LIGHT HEAVY CROWN GIVEN TO M'TIGUE

NEW YORK, July 26.—(AP)—Disposition of two world's boxing titles, so far as recognition goes in New York, was decided on today when the state athletic commission transferred the light heavyweight crown from Jack Delaney to the veteran Mike McTigue, and authorized a match between Red Chapman of Boston and Benny Bass of Philadelphia to determine the possessor of the featherweight title vacated by Louis (Kid) Kaplan.

LONDON.—(AP)—Despite the closing down of a number of old-world industries, the village blacksmith is surviving and flourishing throughout the country.

PHILADELPHIA, July 26.—(AP)—Uncertainty regarding Russel S. Callow of the University of Washington, becoming head coach at the University of Pennsylvania, is said to have been removed and official announcement of his signing a Pennsylvania contract is expected within a few days.

Callow sent his resignation to the University of Washington several weeks ago, but it is said the western institution failed to take action.

SHARKEY DECLARES "ALL RIGHT" AGAIN

NEWTON, Mass., July 26.—(AP)—Jack Sharkey, Boston's big boy of the prize ring, admitted today that he had suffered a slight aftermath of his battle with Jack Dempsey in New York last Thursday, but said he was "all right now." The boxer interrupted a busy day of preparation for a vacation in New Hampshire to give smiling denial to reports that he was dead, that he was in a hospital, and that he was suffering from severe internal hemorrhages as a result of the Manassa mauler's body punches.

ATLANTA PEOPLE TO HONOR BOBBY

ATLANTA, Ga., July 26.—(AP)—Friends and admirers of Bobby Jones in his native city will leave Atlanta tomorrow on a special car of the Crescent limited for New York City to welcome back to America the Atlanta golfer who recently won his second consecutive British open crown in record breaking tournament play. The Aquitania, on which Bobby is returning, will dock at New York Friday and when Bobby steps ashore he will be taken into the arms of those who have known and loved him all his life. Major John S. Cohen, publisher of the Atlanta Journal, is chairman of arrangements for the New York trip.

PRUE GRATTAN WINS BIG DERBY

KALAMAZOO, July 26.—(AP)—Prue Grattan, a little six year old brown mare, purchased two years ago at auction for $2000, won the $25,000 American Racing Derby, richest and premier event of the season, defeating 18 other starters, a record field for the classic. The game little mare won nearly six times her purchase price for her owner, J. W. Miller of Newark, Ohio. She captured $15,000 of the purse, with $4000 going to Dr. Volo, winner of second place. Time was 2:04 1/4; 2:03 1/4; and 2:03 1/4.

PHIL BAYES WINS OVER BENNY PELZ

PORTLAND, July 26.—(AP)—Harry Dillon, Winnipeg, light heavyweight boxer, won a slashing ten round decision over Frankie Wine, Billings, Montana, in the feature event of the double header at the armory here tonight. Phil Bayes, Salem lightweight, took a sensational ten round decision from Benny Pelz, Portland. Both fights were full of action and drew the largest crowd of the season. Bayes outboxed Pelz most of the time but the powerful Portland lad outroughed and outgassed his adversary. "Your parson seems to be a very dogmatic sort of man, Mr. Verker!" "No, not very; he's only got two and both of them's mongrels."

NEW MARK SET FOR RECEIPTS

LOS ANGELES, July 26.—(AP)—A peep into the records of prize ring "gates" in previous years revealed today that receipts for last night's Ace Huggins-Sammy Baker scrap were a record for the Pacific coast. More than 30,000 fans witnessed the fight, the gross receipts were $93,063, wiping out a mark that had stood for more than a score of years. A "Gate" of $63,000 was set by the Los Angeles Athletic Club in 1903.
