

REBEL HEAD BLAMES COOLIDGE FOR RIOT

Sandino Not Downcast by Heavy Casualties; Threatens Come Back

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, July 20. (AP)—Airplanes returning from Ocotal report a few bands of rebels under Sandino now at Chipotehul, near Quilal. The patrols returning yesterday reported a concentration of rebel forces at Telphaneca, El Jicaró and other places to the southeast of Ocotal.

A message signed by Sandino and sent the day after the battle between Sandino's forces and United States marines and Nicaraguan constabulary at Ocotal was intercepted by a telegraph operator at San Fernando.

It reads: "To all authorities, civil and military. Why the Ocotal combat took place.

"First, to show that we continue protesting and defending the constitutionality of Dr. Juan Sacasa, (former liberal president.)

"Second, to disabuse the idea of those who believe we are bandits.

"Third, to prove that we prefer death to slavery. For the peace secured by Moncada is not the peace that can give liberty to men, but peace that puts a man under domination of others.

"Whoever believes we are downcast by the heavy casualties, misjudges my army; for today we are more impatient than ever to seek out the traitors of our country, determined to die if we cannot secure complete liberty for all men.

"I wish to say that the only one responsible for what has happened here is the president of the United States, Calvin Coolidge, who has supported Adolfo Diaz."

Another message addressed to Sandino's wife was also picked up, reading: "Although they believe me weak, I shall soon occupy the Tiscapa fortress."

Tiscapa fort is on a hill at the edge of Managua and controls the city. It is now occupied by marines. It is generally admitted that whoever holds Tiscapa controls the country.

HOOVER URGES AID TO FLOODED AREAS

Secretary Tells President States Unable Raise Sufficient Funds

RAPID CITY, S. D., July 20. (AP)—Immediate federal aid to the Mississippi river flood relief problem was urged upon President Coolidge today by Secretary Hoover who has supervised rescue and rehabilitation work in the devastated area.

Hoover told the president that state legislatures are unable to raise sufficient funds to carry on the imperative work of closing the levees. Furthermore, he said, local communities cannot meet the burden of taxes falling due on the levee bonds because it has been possible only to restore about 2,000,000 of the 3,500,000 acres covered by the flood to crops this year.

Without mentioning a special session of congress which is under consideration by Mr. Coolidge, the secretary did recommend that the government go to the immediate relief of the levee program, insisting that it was necessary to have these closed before fall. Some funds, he thought, could be obtained from government money on hand, including the rivers and harbors appropriations.

So far as caring for the flood victims is concerned, Hoover declared there would be $3,000,000 on hand from the Red Cross relief contributions on November 1 and was confident that they could be taken care of until congress meets in regular session in December.

"The greatest of all measures needed," he said, in a report submitted to the president, "is prompt and effective flood control and quick legislation for that will restore confidence and from confidence will come a recovery in values and in business.

"The government should take over and repair the whole levee system of the flooded area whether or not the levees are under government jurisdiction. Congress should also furnish relief in helping pay interest charges and amortization for holders of levee bonds in sections where floods have prevented a planting of crops this year. Most of the levee obligations will not fall due until about January 1."

PUMPS MANNED BY CREW

LITTLE PRINCE BECOMES RULER OF BALKAN NATION

Accompanied by his mother, wife of former Prince Carol, and a princess of Greece, stood stolidly at attention throughout the ceremony.

Carol Abandons Hope Prince Carol, now at Neuilly, near Paris, who abandoned all hopes of the throne by his renunciation January 4, 1926, has announced his intention not to return to Bucharest.

Lionel Brattiano, former premier and "strong man" of Rumania, holds the power. With the help of Queen Marie, it is accepted that he will unquestionably be a dominating figure over the regency.

King Ferdinand died as he had lived, fighting stubbornly with characteristic Hohenzollern tenacity.

Health Long Failing "I feel so tired," he said to Queen Marie, who held him in her arms in his dying moments and then his last words "I feel no pain."

For many months Ferdinand had been in failing health. Renowned physicians of France, Belgium and Germany, after attending him last December, expressed the opinion that he might live one month or six. He survived for nearly seven months. Pneumonia contracted in the high altitudes of Sinai in the Carpathian mountains, where he was transferred recently, hastened his end.

But the king's illness really dates back several years and the actual cause of his death was cancer. Even when Queen Marie was on her memorable visit to the United States, the king suffered intensely and two operations were performed, followed by radium treatment. All this merely served to stay the progress of the disease for a time and Ferdinand wasted away until he was a mere shadow of himself, unable to take proper nourishment and incapable of carrying out the duties of state in the way he fondly desired, though he exerted himself to the utmost and was ever hopeful that he would live.

The king's funeral will take place Saturday, this was decided on by council of the regency, which will attend to matters of state until Prince Michael attains his majority, which by the Rumanian constitution, is 18 years of age.

The army will take the oath of fidelity to the new king and all places of amusement in Bucharest have been ordered to remain closed until further notice. All meetings have been forbidden, and a censorship has been placed over the press.

The Brattiano government holds the country in an iron hand. Public buildings and strategic points are occupied by soldiers and the government is resolved that the decree of Jan. 4, 1926, expelling Carol, and instituting a regency in the event of Ferdinand's death, must be fulfilled. The present government is unalterably opposed to the return of Carol to Rumanian soil, even to attend the funeral of his father.

