Coming from the bottom of the pack, to grab a series of victories from other league teams in the past few weeks, the Valley Motor men last night climbed into a tie with the papermakers for top position by shutting out the K. C.'s. The score was 4 to 0.

A series of three games will be played beginning Friday evening between the Papermakers and Valley Motor to determine the league championship. The games will be seven innings long, and will start at 6 o'clock, at Oxford park.

Good, steady twirling was displayed in the game last night, but it was the splendid support behind Russell which kept the K. C. players from scoring. Only one club man reached second base. That was late in the fifth inning when Long made a safe hit. McFarland's perfect performance behind the bat discouraged any base stealing tendencies which the K. C.'s might have had.

The Ford mechanics started right in at the beginning of the game when Steelhammer hit safely to center. Hawk advanced the lanky first baseman to third. Proctor then knocked the ball out between the pitcher and first baseman. It was a hard one to handle, and before Heenan could pick it up and speed it to first to nab Proctor, both Steelhammer and Hawk sailed home.

Steelhammer scored again in the third inning on Hawk's slashing double, and Gird's drive over second base in the fourth brought McFarland, after he had been walked to first base by Heenan.

A spectacular running catch by Daryl Proctor was an outstanding play of the game. It was a pretty hit that came off Busick's bat, and it would surely have been a safe single, had not Proctor run backward and leaped into the air to snag the rubber.

A good sized crowd witnessed the game and the cheering for the teams was pretty well divided.

Manager Dodge of the Valley Motor plans to start Russell in the box against the Papermakers next Friday. The pulp men probably will rely on Lauderback. Both clubs have a good pitching reserve to fall back on in case of need. Papermakers' ace, Oudeans in the hole, and the Motormen can use Proctor and Howard Harvey, a young six footer who started as a hurler for Milwaukee high school.

The first game in the play off series was to have been played Wednesday but injuries to Wilkerson, Papermaker catcher, were not sufficiently healed for him to play until Friday, it was believed.

"SHAMATEURISM" HELD MENACING

LONDON, July 25.—(AP)—"Shamateurism" is the greatest menace in the world to good tennis, in the opinion of Charles B. Cochran, who has been managing Susanne Longien, and other professional tennis stars on a tour through England.

"Professionalism will do no more harm to tennis than it has to golf, cricket, football and baseball," said Cochran. "The only important thing is to keep amateurism and professionalism entirely separate and not have amateurs encroaching their professionalism."

LATE SPORTS

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—(AP)—Ace Hunkins, Nebraska "wildcat" of the Welterweight ranks got back at Sergeant Sammy Baker, for the technical knockout victory the soldier boxer won over him several weeks ago by slaying his way to a victory in a return 10 round bout here tonight. Hunkins took the decision by reason of a nine count knockdown in the fourth, while ringfighters also accorded him a majority of the rounds.

LEAGUE GAME TONIGHT

The Postoffice and the P. E. P. company will meet in a delayed industrial league game tonight at Oxford park. If the Postoffice wins, it will also win the championship, but if P. E. P. wins, the leadership of the league will be thrown into a three cornered tie. Bill Merritt, as P. E. P. pitcher, will attempt to stop the Postoffice hitters.

DEFENSE AFFIDAVIT FILED BY DEMPSEY

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—(AP)—Jack Kearns' attempt to collect money alleged to be due him through a breach of contract and in other ways from Jack Dempsey, bobbed up today in the federal court for the eastern district of Pennsylvania.

Kearns filed a suit to recover $519,999.99 last September at the time Dempsey lost his world's heavyweight title to Gene Tunney in the Sequi-Centennial Stadium here.

Today counsel for Dempsey filed an affidavit of defense and at the same time entered a counter claim against Kearns for $279,326 which he says is owed him by his former manager.

In his affidavit of defense, Dempsey gave as his reasons for terminating an alleged oral contract with Kearns that his former manager had been convicted of a criminal charge in the state of Washington in 1924, and that in 1914 in Kings county, Washington, and in name of McKernan, had pleaded guilty and served part of one year's sentence.

"My reputation as a boxer is such as to require me to employ only a person of unimpeachable character as my manager," the affidavit declared.

In his counter claim Dempsey states that on or about March 12, 1924, he loaned Kearns $25,000 in cash to pay the income tax in connection with the Dempsey-Firpo fight on September 14, 1925. Dempsey said that he made loans from Kearns for the money and that the former manager failed to pay it or any part of it. On January 12, 1923, Dempsey said they orally agreed to purchase an apartment house in Los Angeles for $308,000. Of this Dempsey paid down one third and Kearns failed to pay his share.

There were numerous other business transactions mentioned in the counter claim.

