

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE STAGE AND SCREEN

Elsinore Theater Richard Dix dug down deep in his pocket and brought up a winner when he decided to make "Man Power," opening today at the Elsinore theater. It is by all odds one of the best pictures he has ever appeared in.

Directed by the man who has made some of Bebe Daniels' finest pictures, Clarence Badger, adapted by Sam Mintz and Ray Harris from a Byron Morgan story, scenarized by Louise Long, photographed by Ed Cronjager and enacted by a cast which includes Mary Brian and Phillip Strange, "Man Power" shapes up as tip-top entertainment for men, women and children.

It is clean, fast, likable melodrama and you'll enjoy all of Daredevil Dix' exploits. You'll cheer as Richard gets his broken-down auto tractor to move and you'll fall in the slough of despair as it falls him at a crucial moment. You'll laugh when Dix vanquishes his vicious rival for Miss Brian's hand and shouts of encouragement will come again and again as Dix finally gets his old machine to start up a perilous, rain-soaked hill in order to reach an ever-flowing dam in time to save the valley town below. Here are thrills—lots of them!

"Man Power" has lots of that certain something which has always been associated with Dix dramas—speed! It's full of z-zig and verve at each turn of the projection machine. Yes, without a doubt "Man Power" is well worth seeing.

On the extra list as added number STARTING TODAY 2 Days Only OH, MAN! The picture for you and your family...

Whether you're six, sixteen or sixty, you'll enjoy every minute of this show. STAR POWER STORY POWER ENTERTAINMENT POWER

Clear the road for RICHARD DIX in Man Power! A smashing, crashing drama in which one man saves a valley town by driving an auto tractor into the breach caused by a crumbling dam!

ADDED BIG BOY ATTA BABY

"Big Boy"—You Know Him —That Baby with the big shoes, derby hat and diapers—in his latest comedy.

BRUCE SCENIC NEWS WEEKLY HERE'S BIG NEWS You can see a complete program of this show STARTING IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE BAND CONCERT TONIGHT!

ANTICIPATION! A Guaranteed Attraction Fanchon and Marco's Idea "TASSELS" Beautiful Girls — Gorgeous Costumes — Living Tassels — Glittering Spectacle of Dance The Most Sensational Ensemble Ever Shown Every Number a Thrill SONGS — DANCES — HUMOR — EVERYTHING All Starting Sunday At the ELSINORE The Coolest Spot in Town

bers on the Elsinore bill today, is that cute star, Big Boy, in his latest comedy, "Atta Baby" together with a beautiful Bruce scenic and news weekly.

Another feature in connection with this program, is the fact that our schedule will be so arranged to give patrons of the Elsinore an opportunity to see this complete program which will start immediately after the band concert this evening, and it is anticipated that many will take advantage of this new innovation.

Olive Borden, starring in Fox film version of "The Country Beyond," due on the Elsinore sheet of the Oregon theater tomorrow, wears some of the most picturesque costumes seen in pictures this season. These she displays in a stage sequence of the drama when she becomes the girl of the north woods, the girl of the north woods becomes the sensation of the hour as premiere dancer of a fashionable musical show on New York's Broadway. An all-star cast, headed by J. Farrell MacDonald, supports the star in this Irving Cummings production, which is the screen version of James Oliver Curwood's great novel of the same name.

Local theater patrons who have read Curwood's masterpiece know there is a great treat in store for the photo-drama fans of Salem when this picture is flashed on the screen tomorrow. Irene Rich in "The Climbers," a glittering melodrama of the loves and hates of Spanish hearts will be shown for the last time today, together with a two-part comedy, Pathe Review and news weekly.

New York is said to be the only real streen. New York calls and brings men and women from the highways and the byways. Tanner and Palmer have contrived a bright little comedy from this idea. It is named "New York is Calling Me," and is an incident of the Broadway life. Few people understand the other fellow's game and of course the other fellow is the layman. Consequently Al Tyler calls himself "The Layman."

A public long accustomed to witnessing the impossible, nevertheless cannot help wondering at the skill and daring of the Angel Brothers. This team of foreign equilibristas present what is generally considered to be the very final word in balancing. Their skill is so great and their balance is not only maintained but an exceptional gymnastic performance offered as well. The Angel Brothers have just concluded a long tour in Europe and they are to be seen here for the first time. It has remained for Mildred and Lucille Wiseman to add to vaudeville a musical offering that contains a distinctive and pleasing appeal. And they do not fall short of their ability, for a delightful repertoire of Spanish and popular tunes bespeaks of talents well developed. Miss Mildred Wiseman is considered one of the finest violinists in America, a statement that is corroborated by the fact that she won first honors at the National American Music Festival in 1924 and the following year was chosen as the leading soloist at the festival. Miss Wiseman possesses all of the technique of a master violinist; her playing conveys the warmth of soul and deep expression. Lucille Wiseman is the possessor of an extremely flexible soprano voice of rich tonal quality and wide range, and she renders her selections with true feeling and expression. Both young ladies have the advantage of appearance which they add valuably to an act that is a decided asset to vaudeville.

A miniature musical comedy in which songs, dances and comedy are dispensed by talented members and several dances are included. The six people making up the cast are from the larger musical comedies. On the screen the Capitol will offer Marion Davies in her latest comedy role in "The Red Mill."