The party which a year ago was willing to support Prince Carol in reaching for the throne, appears to have dispersed and the government has the situation well in hand. No symptoms of trouble are reported from any district and the regency seems to have started auspiciously on its twelve or more years tenure of office.

Denney & Co. sent two cars of Lambert's yesterday. Will ship two or three more cars. A good many culls now.

The Association The Salem Cherry Growers association, O. E. Brooks, manager, has already sent out 17 cars of Bings and Lamberts. They expect to roll about 13 more, making 30 in all, against 21 last year. Sent two yesterday; three one day.

Sending some wonderful fruit, but are discarding much fine stuff, but cracked or imperfect. Culling very close. Building up a reputation for fine fruit; getting prices accordingly.

But for heavy culling, the black cherry shipments from Salem would have been much larger in tonnage.

R. F. Taylor, who Wednesday completed a term of one year served in the state penitentiary for forgery committed in Lane county, was rearrested by Sheriff John Aschin as he passed through the gate of the institution on charges of obtaining money by false pretenses in Tillamook county.

Taylor is under indictment in Tillamook county and will be tried there at the next term of court.

Bachelors Shirk Duties Say Professional Women OAKLAND, Cal., July 30. (AP)—Whether selfishness, the want of romance or a high income tax is responsible for bachelorhood was a question that divided the opinion of delegates attending the national convention of the business and professional women's clubs here today.

The question was brought before the delegates through introduction of a resolution asking for an increased exemption rate of income tax for unmarried persons.

Miss Martha Connolly, St. Louis lawyer, who proposed the resolution declared that the only reason men remain single is because they shirk the responsibilities of family life.

CHAUTAQUA PLAY DRAWS BIG CROWD

Lucille Elmore Company to Be Entertainers Today; Miles Lecturer

A well-filled tent greeted the David Lindstrom players last night—the first night of the Salem Chautauqua this season—when "The Foot," a master play of the age by Channing Pollock was presented by an all-star cast.

From the very beginning until the end there was an intense interest. One could have heard the proverbial pin drop all through the four acts. It seemed like a "perfect tribute" to work well done.

The members of the cast proved themselves adepts in the impersonations and situations in which they were placed and the hearty applause with the rapt attention of the big crowd attested to the success of the play.

Today the Lucille Elmore company will be the entertainers and tonight following their 40-minute prelude of music and mimicry Dr. Robert Parker Miles, famed lecturer will give his celebrated lecture on "Tallow Dips."

Dr. Miles has been on the platform for many years and has lectured in practically every state in the union. He came to America from England at the age of 18, has been twice around the world and has made 19 ocean voyages.

A striking personality combined with ready wit and mastery of oratory that few speakers possess, Dr. Miles carries his audience from the world-famed personalities of the long ago to the world's greatest personality—the humble mother in a humble home—and proves that the hand that rocks the cradle is after all the hand that rules the destinies of men and nations.

Tomorrow's feature will be the Smith-Spring - Holmes orchestral quintette.

There are but few reserved seats left and persons wishing them should engage them at once. The local Chautauqua committee was very much pleased last night with the large attendance at the initial program, and the large audience expressed itself well pleased with everything.

CHEERRIES HARVEST DRAWING TO CLOSE

Two or Three Weeks Remain for Loganberries; Then Lull of Few Days

Cherry harvest is drawing to a close, and loganberries and raspberries will not last very much longer. There will be a short period of rest in all the canneries, waiting for Bartlett pears and evergreen blackberries. All of them but one. The Oregon Packing company will have no rest. Stringless beans will come, for the 13th street plant, about August 1, before the 12th street plant is all through and on its way for pears and blackberries.

The Hunt cannery is working mostly on black cherries, which will last some days yet, and on loganberries, which will last two to three weeks there. Then a short wait for early pears and evergreens.

The Oregon Packing company is mostly on logans, but will have no rest, as above stated. Will begin on beans about August 1.

Northwest cannery on logans and raspberries, and will take pears and blackberries when ready.

The West Salem cannery is busy with logans and raspberries, and will take pears and blackberries when ready. Shipping out some of last year's and this year's canned goods, on orders.

The Producers Cooperative cannery will be on logans till end of next week, then blackberries and pears when ready.

The Starr cannery is on logans and raspberries. Closed on Royal Anns. Will take up blackberries and pears, after a short rest.

The Paulus cannery is about through both Royal Anns and logans, but will run four dryers on loganberries, till the last berry is taken care of; to fill orders for logans in that form.

Black Cherry Shippers Young & Wells, the Stadelman Fruit Co., and the C. H. Weaver Co. will take black cherries till tomorrow night, if not a few the following day. Then they will close on this crop.

A Salem shipper says Salem has already sent out about 76 cars of black cherries, the same number as last year. Those to follow will be in excess of last year's shipments.

"I have discovered that single men have a tendency to clear out and let a sister or several sisters meet most of the responsibilities of the home.

"Bachelors are selfish or they would not be bachelors; they're afraid of assuming the obligations, financial and spiritual, of marriage. Women have a deeper sense of moral responsibility than men."

Acid Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia" Better than Soda

Hereafter, instead of soda take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. It neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges the souring waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleasant to take than soda. Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drug store. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.—Adv.