Dempsey in his answer to Kearns' suit states that his former manager forged his name to the contract which is alleged to have been drawn up by the boxer and his manager and shown to the New York boxing commission on or about August 3, 1923. He said he did not know of the forgery until Kearns told him of its discovery by the commission and "begged" him to put his signature to the paper.

"In order to save Kearns," said Dempsey, "I signed my name over where Kearns had affixed my name."

LOU AND BABE HAVE 31 EACH

NEW YORK, July 25.—(AP)—When home runs are hit, Lou Gehrig and Babe Ruth generally hit their share of them, but the Yankees were not scheduled today and the twin titans of the Huggins batting order failed to break the tie of 31 homers apiece for the season thus far. They are both seven home runs behind the Babe's record year of 1921.

Among those who did drive for the circuit today were Andy Reese, Giant third baseman and Jimmy Dykes, first sacker for Connie Mack. Each won a ball game, Reese's scoring the only run in a duel with the Pirates and Dykes breaking a tie with the Tigers that had drawn itself out to 13 innings.

TILDEN DISPLAYS SAME OLD FORM

CHICAGO, July 25.—(AP)—William T. Tilden II, of Philadelphia, America's leading racket wielder for the past seven years, displayed his usual mastery of the courts today in breezing through to the fourth round of the Illinois state tennis tournament at the Skokie Country club.

Drawing a bye in the first round, Tilden downed young Gordon Braudt, University of Illinois sophomore, 6-0, 6-1 and without a rest defeated Scott Rexinger, Chicago's leading junior star 6-1, 6-0 to enter the fourth frame.

VANCOUVER WINS AGAIN ON COURT

The Vancouver Tennis club team defeated the Salem Tennis association's first squad again Sunday by one match, repeating by the same score that it won at Vancouver recently. The matches Sunday were played on the association's courts here.

The results of the matches were: Lutz, Salem, defeated Henry, Vancouver; DeBois, Vancouver, defeated White, Salem; Bates, Salem, beat Atkinson, Vancouver; Morris, Vancouver, beat Minto, Salem; Russell, Vancouver, defeated Waters, Salem.

HELEN ATTRACTS LARGE GALLERY

MANCHESTER, Mass., July 25.—(AP)—Miss Helen Wills, British singles champion, today drew a gallery of 1,000 persons to the Essex country club where her fast play and stronger game overshadowed all other events in the opening rounds of the third annual women's invitation tennis singles tournament.

All first round and all but two second round matches were completed today with the six seeded players, including Miss Wills, going through safely.

FIRST CLASS BOUTS BOOKED AT ARMORY

(By Will Carver)

There'll be a hot time in the old town Wednesday night if Phil Bayes and Bobby Gray are not, crowd pleasers for the mid-summer fight booked at the Armory.

With the failure of Joe Marcus to meet Benny Pelz at tonight's Portland smoker, Bayes was given his first chance in months to step into the Portland ring and settle his old grudge with the battling newsboy.

"I am surprised that Bayes takes on Pelz with so little time between fights," said Matchmaker Harry Plant when informed of the Portland change at a late hour last night. "I want Bayes in good condition for this encounter with Gray and I assure the fans that if he is not in good shape Wednesday morning that I will have a first class man to take his place against Gray. Gray will put up a worth-while scrap and there must be a good man opposite him."

"I have fought in Salem before with only a night or two between scraps," commented Bayes last night. "I know the fans want to see me go after Pelz, and Pelz or no Pelz, I am sure that I can show up Gray."

At this time tomorrow night's card is unusually good, and this is the line-up before the Bayes-Gray main event:

Joe Jewett, Portland, 150 pounds and Battling Hayes, Stay-on, 150 pounds, six round semifinal.

Ted Fox, of Independence, and Paddy Ferguson, Salem, four rounds. Both of these boys weigh in at 125 pounds.

Si Fluke, the Mill City mosquito, and Harry Lee, clever Portland Chinese fighter, both lads at 110 pounds, four rounds.

The curtain raiser will be the hard boiled Pete Morrison of Independence and Eddie Graham, of Salem. Both of these boys are, unusually good for first prelim stuff.

Tom Loutitt, most popular of referees, will preside at the big session.

BLACK THIEF LURED TO DOOM BY HONEY

Bear Robbing Apiary Near Valsetz Come, sto Sudden Death From Owner

H. R. Kieper of Jefferson killed a large black bear in his camp five miles east of Valsetz early Monday morning when the bear was found stealing honey from the Kieper apiary. The bear, which weighed about 250 pounds, was found on the running board of Mr. Kieper's Pontiac Six and brought to Salem yesterday morning.

Mr. Kieper has a large apiary at Jefferson, and each year he takes the bees to the mountains near Valsetz so they can get the fireweed honey. Bears have been bothering in the neighborhood, and Mr. Kieper was saying for this one when he arrived for his honey feast about 3 a. m. Monday morning.

