father, is still alive and lives in Roswell, Ga. Captain Guiding is 83 years old, but says everyone refers to him as "Frank, the youngest of the young Marooners."

SIDELIGHTS OF THE STAGE AND SCREEN

Elsinore Theatre
Few comedies have come to the screen during the past twelve months that can compare in plot interest or swiftness with "A Kiss in a Taxi." Bebe Daniels' new Paramount starring picture, which shows at the Elsinore today and Wednesday.

In it, the vivacious comedienne plays Ginette, bewitching waitress of the Parisian Montmartre. All patrons seek to kiss her, but she is unobtainable, answering each advance with a fresh shower of glassware. Chester Conklin, Maraval, treasurer of the Artists' society, has one of the best opportunities of his long moustached career. Douglas Gilmore, Paramount's latest leading man, gives a splendid performance as Lucien, Bebe's sweetheart.

"A Kiss in a Taxi" bears the stamp of sterling comedy not only because of its cast but also due to the capable direction it receives from Director Clarence Badger who seems quite satisfied to create one continual line of successful farces for Famous Players-Lasky.

Jocelyn Lee was added next to the picture as Conklin's attractive secretary. Others excellent in their roles are Henry Kolker, Richard Tucker, Agostino Borgato, Eulalie Jensen and Rose Burdick. By all means see "A Kiss in a Taxi."

Oregon Theatre

"Drums of the Desert," adapted from Zane Grey's "Desert Hoard," will be shown at the Oregon Theatre today. Advance reports call it bigger than any Western which has yet been made with two possible exceptions, "The Covered Wagon" and "The Vanishing American." The picture deals with those same Navajo Indians who played so large a part in the Richard Dix vehicle. Only in this production, however, it is the redskin who finally comes out on top.

A romantic story has been skillfully woven in to the struggle of red man and white, by Director John Waters and Warner Baxter who seems quite satisfied to create one continual line of successful farces for Famous Players-Lasky, as have ever been seen. Ford Sterling holds up the comedy end, "Drums of the Desert" incidentally, was produced by the same company responsible for the two earlier dramas, Paramount.

HOOKS AN ALLIGATOR
CASSADAGA, Fla.—Fishing in Florida is always exciting. You never know what will be on the end of your line. J. D. Shannon caught a large alligator on his line while seeking trout. A 30 minute battle and a rifle bullet were necessary in landing the catch.