A picture of Mr. Kieper and the bear on the running board of the Pontiac Six will appear in next Sunday's Statesman.

SMALL BOAT DISTRESSED

S. O. S. Says Ship Out of Fuel in Unfrequented Waters

SAN PEDRO, Cal., July 25.—(AP)—SOS calls believed by marine officials to come from a small boat in the service of the Mexican government as a gunboat were received here tonight. The message declared that the ship was out of fuel and in distress. In position, according to marine officials, is out of the path of steamers and in unfrequented waters.

LONDON.—(AP)—One of Queen Mary's hobbies is the collecting of fans, which she inherited from her mother, the Duchess of Teck. Princess Mary, her daughter, is also a fan collector but has nothing like the quantity of the valuable specimens which Queen Mary shows to her many intimate friends. There are jeweled fans, painted fans, lace and feathered fans of all shapes and sizes.

BARHAM SHUTS OUT MT. SCOTT TIGERS

Sunday's Scores
Salem 2, Mt. Scott 0.
Montavilla 10, Nicolai 4.

Wayne Barham was "just right" Sunday and it was a good thing for "King" Cole was equally effective and it was only by squeezing one run across in the second inning—largely the individual work of Vincent Jacobberger—and staging a brief rally to get another one in the fifth, that the Senators were able to nose out a 2 to 0 victory over Mt. Scott, marking the third straight victory over that team in as many Sundays. Of course, weather conditions were right too, but that doesn't detract anything from Barham's achievement in setting down the Tigers with six hits and no runs, and allowing two hits in an inning only once—the seventh.

In that frame Mt. Scott filled the bases, but Barham struck out three batsmen to prevent a score. Jacobberger's scoring venture, probably the deciding point of the game, was an outstanding sample of base running. He singled and stole second, going on to third when the throw to catch him at second was wild. Then, after there were two strikes on Hawk, Jacobberger started for home with Cole's first motion, and beat the ball by inches.

The rally that resulted in the second run was started by Edwards, who singled to right field. Barham laid down a sacrifice and Billy Sullivan tripled to right center, sending the catcher-manager across the plate.

The locals were given a scare in the seventh when Buono, first man up, singled, and after Barham had fanned O'Brien, Faust was safe on a fielder's choice and Buono roared on second when Ridings dropped Billy Sullivan's throw. Barham calmly proceeded to retire Harris on three strikes. Then Helmecke hit a high bouncer that went for a hit, and the bases were full. But Barham bore down just a little harder and tanned Cole to end the session.

JOE DOEG WINS LONGWOOD CUP

BROOKLINE, Mass., July 25.—(AP)—Joe Doeg, Santa Monica, Cal., 18 year old national junior singles champion, and member of the Davis cup squad, won the 35th annual Longwood Bowl singles tournament at the Longwood Cricket club here today in a match dominated by his service from the start.

His opponent in the finals, Cranston Holman, San Francisco, found the young California tennis star too strong on the firing line and the match went to Doeg, 6-3, 10-8, 8-6, 6-3.

White Tex Rickard met a delegation of citizens seeking again to hold the heavyweight championship title bout in Philadelphia and received an invitation from the mayor's committee of 350 business men to bring the fight to Chicago, both Tunney and Dempsey prepared to tuck the "rights" of process servers.

The legal blast aimed at the heavyweight champion came from Time Mara, New York sportsman, who filed suit in supreme court here today against Tunney and his manager, Billy Gibson. Mara seeks to recover 10 per cent of the $200,000 Tunney received for winning Dempsey's title last fall as well as 25 per cent of Gene's earnings since then under an alleged agreement entered into with the former martine and his mentor shortly before the fight. The contract was made in recognition of Mara's services in "procuring" the bout, he declared.

Mara asserted that Tunney has earned $25,000 from motion pictures, exhibitions and other means of exploitation since last September. Under the alleged contract, Mara declared he was to receive $ 1-3 per cent of Gibson's third share in Tunney's earnings and 16 2-3 per cent of the heavyweight titleholder's "cut." This amounted to $6,250 Mara said.

New difficulties threatening Dempsey came from the statement of Jack Kearns, his former manager, that the entire collection of injunctions and law suits that beset the former heavyweight cham-

LAWYERS DOG STEPS OF JACK AND GENE

NEW YORK, July 25.—(AP)—Sparring workouts with lawyers in courtroom "rings" threatened today to take a prominent part in the coming training campaigns of Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney, principals in the September renewal of last fall's battle of the Sequi.

White Tex Rickard met a delegation of citizens seeking again to hold the heavyweight championship title bout in Philadelphia and received an invitation from the mayor's committee of 350 business men to bring the fight to Chicago, both Tunney and Dempsey prepared to tuck the "rights" of process servers.
